Help the Soldiers!

Send your soldier friend a box of Zam-Buk, which for its great healing power and compactness is called "A surgery in a two-inch box." It is indispensable in France for bad feet, poisoned wounds, frost bite, cold cracks, chapped hands, chilblains and sores of all kinds.

Pte E. Westfield, of "C" Company, 3rd Worcester Regiment, writes home: "I wish we could get more Zam-Buk out here instead of so much tobacco. We need Zam-Buk badly and nothing can take its place."

Be sure to include at least one box of Zam-Buk in your next parcel. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

Slants of Humor

AN EPITAPH.

Here lies a poor woman who always was tired.
She lived in a house where the help was not hired.
Her last words on earth were: "Dear friends, I am going
To where there's no cooking, no washing, no sewing;
But everything there is exact to my wishes,
For where they don't eat there's no washing of dishes.
I'll be where loud anthems will always be ringing,
But having no voice, I'll be out of the singing.
Don't mourn for me now; don't mourn for me, never;
I'm going to do nothing for ever and ever."

WOULD SAVE HIS SOUL.

In a university of the Middle West chemistry is not an elective. Thus it happened that a young theologian found himself enduring the fumes of a laboratory.

In final "exam" was the question: "What would administer in a case of aqua regia poisoning?"

The young man racked his brain and regretted that he had neglected his chemistry. At last he wrote: "I would administer at the sacrament."

VERSATILE PROFESSOR.

Shortie Martin, the leading chief bass singer at the Harris Chapel church, has resigned to accept a more beneficial position as headwaiter at Wittersburg hotel. He also holds the position of chief taxicab driver when wood is needed. The girls will weep to learn that Shortie intends to join the army, for he is the only singing professor here.—Country corres. of an American paper.

HIS OBJECT.

Although only 17, he had come to "join up," and was in the recruiting office answering some questions the sergeant was putting to him.

"Look here, my man," said the sergeant, "are you willing to die for your country?"

The recruit opened his eyes with astonishment. "No, sir," he replied. "I'm joining up to make a German die for his."

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.
