JOYOUS CELEBRATION IN LONDON OF THE SIGNING OF PEACE

Premier Lloyd George on His Return from Paris Acclaimed with Triumph and Cheers by the Populace—A Message Issued by King George to His People—Hopes Peace will Bring with it Happiness and Prosperity.

Paris, June 30.—There was complete reaction in peace conference circles and in Paris generally today following the period of tenseness which culminated with the acceptance by Germany of the peace terms and the final signing of the treaty at Saturday's memorable ceremony in the Versailles Palace. Arthur J. Balfour, the British Foreign Secretary, and representatives of the other powers planned to meet during the day to formulate plans for carrying on the work remaining to be accomplished by the conference. The calling of a meeting of the Council of Ten, which is now the supreme body of the conference, will depend upon the completion of the program for the future proceedings now being framed by the principle powers.

THE ALLIES NOT LIKELY TO ASK THE EXTRA- DITION OF THE FORMER KAISER OF GERMANY

In spite of their refusal to sign the peace treaty Saturday the Chinese Delegates are not regarded as having withdrawn from the peace conference and will continue to take part in the proceedings. The delegation at present is awaiting instructions from Peking.

If the Chinese government is disposed to sign, it is said in conference circles, it is still possible for its delegates to do so.

The peace treaty was brought from Versailles to Paris tonight and deposited at the Protocol office. Marshall Joffre who returned to Paris from London this evening was unable to attend the ceremony at Versailles today. Marshall Foch and Marshall Petain, both of whom were detained at their headquarters were also unable to be present.

PEACE TREATY TAKEN FROM VERSAILLES TO PARIS AND DEPOSITED IN PROTOCOL OFFICE

Amsterdam, June 29.—The Allied and Associated Powers will not ask for the extradition of the former Emperor, the Paris correspondent of the Telegraf says he learns, but will ask the Dutch Government in the name of the League of Nations to see that Herr Hohenzollern does not escape the moral consequence.

It is expected that as a Member of the League, he adds, Holland will inform the former Emperor that he must appear before an International Court or leave the country. A highly placed French authority on international law told the correspondent that the proceedings against the former Emperor would be on moral grounds and the sentence would be of a moral character entirely. There is no question of a death sentence or imprisonment, the correspondent says.

It is probable, the correspondent continues, that the crimes of the former Emperor against international morality in starting the war and in violating Belgian neutrality will be condemned severely, the Hohenzollerns will be declared forever deposed and it will be made impossible for the former Emperor to do further harm by assigning him to place of residence from which he must not move.

CANADA WILL CELEBRATE ON THE FORMAL PROCLAMATION OF PEACE

Statement Made in House of Commons Today by Sir Robt. Borden—Three of Allied Powers Must Ratify Treaty Before it can be Proclaimed.

Ottawa, June 30.—Peace will be celebrated in Canada on formal proclamation that the war is at an end. Mr. Bureau asked in the House this morning if it was intended to celebrate the signing of the peace treaty. Sir Robert Borden replied that the signing of the treaty did not bring about peace. That could only be accomplished by ratification and by proclamation. Under the terms of the treaty the proclamation could not be made until three of the Allied powers had concurred in the ratification. It was thought by the Dominion government that the most appropriate time for a peace celebration would be when peace was proclaimed.

"I cannot speak for the United Kingdom or for the other Dominions," Sir Robert added, "but so far as we are concerned I think we should celebrate the proclamation of peace when it is made."

Mr. Mackenzie, leader of the opposition, asked that now that peace was virtually concluded, when the worrying of so-called defaulters under the Military Service Act would cease.

Hon. Mr. Meighen replied that so far as he was informed, no other belligerent country had yet ceased to take action against defaulters. There was no doubt Canada would cease prosecutions as soon as other countries.

The signing of the treaty of peace will be received with deep thankfulness throughout the British Empire.
