

For a Kicker's Breakfast!

Most men are critical about coffee. They travel around among the best hotels and taste coffee prepared by expert chefs.

Now Red Rose Coffee was produced especially to meet the critic's keen, educated taste. It is a blend of the richest coffees, and is crushed—not ground.

Some men, whom we know to be real kickers, have been kind enough to say that the flavor is equal to that of any coffee they have ever tasted.

If you are a kicker, have your wife make you a cup and then tell us what you think of Red Rose Coffee.

The same price as it was three years ago.

LINES TO A GROUCH.

I wonder what makes you so blue?
There's nothing ever bright with you;
I guess your liver's out of whack,
A spring is broken in your back;
Or, maybe, after all is said,
It's just a wheel loose in your head.
But after all, just cheer up some,
Because the worst is yet to come!

THE FATE OF THE DUCK.

The Westminster Gazette says that two women were gazing at the whole display made by a poulturer in Smithfield—two ducks. They (the ducks, not the women), were blackened and dried by long hanging in cold storage.

"If yer arsk me," remarked one, pointing an accusing finger at one of the birds, "that feller's been gassed!"

ORDERS IS ORDERS.

Orderly Sergeant—Lights out, there!
Voice from the Hut—It's the moon, Sergeant.
Orderly Sergeant—I don't give a d—n what it is. Put it out!

'VARSITY RACE ON HIS MIND.

At Oxford, says the Christian Register, a boating undergraduate in his examination for ordination was asked:

"How many persons are there in the Trinity?"

He promptly replied: "Four and the coxswain."

AS TO THE NEW BEER.

For the ministers of Greater Boston Dr. George Horr, president of the Newton Theological Institute, summed up the attributes of the new "near-beer."

"As the old negro said," declared Dr. Horr, "it looks like beer, it smells like beer and it tastes like beer—but when it done get inside it ain't got no authority."
