SILENCE ANSWERED.
*****

Young ladies with a fondness for infantile admirers should be warned by an episode at a seaside resort a year or two ago.

An engaging masculine of seven years became an exceedingly good terms with the belle of their particular hotel, a girl twenty years his senior. One day the charming belle asked the swain to go bathing and after the bath, as they returned to their bath-houses, the small man suggested a race to see who could dress first. They entered the bath-houses, which adjoined, and in a short time a youthful treble called:

"Miss Ethel, oh, Miss Ethel, I've got my stockings on."

A low contralto answered: "Yes, Robbie, so have I."

After a short pause, the irrepressible again called: "Miss Ethel, I've got my shoes on."

Again came the answer: "Yes, dear so have I."

Again a pause, then a triumphant voice shrilly proclaimed: "Miss Ethel, I've got my pants on."

The answering silence could not be punctured by an armor-piercing shell.

HE Will live, Madam-- But an operation is necessary!

"His plumbing is in an unsatisfactory condition. The symptoms are a general depression and worn-out condition of fixtures; hammering in the piping and an uneven hot-water temperature."

"Yes, doctor; I have realized he was out of fix, but have been doctoring him with 'Temporary Repairs.'"

"A very poor remedy, madam; and a waste of money. I suggest you call in D. J. SHEA & SON, who are specialists in this line."

"Will it take long, doctor?"

"No, madam; and their charges are reasonable. You will really be surprised how much brighter he will be after the operation."

"Yes, doctor, I believe you are right; otherwise he is in good condition, but we have neglected the plumbing. Who was it you recommended?"
