CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Miss Kitty Gordon Jolted New York—Wm. A. Brady and His Wife Prohibitionists.

Miss Kitty Gordon jolted New York when, without any warning, she appeared in a whirlwind of songs and dances at the Palace, delighting a capacity house. She went into the movies a few years ago, learning of the million dollar salaries tossed about by managers with airy nonchalance. Whether Miss Gordon found the money to be wooden or imaginary is not stated. She gave 'em another jolt too, for she brought with her a double in the person of her charming 17-year-old daughter, also of stellar size, in the person of Vera Beresford—that being the name of Mr. Kitty Gordon. You couldn't tell them apart.

Miss Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, were delighted last night at the tidings of the death of Johannes Barlecorne while under operation-anaesthetic before the U. S. Supreme Court. The Brady are prohibitionists, you know, and Miss George is a W. C. T. U. pillar, while her husband, once a victim of an ancient delusion that a little wine might go a long way, unites with her in finding nothing good to say of the departed. Their boy is their idol and the Bradys say it is good that liquor is gone for "Without liquor America will get into condition to handle the entire world. We shall be a race of sober, brainy, able men who will lead the world."

Mrs. Milla D. Shonts, widow of the traction king, whose financial and domestic snarls are going to be untangled in court, confessed a judgment of $4,291 for a little matter of gowns in favor of Charlotte Macdonald, the other day. It was nine years ago in Paris that Mrs. Shonts passed Charlotte a note for $3,000. The modiste took it, indorsed it and then had to make good the amount at the bank. Shonts just at that time put his wife on an allowance, he having parted with her, and the note represented something coming to Miss Macdonald. She sued in New York and Mrs. Shonts by her action in admitting the debt provides a way for the payment of the principal and interest. And yet some say the rich are slow to pay.

Mrs. Bella Coons, widow of the Brooklyn banker murdered by Hamby, the notorious robber, now awaiting execution, was secretly married five weeks ago to Robert D. White, head of R. D. White & Co., and they planned to keep it quiet for a while. Now we will revert to an incident of six years ago, when Robert D. Jr., then 17, was haled to court as a stubborn boy by his father, because he stayed all night to a celebration. Revenge is sweet. The other day young Bob, now 23 and in business, bumped pa in fine style by sending to the papers an exquisite little notice: "Mr. Robert D. White, jr., announces the marriage of his father to Mrs. Bella Coons, widow of Henry W. Coons."

People seem to have little interest in the fighting in Russia. Maybe they have made up their minds that it is all fiction, and poor fiction at that.

A writer is of the opinion that the girls of the present day have no ears, since they cover where ears ought to be with wads of hair. Still, they hear with something when they are asked to go to a show or a dinner.

MEXICANS IN EUROPE

Paris, Dec. 26—A number of Mexicans have recently arrived in Europe and are reported to have attempted to purchase arms and ammunition, according to information received here. Whether these Mexicans are connected with the recent shipment of five carloads of machine guns and accessories sent from Cassel to Amsterdam which Marshal Foch reported were consigned to Mexico, is as yet unknown.
