

HOW TO ASCERTAIN IF YOU HAVE CATARRH

Look for Symptoms of This Treachorous Disease in the Following List.

"Is your breath bad?"
"Is your throat sore?"
"Do you cough at night?"
"Is your voice raspy?"
"Does your nose stop up?"
"Have you nasal discharge?"
"Do you spit up phlegm?"
"Has your nose an itchy feeling?"
"Have you pain across the eyes?"
"Is your throat irritable, weak?"
"Do you sleep with mouth open?"
"Are you subject to sneezing fits?"
"Do your ears roar and buzz?"
"Are you hard of hearing?"

If you have any of these indications of Catarrh, cure the trouble now—stop it before it gets into the lungs or bronchial tubes—then it may be too late. The remedy is "Catarrhazone," a direct breathable cure that places antiseptic balsams and healing medication on every spot that's tainted by catarrhal germs.

"No one can know better than I the enormous benefit one gets from the very first day's use of Catarrhazone," writes T. T. Hopkins of Westvale, P. Q. "I had for years a stubborn case of bronchial catarrh, ear noises, headache, sore eyes, stopped-up nose and throat. It effected my appetite and made my breath rank. Catarrhazone cured quickly."

The dollar outfit lasts two months, and is guaranteed; smaller size, 50c, sample size, 25c., at all storekeepers and druggists, or The Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

SUFFERED WITH NERVES COULD NOT KEEP QUIET.

Diseases of the nervous system are very common.

All the organs of the body may be sound while the nerve centres may be affected.

Many women become run down and worn out by household duties never ending, and sooner or later find themselves with their nerves shattered and the heart action weakened.

On the first sign of an weakness of either the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will at once quieten the shaking nerves, strengthen the weak heart and build up the entire system.

Mrs. F. Bailey, 221 Earl St., Kingston, Ont., writes: "I was suffering very much with my nerves, so much so that I could not keep myself quiet at all. I was recommended to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I bought three boxes, and I must say I have derived much benefit from them, so much so that my friends have all noticed the change in me."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box at all dealers, or mailed Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NEW YEAR VOWS MADE TO BE BROKEN

When Life Gets to be Just One Thing After Another the Solemn Oath Gives Way to the Other Kind.

"I wonder how many New Year vows are right side up with care, now that a quarter of the year has about slipped into the solemn subsequently, mused Jimmelson. "Did you reform like the rest of the boys on New Years day?"

"I only registered one vow," said Fishpaw. "I began to realize that the habit of using dark blue language was going to cut out all off color words, and to make the vow binding I told my wife I'd give her 10 cents every time she heard me hand out a word that wouldn't be endorsed by a Sunday school teacher."

"During the first few days in January I was pretty busy handing over small change to Elizabeth, and she said she was beginning to feel like a cash register. It was costing me so redhot terms that I learned to speak slowly and consider every word before I turned it loose, so that by the end of the month my wife only drew a dime on rare occasions, as when I whacked my nose against the edge of a door in the dark or stepped on a tack or something like that."

"During the month of February Elizabeth collected only 20 cents, and she looked rather discouraged, although she insisted she was glad that I had overcome my besetting sin."

"When the weather began to get spring-like a couple of weeks ago I decided to put my auto in commission. It had been hibernating in the barn all winter. I had the battery recharged and the tires pumped up and some oil squirted around where it would do the most good, and then one evening I took my wife and a bunch of females of the neighborhood for a little jaunt."

"When we started on that drive I was perfectly satisfied with myself and at peace with all the world. I had cut out the cussing habit for good and my conscience was perfectly comfortable. We traveled into the country and on a nasty gravelly road I found we had a puncture in one of the rear tires. I got busy jacking up the axle while the women stood around saying it was a lovely evening and there was every indication of a fine tomorrow."

"Something was wrong with the jack, and the handle slipped and gave me a jolt that lifted me clear across the road. I was just going to say a few things when I caught my wife's eye, eagerly fastened on me. She actually seemed hoping I would cut loose, but I may be doing her an injustice. Anyhow, I merely muttered a few denatured words and got busy again. The bolts and burs holding the rim were all rusty, and it was a fierce job doing anything with them. And the rim was jammed onto the wheel so that it took me an hour to get it off."

"I had skinned my fingers and sprained a wrist and my knees were all lacerated from kneeling in the gravel, and I certainly was in a frame of mind when finally I got the punctured tire off and a sound one on. But I hadn't said a word that was unfit for the family circle, and my wife patted my back and said I was a wonder."

"Then we all climbed into the car and started off, and we had traveled perhaps forty feet when I heard the ominous hissing that means a puncture. Say, the tire I had just put on was flat!"

"My wife sat there with a piece of paper and a pencil keeping tab while I explained where I was at, and when we got home I had to cough up $4.80 in one package."

ality the Minister may issue permits to kill such birds so long as they shall continue to be injurious. Applications for such permits shall include a full statement.
