Slants of Humor

A FOODILOQUY.

To eat or not to eat. That is the Question; whether it is nobler in The mind to suffer the pangs of an Almost insatiable hunger, or Take up arms against a sea of Troubles—outrageous prices, dis-Courteous tradesmen, or is it best To starve and never know them; To get along on grits and cornmeal Cutlets, or go and live with the Wife's folks, which is, perhaps A consummation Devoutly to be wished.

DESIGNED FOR THE ENEMY.

Instructor in Bridge Construction—Why, this affair would collapse in a half hour. Look at the way those knots are tied!

Recruit—That's all right sir. This bridge is designed for the enemy!

BEST WAY TO SPEND THEM.

An editor had an idea. He sent forty telegrams to men and women distinguished in art, religion, literature, commerce, politics and other lines, asking: "If you had but forty-eight hours to live, how would you spend them?" His purpose was to embody the replies in a symposium in a subsequent issue of his periodical.

A noted writer sent back the truthful answer by wire, collect: "One at a time."

PRUSSIAN MILITARISM.

Prussian militarism prepared for this war since 1871 as frankly and openly as a certain club. A lady rang up the club the other evening.

"Please call my husband to—" she began, but was interrupted by the attendant, who said: "He ain't here, ma'am."

"My good gracious me!" the lady exclaimed. "You're mighty sure of it, aren't you? And I haven't told you my name yet, either. Look here, mister, how do you know my husband is not at the club when I haven't told you my name?"

Blandly the attendant replied: "Nobody's husband isn't never at the club, ma'am."

TORONTO GIRL ASSAULTED

Toronto, Feb. 16.—With very little clothing on, a young girl named Dennis was found lying unconscious behind a tree on Goullis street this morning.

The police removed her to the general hospital, where doctors worked over her half an hour before she regained consciousness. When the girl revived she stated that she had met a man while shopping early on Thursday afternoon, in a down town department store, and after a brief conversation the pair went out together.

From that time on she was unable to remember where she had been. Attending physicians at the hospital say the girl has been criminally assaulted and they were of the opinion she had been drugged.

Seed Grain, 1918

Good Seed is scarce. Place your order now with your County Councillor. The Department of Agriculture has ordered wheat and oats through the Seed Branch, Ottawa. The germination is carefully tested.

The Seed is now stored in the elevators at Quebec, thus avoiding transportation difficulties and guaranteeing delivery.

The Department requested the co-operation of the County Councils in the distribution. Seed will be forwarded at their order in car lots, thus avoiding local freights and much handling.

Wheat will cost about $3.00 per bushel in bags laid down.

The Seed Branch is yet unable to fix the price on oats. Definite prices will be stated in this space immediately they are at hand.

New Brunswick is expected to bread herself for the duration of the war. Every farmer should grow some wheat.

Agricultural Societies should arrange orders early. Send all orders to the County Councillors immediately.
