AIR RAID ON LONDON PULLED OFF ON NIGHTS OF SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

Casualties Placed at Eleven Killed and Four Injured---Only One Air Craft Reached London on Saturday's Raid ---Sunday's Raid More Successful.

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Eleven persons were killed and four injured in the air attack on London on Saturday, it is officially announced. Six German airplanes attempted to attack London on Saturday night, but only one of them succeeded in reaching the capital. This raider dropped one bomb in the southwestern district. One of the German airplanes fell into the sea. On Sunday night London was raided again, a number of bombs being dropped in the city.

Six or seven airplanes took part in the raid on Sunday night. The first flew over London, dropping bombs in various districts. All were turned back.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT SAYS ONLY ONE OUT OF SIX OR SEVEN AIRCRAFT REACHED LONDON

The following official report was issued today: "Last night's air raid appears to have been carried out by six or seven enemy airplanes, of which only one penetrated into London. The first raider passed the Isle of Thanet at about 9.45 p. m. and proceeded up the Thames estuary into London, crossing the capital from southeast to northwest. Bombs were dropped in various districts. The remaining raiders, who attempted to reach London from the northeast across Essex, or from the east along the line of the river Thames, were all turned back. Reports of casualties and damage have not yet been received."

ENEMY AIRPLANES WERE SEEN APPROACHING

PARIS, BUT NO BOMBS WERE DROPPED BY THEM

PARIS, Feb. 18.—An alarm that enemy airmen were approaching Paris was given at 9.40 last night. Suspicious sounds of motors were heard by watching stations in the north-eastern district. Precautions were taken immediately and at 10 p. m. the noises ceased. No bombs are reported to have been dropped, and the "all clear" signal was given at eleven o'clock. The War Office has issued the following statement:

"The artillery activity was rather lively on the Ailette and the Aisne, before the Chaume wood and the Upper Alsace. To the south of Mezerai we repulsed an enemy surprise attack."

"Army of the East, Feb. 18.—Near Lake Putkovo a British detachment penetrated the enemy lines and destroyed their positions. Serbian troops have checked two Bulgarian reconnoitering raids."

WILL TELL THE GERMAN PEOPLE OF AMERICA'S PART IN THE WAR

(By Canadian Press direct wire.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—A campaign of American propaganda in foreign countries, including Germany and neutral lands, will be begun shortly, it became known here today, by Arthur Woods, who was police commissioner of this city during the administration of Mayor Mitchell. While Mr. Woods declined to discuss the task confronting him, it was learned that he planned to go to Washington within a day or two to confer with government officials.

Under Mr. Woods' direction the truth about America's role in the war will be spread among the German people and non-belligerents, and efforts will be made to hearten people of the Entente Allies with full knowledge of what the United States will do in war work, and to combat such malicious German propaganda as is said to have caused the recent Italian military reverses.

PEACE TREATY DENOUNCED

Winnipeg, Feb. 18.—Through a mass meeting here last night under the auspices of the Ukrainian social democratic party of Canada, the quarter million Ukrainian citizens of Canada denounced the separate peace treaty entered into by the Ukraine with the Central Powers, declaring that the delegates thus engaged in the meeting represent the true feeling of the Ukrainian nation, which was that the war should be carried on until a peace on the lines of world democracy is established.

SHIP CARPENTERS' STRIKE IN U. S. SHIPYARDS IS OVER

Men Confident That President Wilson will See That Justice is Done--Thousands Have Returned to Work.

(By Canadian Press direct wire.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The strike of carpenters in the Atlantic seaboard shipyards engaged on government contracts is over, John Rice, national organizer of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, said today. Several thousand men who are still idle are expected to be at work tomorrow morning. "About three thousand of the strikers returned to work this morning, Mr. Rice estimated. "The men are going back because they have every confidence that President Wilson will adjust the matter to their satisfaction," he said.

In yards at Baltimore, Philadelphia, Jersey City, Elizabethport and New York, about six thousand carpenters quit work this morning, Mr. Rice announced, because they were unaware of the fact that Mr. Hutcheson, president of the brotherhood, had replied to President Wilson's letter of last night by announcing he would endeavor to influence the strikers to resume work pending settlement of their grievances by wise adjustment boards. Many of the six thousand were later informed of this situation and returned to the yards, Mr. Rice said, and during the day every effort would be made to get in touch with the others.

