TROUBLE WITH ARGENTINA OVER STEAMSHIP PURCHASE

Diplomatic Relations With Great Britain Said to be Strained—

The Bahia Blanca was Purchased From the Germans—Argentine Minister to Great Britain is Not Persona Grata—Has Not Been Received by King George.

Buenos Aires, Aug. 4—Diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Argentina as a result of the purchase by Argentina of the German steamship Bahia Blanca are delicate according to La Nacion. In tomorrow's edition the newspaper will say "Regarding rumors which from the beginning have been founded on more than supposition, we have received versions, the gravity of which are self-evident, and according to which the return to London of Sir Reginald Tower British Minister to Argentina, and the departure of Francisco Alvarez de Toledo, Argentine Minister to England from London are not disconnected. On the contrary, it appears the retirement of both Ministers is traceable to the purchase by Argentina of the steamer Bahia Blanca from the Germans, which purchase the British government refused to recognize."

Following this refusal, Argentina attempted to solve the difficulty by appointing as Minister at London, Senor Toledo, who as Minister of Marine, handled the negotiations for the purchase of the ship. He presented his credentials to the British Foreign Office some time ago, but a considerable period has elapsed without King George receiving him. It is reported there is no probability of his reception in the near future. It appears this might have been expected, as the British government never stated that Senor Toledo was persona grata. It will be remembered the Argentine Government has waited a long time for a response to its inquiry as to the purchase of the Bahia Blanca and there now appears reasons for believing that Sir Reginald's favorable intimations relative to the deal were solely his personal impressions."

Another newspaper Las Noticias in commenting on the situation says: "Sir Reginald Tower is being recalled, and Senor Toledo is returning because King George has not received him."

"The occasion for the present situation," it adds, "is the refusal of the British government to recognize the purchase of the Bahia Blanca, but the real cause underlying the crisis is the Argentine Government's hostile attitude towards British capital invested in Argentina."

Before Senor Toledo sailed for London it was announced he would go on the Bahia Blanca. A day or two later, however, a British cruiser took up a position off the River Plate. Senor Toledo subsequently went to London on a regular liner.

According to a current version of the matter, an effort is being made to enlist the aid of the United States in settling the question of the purchase of the Bahia Blanca for which Argentina paid seven million peso, the deal being made through the Swedish government. It is said this was one reason that Thomas A. Lebreton, Argentine Minister to the United States, went to Europe early this year. According to reports, he and Narcello de Alvear, Argentine Minister to France, failed in their efforts to help Senor Toledo to solve the difficulty.

An Interned Ship

When the great war broke out, the Bahia Blanca, a ship owned by the Hamburg-American Steamship Company, was interned in the harbor of Buenos Aires to prevent her capture by Allied warships. Some time later it was found the machinery of the ship had been partially dismantled by the crew to prevent the use of the vessel in case she should be requisitioned by the Argentine Government. In June 1918, it was announced at Buenos Aires that the ship had been leased by Argentina and that the crew had been given permission by the German Ministry of Marine to reveal the places where missing parts of the ships machinery were hidden. Later it was learned the ship had been bought by the Argentine Government. The ship, however, never went to sea because the Allies and the United States refused to recognize the transfer of her flag. It was said in a Buenos Aires despatch last April that the purchase price of the ship would be applied to moneys to be claimed from Germany by Argentina.

The Bahia Blanca is of 9,49 tons register, and was built in Hamburg in 1912.

SHE PICKED A BACHELOR

Chicago, Aug. 5.—A fireman's life is not such an unhappy one, after all; particularly that of a bachelor fireman. Miss Dorothy Lehman is pretty, very pretty; and she is employed in a bakery. Now Dorothy was the last to leave the bakery the other day and then she found all the exits locked up. After an hour's imprisonment she attracted attention by tapping on a window.

Fire trucks were summoned and a ladder raised to the second storey window, but Dorothy was timid and refused to descend. It then devolved on some brave smoke-eater to carry her down, and much argument followed as to who should claim the job.

"Send up a bachelor," she ordered.

HAD HIM BY THE TEETH

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Bertha Koop, wife of Gustave, does not lock up his clothes and send him to bed when she desires to protect him from an attack of wanderlust. She merely hides his teeth.

"She won't give me my meals, and if she did I couldn't eat them," complained Gustave in the court of domestic relations here.

"He spat them out in a rage while scolding me," said the wife.

"And then she hid 'em," replied Gustave.

"They're under the bed now. Come home and take care of me as you should," dung back Bertha.

"Give him his breakfast and his teeth, madam, and report to me about a month from now," ruled the judge.

"That's fair," said Bertha.
