BRITAIN WILL DEMAND EIGHT MILLION POUNDS

Huns will be Called Upon to Pay Enormous Sum in Reparation for the Destruction Caused by the War—Lloyd George to Make Announcement—Peace Conference Not Likely to Get Down to Business Before the New Year.

London, Dec. 7.—Great Britain will demand of Germany £8,000,000,000 sterling for Great Britain and her dominions as reparation for the war, according to the Daily Mail. The newspaper says it understands that Lloyd George, the premier, will make this announcement in a speech at Leeds today.

This the Daily Mail adds, is what the war cost Great Britain and her dominions and British taxpayers will be relieved of £400,000,000 per annum by the German payment.

Paris, Dec. 6.—The opening of the peace congress at Paris has been set for the first week in January. It is expected here that the peace deliberations will last about four months. Unless unforeseen obstacles arise the belief prevails in well informed circles that final action will be reached toward the early part of May.

The British delegates to the peace conference will be Premier Lloyd George, Foreign Minister Balfour, Chancellor of the Exchequer Bonar Law, Labor Minister Barnes and a fifth representative who has not yet been selected.

Non-Committal on Kaiser

Washington, Dec. 6.—The United States government is still standing aloof from the controversy in Europe over the possible extradition of the German emperor for trial. It was said at the state department today that this question had not been considered in Washington and the American government had expressed no opinion on the subject whatever.

December Meeting Informal

London, Dec. 6.—Arthur J. Balfour secretary of state for foreign affairs in outlining his views on the peace conference today told the Associated Press that he thought the meeting in Paris this month would be merely informal and preliminary to the conference of the associated governments at the first of the year, which would formulate all the important terms of peace agreements.

This conference, he added, would be the most important and the longest of the series. When it was finished the enemy countries would be called in to ratify the conclusions reached.

Mr. Balfour said the British government had not yet made any fixed arrangements for President Wilson to visit England, as it would be premature to do so until more was known regarding the president's own plans. Great Britain would be guided solely by his wishes.

League of Nations

The foreign secretary said he believed the question of a league of nations was the most important work imposed on the conference.

"The prominence Mr. Wilson has given the subject is a valuable contribution to civilization," he declared. "I think," continued Mr. Balfour, "a league of nations a vital necessity if this war is to produce all the good we expect to come out of it. The United States would have to bear a large share in the work it involves. It should be something more than a mere instrument to prevent war. The world is more complicated than we are inclined to think. It would be folly to imagine it possible to constitute a world with states endowed with equal rights and powers."

"But I wish to say emphatically, in my opinion to devise in concert workable machinery for them is one of the highest functions the conference can deal with."

MISS J. ARNOLDI ADDRESSED BIG AUDIENCE

Work of Canadian Field Comforts Association Described —Crossed With First Division.

A golden opportunity presented itself to the feature loving public yesterday when they were invited to attend the splendid address given by Miss Joan Arnoldi at the Assembly Chamber in the Parliament Building. The address was given under the auspices of the I. O. D. E. Miss Arnoldi is a Lieutenant in the Canadian Field Comforts Commission, organized by herself and Miss (Capt.) Plummer at the beginning of the war in 1914 at Valcartier. The Commission was organized and the ladies left for England with the First Contingent establishing their work on Salisbury Plain and afterward at Shorncliffe. The work of the Commission was supplying the overseas soldiers with socks, mittens, gloves and other necessities. One asset for the soldiers and which helps greatly in keeping up the morale of the men is games or money with which to buy them.

Before Miss Arnoldi's address the Mandolin Orchestra rendered several selections. Miss Hudson gave several splendid musical selections on the piano, and Mrs. Montgomery gave a splendid vocal solo.

Conditions at Front

Miss Arnoldi described the conditions she had seen in France both in and behind the fighting line. She has visited the firing line and has taken a careful survey of all the necessary articles of which the soldiers are most in need. Miss Arnoldi mentioned of how highly the soldiers had spoken of the boxes and comforts they received. She described carefully the manner in which articles were distributed to the soldiers and the trouble taken to see that each soldier received his share. She made a special appeal for Christmas boxes as the soldiers appreciate these above all others. She spoke of how nobly the call had been answered last year and hoped that this year's results would be even better. She referred especially to the pleasure given to the boys on receipt of the box of chocolates which bore the Canadian Coat of Arms and said that the soldiers used these for decorative pur-

PICTURES WERE OF VERY GREAT INTEREST

Grain Production and Harvesting in the Canadian West—
Lumbering and Shipbuilding in B. C.

The Trade and Commerce Department's moving pictures showed last night proved very successful and very interesting to the public. The City Opera House was crowded early in the evening. The show lasted for about three hours and was interesting throughout. Mr. D. W. Johnson the lecturer explained the pictures with great detail.

The pictures dealt mainly with the industrial occupations in the Great West showing first the ploughing on the prairies and then the harvesting. They dealt in detail with the grain-grading at Winnipeg. The pictures also showed the gigantic lumber yards and dealt with lumbering operations verging into the ship-yards of British Columbia and showing the big keels for the ships.

The pictures showed some marvelous scenic productions in the Rockies and showed Mount Cavell and the National Park. The pictures showed water power developments of Quebec and Mr. Johnson dealt at length with the unharmed water power of New Brunswick and the marvellous possibilities it contained. No pictures of Eastern Canada, were shown but will be produced later. The pictures shown last night will be shown in many of the different countries of Europe to give an idea of Canada's possibilities.

Bowling Notes

About forty bowlers have qualified for the weekly roll-off at the Palace Alleys on Monday night. Ten high three-string bowlers are already on the list competing for the Christmas Turkey.

The Commission could do their work only with the citizens of Canada standing behind them. The speaker read the Queen's message to Canada, thanking the people for their noble responses to the call given them. She also read letters from soldiers thanking the citizens for their hearty response.

The address was a very interesting one and called for many remarks of appreciation from those in attendance.
