JANUARY A TRYING MONTH FOR THE BRITISH PEOPLE

"We Must go on or go Under" is Now the Watchword---Labor Unions Have Met Demand Made Upon Them for More Men---Lloyd George Has Strengthened His Position and Authority.

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

London, Jan. 20. — The first month of 1918 has been one of the most trying of the whole war for the British people. Now the nation seems to have weathered its doubts and disagreements and accepted the watchword: "We must go on or go under." The labor unions met the demand upon them for more men in khaki with a doubtful spirit; they insisted upon knowing the government's exact war program and were inclined to believe that peace negotiations were possible. These questions have been threshed out with the government fully and freely, with straight talking on both sides, and the government seems to have carried the day.

AWFUL ATTACKS OF HEART TROUBLE

Eased by Second Dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

One of the first danger signals announcing something wrong with the heart is the irregular beat or violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all-gone" sinking feeling, or again you may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die. In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond question, marvelous.

Mrs. Frank Areseneau, Newcastle, N. B., writes: "I had awful attacks of heart trouble for the past five or six years, and as I had tried many kinds of medicine without getting any better, I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and to my surprise I found ease from the second dose. I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be."

"At present my sister is taking them for nervousness, and finds great comfort by their use."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders and others interested in the Fredericton Trotting Park Association will be held at the Barker House on MONDAY EVENING, Jan. 21st, at 8 o'clock.

T. V. MONAHAN, Sec'y.

This result is due principally to Premier Lloyd George and it strengthens his position and authority for the time being. The premier's resourcefulness was never disturbed by the fusillade of questions from the laborites, some of them out and out pacifists, at the Friday conference. Probably the most effective statement Mr. Lloyd George made was that the government was ready to go into a peace conference whenever the Germans showed any disposition to negotiate in equitable terms. But he saw no disposition of that kind now.

Government Criticised.

There is still sharp criticism of the government among the masses, regarding the food problem. While apparently there are enough supplies in the country to maintain the population in comfort, the complicated business of distribution has not been successfully met.

A general election is expected as soon as a new register of votes can be made. Eight million new voters, six million of whom are women, will go on the rolls under the reform which the house of lords is now debating. The predictions are that the next government will be a Labor-Liberal coalition, with the labor party holding the largest number of seats of any party in the house of commons.
