LEND TO THE STATE.

Mr. Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a recent speech at the Guildhall, London, set forth the reasons why the British people are purchasing government bonds at the rate of $125,000,000 weekly. Similar reasons prompted the people of the United States to over-subscribe the recent six billion dollar Liberty Loan. These reasons, as given by the Chancellor, make a convincing appeal to Canadians on behalf of the Victory Loan:

"Anyone who lends money direct to the State will lend it at 2½ per cent. above the rate which he can receive on deposit in the bank. That is an arrangement which is good for every one. It is good for the State and it is good for the individual, for 2½ per cent. is worth having. There is only one class to whom, at first glance, it is not so good. It would obviously pay the bankers better to receive the money at a low rate and lend it to the State at a higher rate. But the bankers, while they have regard to the interests of their institutions, are also citizens of their country, and they know that, even from the point of view of self-interest and the bank, unless we emerge victoriously through the war, banks and everything else go down together. For that reason they are not only willing, but they are doing everything in their power to encourage their customers to lend direct to the State.

"It is the business of banks to lend money on good security. These national war bonds are the best security in Canada, for they leave behind them the whole resources of the country, and after consulting representative bankers, I have their authority for saying that no one need hesitate to lend, for they may rely upon being treated both now and throughout the war both justly and generously, by the banking institutions of the country.

"Do not let anyone think there is a chance of a higher rate of interest to be gained by waiting. So far as foresight can go, no higher rate will be paid at any time during the war.

"Let every one look at his current account and his deposit account; let him never pass a bank book without saying, 'Is there not something more I can lend to the State?' Let me say also that it is the clear duty of everyone to have the country's need first in his mind, and to avoid all speculation in anything else until he is sure that his country's needs are supplied."

The campaign for Canada's Victory Loan is now in full swing. Lend your money to the state and thus help to put an end to the curse of German militarism forever.

WILL HELP SMALL INVESTORS.

It is announced that, in order to encourage investors to participate in the 1918 Victory Loan, the Banks will lend subscribers, on the probable certainty of repayment within a year, up to 90 per cent. of the amount of the investment in the Loan. The rate of interest charged by the banks is 5½ per cent.

This should have the effect of greatly stimulating the flow of money when the big Drive opens. Many people who were anxious to do their bit towards supporting the boys at the front were unfortunately restricted as to the amount they had available for investment, having immediate or future obligations which called for their ready capital. It is such as these that the Banks are ready to help. On reasonable security these intending investors may receive the cash from the Bank at the same rate of interest the Dominion Government pays for the entire 1918 Victory Loan. They may reduce their obligations to the Banks monthly or quarterly.

The Banks will also accept from small investors for safe keeping without charge the interim securities and later the bonds themselves up to a reasonable amount, for the term of one year.

There is one genuine, honest, plain-spoken man in Germany, and his name is Maximilian Harden, a newspaper man. His paper has been several times suppressed since the outbreak of the war, but is still going strong. In a recent interview Harden said: "We started the war with a dirty trick, and all our subsequent victories have been the results of dishonesty. . . . William II is a film hero, and Germany a vulgar cinematograph show. We sit today on the ruins of thirty years of Hohenzollern politics."

Says the St. John Globe: "Before the demand for the resignation of the Hon. Mr. Murray can be disregarded, it must be shown that Hon. Mr. Murray was the innocent victim of Premier Clark's misplaced kindness, and that Rev. Mr. Daggett swore falsely when he swore Hon. Mr. Murray knew all about the transaction." The idea of Rev. Mr. Daggett swearing to a falsehood is preposterous. The Globe seems to overlook the fact that he is the pastor of the Marysville Baptist church.

The Victory Loan canvassers in St. John yesterday secured a subscription of $300,000 from the Maritime Nail Works, of which concern Mr. Stanley E. Elkin, M.P., is the manager. This is the largest subscription secured in the province up to the present time.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

Buy still more Victory Bonds.

Victory Loans keep Canada busy.

Alas, you can't buy Victory bonds with the daylight you've saved.

At any rate the Germans who invested in this war cannot say that they did not get a run for their money.

If the civil health authorities were on the battle front they'd probably try to shut down the war while the influenza epidemic is on.

Succumbed to Pneumonia

Relatives in Fredericton have been notified of the death in hospital in New York City, of John Carton formerly of this city. The deceased was aged thirty-six years. He was stricken by influenza some weeks ago and pneumonia developed resulting in his death. The deceased had been away from Fredericton some ten years but visited his old home here about a year ago. He was superintendent in the McLean Woolen Mills, in New Jersey. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carton of Shore Street, Fredericton, five sisters Mrs. Daniel Toomey of New Hampshire, Mrs. Fred McCurdy of St. Andrews, Miss Tilley Carton of Wentworth Hospital in New Hampshire and Misses Mabel and Lena Carton at home in this city, also three brothers Louis and William in Halifax and Douglas in France. A widow also survives.

Turning Down Prescriptions

There are numerous complaints that prescriptions issued by physicians for liquor to be used as medicine for influenza are not being honored by the vendors. The Intoxicating Liquors Act 1916 gives the vendor discretionary power in the matter of honoring prescriptions the usual course being to refer the applicant to the local inspector. In Fredericton Chief Finley of the police force is inspector and he has refused in many cases to endorse prescriptions turned down by a vendor. The ground taken by the officials is that the prescriptions are not for bona fide medicinal purposes. On the other hand the holders of the dishonored prescriptions say that no effort is made to find out whether or not there is real sickness, certain ones being refused and others supplied. In some cases physicians have refunded prescription fees when the prescriptions were not filled.

Mamma! Don't You See Your Child is Sick, Constipated

Look at tongue! Move poisons from liver and bowels at once.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Co."

Moniteur Acadien Suspends
Announcement of temporary cessation of publication is made by the Le Moniteur Acadien, Shediac, in its issue of October 25th. War conditions resulting in the increased cost of newsprint, an increase in wages and difficulty in securing workmen made it an impossibility to continue the paper. The editor expresses the wish soon to take up again the mission undertaken by the founders of Moniteur in 1867 and carried out faithfully by their successors for fifty years. In politics this paper was Conservative.

Off To Siberia
Chas. T. Boyd, a former St. Joseph's student and who was transferred to the Siberian contingent from the Canadian Engineers, has left for the Pacific Coast, en route to Siberia, according to the latest word received in the city. Mr. Boyd was a student in junior philosophy when he enlisted in the Canadian Engineers. He is a Fredericton boy, and is well known throughout the province in teachers' circles, being at a former time principal at Harkin's Academy, Newcastle, prior to his entrance into College.

Useful War Souvenir.
The War Album issued by the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, is to hand and is a credit to the publishers. A copy is sent free to all who order that paper for 1919. The Album contains a mine of valuable information and the color work could not be improved on. It is just such a book as one would like to have close by at all times. Every school child in Canada should have it. In after years, when the war is over, it will be a valuable book of reference. The Family Herald costs only $1.25 a year and with the Album is certainly big value.

Late Dr. Lynds.
St. John Telegraph: Sheriff Lynds, of Albert county, accompanied by his sister, Miss Belle Lynds, and Mayor Turnbull, of Chelms, Mich., a relative, arrived in the city at noon with the body of his brother, Dr. James Lynds, who died at Ann Arbor, Mich., a few days ago of Spanish influenza. Dr. Lynds had been conducting a private hospital at Ann Arbor for some years and only recently offered himself for army medical work. However, before he could don the khaki the prevalent disease struck him down. He was a familiar figure in his native New Brunswick county and news of his untimely death has caused general regret.
