SAVE THE FATS.

More "Fat" Information.

Hard fats such as beef kidney fat and lamb fat or mutton fat, are unsatisfactory to use in flour mixture—(1) because they must be melted if they are to be mixed easily; (2) because the product dries out more rapidly than it does if soft fat is used.

To soften a hard fat to the proper consistency for use in cooking, mix two parts of hard fat, such as beef or mutton fat with one part of softer fat such as lard, sausage fat or cottonseed oil. The mixing may be done while the fat is being rendered, or while it is cooling down.

Disguise the Odor of Certain Fats.
A savory fat that is excellent to use for frying and in gravies may be made by browning with each pound of suet a thick slice of onion, one sour apple, and a scant teaspoon of ground thyme or mixed herbs, tied in a cloth. If desired, omit the ground herbs and substitute half a bay leaf and a few allspice berries.

Make Soap from Fats Discarded for Food Use.

A reliable recipe for home-made soap is as follows:

5½ lbs. fat, 1 pound lye, 6½ cups cold water (rainwater if possible) 2 tablespoons borax, half cupful hot water, half cupful ammonia.

Strain and clarify the fat if it has many impurities. Put the lye in a stone or enamel vessel and add the cold water. Let it stand until it cools. Dissolve the borax in the hot water and add it to the lye. Melt the fat, warm it slightly, and pour it gradually into the lye, stirring it constantly. Add the ammonia to the mixture before it quite cools. Continue stirring until the soap is as thick as pancake water. Add a little oil of geranium, or other perfume if desired. Then pour

The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

the soap into wooden or paper boxes lined with greased paper. When it is cold cut it into cakes. Let it stand a week to ripen, the make it from the boxes an dstack it in a warm dry place.

Well dried soap can be used more economically than freshly made soap. Home made soft soap saves time in laundering or dish washing.

Directions for making soft soap are found on the lye cans.