POWER OF THE BOLSHEVIKI IN RUSSIA REPORTED TO BE WANING

(By Canadian Press direct wire.)

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 17.—That the power of the Bolsheviks in Russia is slowly waning, is the conclusion of an American reaching Stockholm today from Petrograd, where he had resided for eighteen months. This man left Petrograd Feb. 7. "So long as there were masses of soldiers in Petrograd and Moscow," he said, "the Bolsheviks' opponents have felt that any attempt to establish an ordered government was impossible. As a matter of fact, many of the soldiers are not Bolsheviks, but their mere presence was a deterrent. Now they are gradually departing for their farms and villages and it will be impossible to recall them. This is especially true of Moscow, where the opponents of Nikolai Lenin and Leo nTrotzky are beginning to pluck up courage. Another factor against the Bolsheviks is their campaign against the church. The recent procession in Petrograd headed by priests was an imposing affair, and the Bolsheviks did not think it prudent to attempt by force to prevent it."

The Morning Post Says the News of His Removal Will Cause Consternation--- Declares He is the Greatest British Soldier of His Day.

(By Canadian Press direct wire.)

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The idea that the public is attempting to dictate to the government what their military policy shall be or who shall be employed to carry it out, is deprecated by the Daily Chronicle in an editorial on the situation brought about by the announcement that General Robertson had been removed as Chief of the Imperial Staff.

"The task is one for the responsible ministers," it says, "and while it is open to parliament to change the ministers, no circumstances have been disclosed in the present instance that would warrant such an upheaval."

The Times remarks that the Premier's recent speech in the House of Commons failed to carry complete conviction, and says the result has been a storm of exaggeration and political intrigue over what seems to have been a most natural and common sense arrangement. It declares that a full explanation of events obviously is overdue.

SURPRISING THAT MILITARY ORGANIZATION OF THE ALLIES HAS ITS PRINCIPLES UNIMPAIRED

"The government seems to have done its best to mishandle an overwhelming case," it adds. "Whatever may have been going on behind the scenes, their alternate bursts of confidence and reticence have given the impression of sheer indecision. It is almost as surprising as it is satisfactory, that the Allies' military organization has emerged with its principles unimpaired."

News of General Robertson's removal, the Morning Post says, will be received with consternation by the public and the army. It eulogizes General Robertson, not only as the greatest British soldier of his day, but as the highest military genius the war so far has produced. "It is impossible to exaggerate," it says, "how much efficiency and success the British arms owe to General Robertson."

SAYS PARLIAMENT WILL WANT TO KNOW WHY GENERAL ROBERTSON WAS TREATED SCURVILY

Declaring that it is evident that General Robertson has been dismissed, and that those who dismissed him find it inconvenient to confess the truth, the Post says that parliament will insist on knowing why the distinguished soldier is treated so scurvily. It continues: "If summary dismissal of General Robertson were not enough to shatter our confidence in Premier Lloyd George and the government, the circumstances of dismissal would do it. We have had enough of the Premier, who surrounds himself with janissaries of the press, ready at the lift of his eyebrow to bow-string any distinguished soldier or sailor who dares to cross his arbitrary will. The need of the public is a premier who, while knowing where to exercise forbearance with what he does not understand, will know also how to throw his whole weight into prosecution of the war."

SUPPORTERS OF THE GOVERNMENT URGED TO BE IN THEIR PLACES IN THE HOUSE THIS WEEK

James W. Lowther, the speaker of the House of Commons, and General Jan Smuts, are mentioned by the Post as the type of men fitted to head the government.

According to the Daily News, the government is becoming anxious over its position. Its supporters all over the country were telegraphed on Sunday a request that they attend the sessions of the House of Commons on Monday and Tuesday for important army debates, says this newspaper.

It still seems probable that Premier Lloyd George will make his promised statement on Tuesday, although it is regarded as possible that circumstances may compel him to speak today, notwithstanding the cold from which he is suffering.

Count Czernin is appointed an honorary major general in the service. Emperor Charles also had decorated several diplomats connected with the negotiations at Brest-Litovsk.
