PRESENT DAY SCRAPPERS ARE LIKE BABIES

Old Time Gladiators Were the Real Thing—The Great Achievement of Horatius.

(Chicago News.)

"Willard and Fulton and those fellows are occupying a lot of space in the public prints, next to pure reading matter," observed "Timberlake," "but they are a poor lot compared with the heavyweight fighters of a quarter of a century ago. Suffering salamanders! When I think of Sullivan at his best, of Jeffries and Fitz and, all that old time push, the present day scrappers look like a lot of babies and sucklings. "You may be right," conceded Penny-packer, "and then, again, perhaps you ought to have your imagination overhauled and new spark plugs put in. We're all too prone to insist that things were better when we were young.

"At all stages of history graybeards insisted that things were ever so much better in their youth. When Milo carried away the gates, which weighed a ton or more, no doubt there was some old patriarch sitting on a neighboring fence and looking weary. "That's a pretty good stunt," I can hear him say, "for a man of this degenerate time, but when I was young I knew a fellow who could pick up the town hall and carry it all over the country without sweating a hair."

"The heroic deeds of Horatius, Herminius and Spurius Lartius in holding the bridge have been celebrated for many centuries. I can imagine that there was great enthusiasm in Rome when Horatius returned to town, after swimming about five miles in his boiler plate clothes. It was a great achievement, but I'd bet a denarius there was some old back number standing around with cold feet, trying to throw a wet blanket over everything and everybody."

"By Isis and Osiris!" I can hear him say, "what are Romans coming to when it takes three men to hold a bridge against an army of outlanders? Horatius should have done it himself. When I was young a half-grown boy would have considered it a mere pastime to hold such a bridge against Astur and his bunch. But everything's going to the dogs and the strong men of the present time are merely old women wearing whiskers."

"It's that way all along the line. We won't admit that the people now on earth can do anything as well as the dead ones. We are always hearing of the old masters of painting. There are a hundred artists in this country who can draw and paint better than any old master who ever lived, but if you say so in a public place you will be mobbed."

"We keep on insisting that Dickens has all the novelists skinned; for the sake of peace I talk that way myself sometimes. But I defy anybody born within the last forty years to read a Dickens book from start to finish without skipping. It can't be done. There's more sloppy sentimentality in Dickens than any modern can endure."

"It's a dead sure sign that we're getting old when we begin insisting that things were better twenty-five years ago and if we had any sense we'd avoid such talk."

NO BULGARS IN BIG FIGHT

Washington, April 2.—A despatch from the American consul general at Sofia declared no Bulgarian troops were moved to the western front for the big German offensive. It has been stated that Bulgarians were fighting on the west alongside Germans and Austrians.

NINE BOILS

Kept Coming on Neck, One
After the Other.

Anyone who has ever suffered from boils knows how sick and miserable they make you feel.

When you think you are about cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your wretchedness. All this poulticing and lancing you may do will not cure them and stop more coming.

Boils are simply bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils disappear.

Burdock Blood Bitters is the greatest blood purifier known. It cleanses the system and removes every particle of foul material from the blood, then never another boil comes and the cure is permanent.

Mr. Geo. Ayers, 302 Gloucester St., Ottawa, Ont., writes: "I wish to tell you what I know about your wonderful Burdock Blood Bitters. In the spring I suppose my system needed cleaning out, for I had nine boils come on my neck, one after the other. I quickly got a bottle of B.B.B. and before it was half finished I felt a great change, and it certainly put an end to my boils, otherwise I might have had a lot more. I recommend B.B.B. to all I can, for I know it to be a great remedy."

LESS CORN HAS BEEN SHIPPED

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Washington, April 2.—Only fourteen million of the one hundred million bushels of the 1917 corn crop needed by the Allies has gone forward, as shown in export figures compiled today by the food board. Last year at this time 64,000,000 bushels had been shipped.

England is using nearly a million dollars' worth of castor oil a year for lubricating the engines of aeroplanes.

Heretofore, the Ford user who wanted to carry loads up to a ton found it necessary to get one of several special attachments or extensions which were on the market. Now the standard Ford truck is available—a car that can withstand the drudgeries of commercial use, and yet lacks superfluous weight, and is easily handled.

The truck differs from Ford passenger cars in that it is specially designed throughout in proper pattern and strength for heavy-duty service. It has a final drive of the worm gear type, so that all gears are enclosed. Rear wheels are equipped with solid tires. Front tires are pneumatic. Standard Ford motor, transmission and ignition.

The largest truck and automobile company in the British Empire, with an organization of more than 700 Canadian dealers stands back of every Ford truck purchased.
