OF INTEREST
TO WOMEN

BAKED BREAD AND CHEESE.

A Dish That Will Take the Place of a Meat Ration at Almost Any Meal—
The Method.

Four medium slices of bread or two cups cold cooked rice (dry), 1 egg, 1 egg yolk or 1 egg white, two cups of milk, quarter teaspoon salt, cayenne pepper, butter, 1 cup cottage cheese, quarter teaspoon soda, half teaspoon onion juice, parsley and pimento, or piccalilli or chili sauce; nuts if desired.

Butter the bread and cut the slices in squares or diamonds. Place a layer, buttered side down, on the bottom of a large shallow baking dish. Dissolve the soda in a little of the milk, and with it mix the cheese to a soft cream. Add parsley and pimento or sauce if desired. Spread a thick layer of the cheese lightly over the bread and cover with the rest of the bread, buttered side up. Beat the eggs well, mix them with the milk and seasonings and pour them over the bread.
Bake in a slow oven till a knife thrust into the custard comes out clean. If the milk is warmed and added gradually to the beaten egg and the baking dish is set in a pan of hot water, the custard cooks more quickly and is less likely to curdle through becoming overheated.

Corn muffins, barley or oatmeal or bran bread may be used instead of white bread.

USES OF BAKING SODA.

A little soda added to some fruits, such as cranberries, rhubarb, prunes, about one-half teaspoonful to a quart of fruit, just before sweetening, and you will not need as much sugar.

When washing greasy dishes, add a little soda to the dishwater and it will cut the grease.

A little soda added to the water in which meat is boiled will make it more tender.

For toothache, a small quantity of soda dissolved in a wineglass of water, soak a piece of cotton wool in the solution and place in the tooth and rinse out the mouth with what remains in the glass.

When a patient is feverish, bathe with warm water and soda.

SOME DICTATES OF FASHION.

A black satin bag trimmed with oxidized beads is attractive.

A crinkly shiny silk is used in delicate shades for separate skirts.

Evening frocks are draped, but tailored frocks follow the straight line.

Cotton foulards are among the four corner stones in cotton dress goods.

A black serge dress is smart when trimmed with white wooden beads.

Young girls are wearing the round Buster Brown collar with the black tie.

Fringed ends of ribbon droop over the brims of some very pretty sport hats.

THE WAR GARDEN.

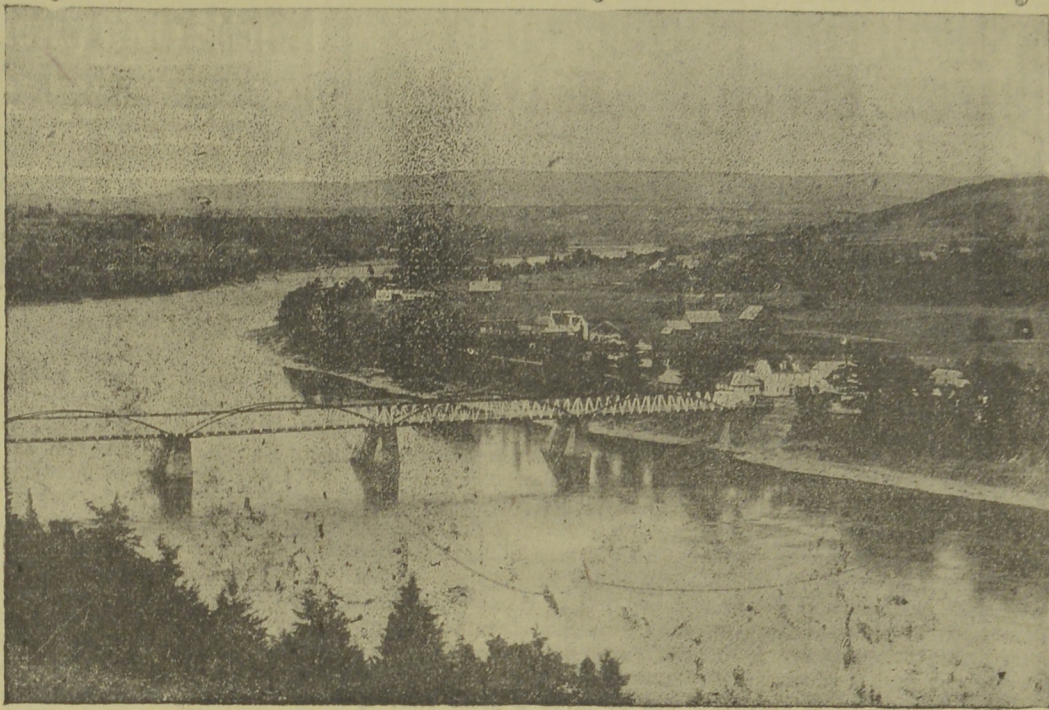

Cubic Potato Patch a Failure.
"Farm Life" punctures a cherished agricultural delusion. The cubic potato patch is a failure.

Many amateurs have cherished in their inmost agricultural hearts an idea put forth last year by an ingenious war gardener, who testified that he had raised a year's potato supply for his family on a space eight feet square. His plan was to build up an openwork box or crate several feet high and plant it with successive layers of potatoes all the way up. The vines grew out of the sides and over the top and when he knocked off the boards in the fall his potato pen was almost a solid mass of potatoes.

It sounded good. Most of us have meant all along to try it some time.
Hundreds did try it. But it didn't work. In Indiana, where the scheme was taken up with enthusiasm, most of the potato pen gardeners didn't get back their seed. Experiments by the United States Department of Agriculture were likewise disappointing.

THE ST. JOHN RIVE R AT FLORENCEVILLE

UNNECESSARILY ALARMED

Nodd—I don't mind your borrowing money from me, old chap, but please don't promise to pay me back.
That hurts!

Todd—My dear boy, I thought you knew me well enough to know that I didn't mean that.

Alas! There is no short-cut to big crops, or to any other form of success.
It pays to stick to approved methods of farming.

ARKANSAS AMENITIES

The candidates for representative in Baxter County spoke at this place last night. There are five in the race, a preacher, a merchant, a justice of the peace, a school teacher and a restaurant keeper. In his speech in which he pleads for the support of the people the justice of the peace stated that his opponent, the merchant reminded him of the first well he dug—he was so crooked. The merchant in rebuttal did not deny the fact, but stated that his opponent was so crooked that it would not be necessary to dig a grave to bury him, since he could be interred by simply screwing him into the ground like a corkscrew.

; IN SELF-DEFENCE

A colored recruit said he intended to take out the full limit of Government insurance, $10,000. On being told by a fellow soldier that he would be foolish to pay on so much when he was likely to be shot in the trenches, he replied: "Huh! I reckon I knows what I'se doin'. You all don't s'pose Uncle Sam is gwine to put a $10,000 man in the first line trenches, do yuh?"
