

"THE FIGHTING TRAIL"

It would be folly to go down without summoning help, and Gwyn realized that Nan's rescue, not to mention his own safety, would be needlessly imperilled by such a course. As he reached the end of the building and looked down Main street the sight which made his hope bound high. Four abreast, carbines spitting in all directions, a troop of khaki clad cavalry was charging straight at the centre of von Bleck's defenses.
The handits were fleeing in a wild panic as Hogan's men also kept up the fire, and then realizing that even they meant the possibility of death, they lifted their hands in surrender.
"Casey, Hogan! Come to the jail!" called Gwyn, and seeing that they understood, he dashed back to the fire.
Swinging by his hands from the window ledge he dropped to the cellar floor and made his way to the spot where Hogan's dog was standing over the unconscious Nan. Tying his handkerchief over her face as a shield he killed her tenderly and staggered back to the window. He waited and a moment later Casey's honest, rugged features showed in the opening.
"Hold my legs, Hogan," said Casey turning his head, and then let himself down headforemost until his arms were free. Nan was lifted quickly forward to the window by rough but careful hands and others drew her safely through. Next came the dog, whose tail wagged ecstatically when he caught a whiff of the fresh air outside. Gwyn himself went up last, and Casey had to strain mightily to lift him from the floor. When finally he stood outside supported by Hogan's arm it was all he could do to retain his consciousness. Nan already had opened her eyes under friendly minis-

TO SUFFER FROM HEADACHES

Makes Life Miserable.

Headache seems to be habitual with many people. Some are seldom, if ever, free from it, suffering continually with the dull throbbings, the intense pain, sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then over the whole head, varying in its severity by the cause which brings it on.

The varieties of headache most common are sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, debility or indigestion and periodical and spasmodic headache, and undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be had.

Burdock Blood Bitters, that has been on the market for over 40 years, removes the cause of the headache, and not only does this but also restores the entire system to healthy action and buoyant vigor.

Miss Emily Smith, 204 Bellwoods Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. For two years I was greatly troubled with violent headaches, particularly in the morning. I tried everything to cure me until a friend recommended B.B.B. I tried it and now I am completely cured."

I had brought him into the shaft with me—saw him and tried to protect me.
He must have known that something was wrong—I think I cried for help.
Anyway, the dog made one leap at Drant and caught hold of him with his teeth. They struggled until they reach-

Sound Advice

THE best information obtainable at present indicates plentiful supplies of raw sugar for the year 1918, and, PROVIDED THAT SHIPS ARE AVAILABLE to transport the raw sugar, everybody should be able to obtain a reasonable supply.

This is a great big "IF" however, to overcome, and therefore it would be safer for consumers and dealers to make plans only for eighty to ninety per cent of last year's consumption.

It will be well on in February before any large supplies of raw sugar reach Canada, and in the meantime the supply will be limited owing to the small stocks on hand.

During 1917 this Company has operated its Refinery continuously, the only interruption being two days at Christmas time. We believe this record has not been equalled by any refinery in the United States or Canada.

These sugars are available in three different grades, under the names of

Light Yellow
Brilliant Yellow
Dark Yellow

Such sugars as these have a pronounced flavour all their own that adds richness to everything for which they are used.

any quantity. The Red Ball Trade Mark appears on each 100 lb. bag and your grocer will be very glad to show you that the sugar you are getting is out of a
