Drive Away Ants.—A little quick lime placed in the infested places.
Remove Tar from Cloth.—Rub it well with turpentine till every trace is removed.
Make Leather Waterproof.—Saturate it with castor oil; to stop shoes squaking, drive a peg into the middle of the sole.
Clean the Hair.—Wash well with a mixture of soft water, 1 pint; sal soda 1 ounce; cream tartar ¼ ounce.
Egg Stains on Spoons.—Rub with common salt.
Clean Gloves.—Pour a little benzine into a basin and wash the gloves in it, rubbing and squeezing them until clean. If much soiled, they must be washed again through clean benzine and rinsed in a fresh supply.
Hang in the air to dry.
Clean Hair Brushes.—Dissolve a little soda in warm water and pour in a small amount of ammonia. Hold the brushes with the bristles downward and avoid wetting the back as far as possible; shake until the grease is removed; then rinse in cold water and put in the air to dry.
Remove Mildew from Cloth.—Put a teaspoonful of chloride of lime into a quart of water, strain it twice, then dip the mildewed places in this weak solution and lay in the sun. If not effective the first time repeat.
How to Remove a Rusty Screw.— Apply a red hot iron to the head for applied immediately while the screw is hot.
Cure Mosquito Bites.—Put ten drops of refined carbolic acid into an ounce

DOMINION DAY CELEBRATION AT
MARYSVILLE

Ball Team from St. John Cotton Mills will Play Marysville Mill Team—For Memorial.

Marysville, June 21.—Arrangements have been made for holding a big field day on the base ball hill Dominion Day. A citizen's committee has been appointed and the Chairman of the different committees held a meeting last evening when matters generally were discussed in connection with the affair. Arrangements have been made to hold a baseball match between a local team and a team from the cotton mills at St. John. This game will be the first of a series of games between Marysville, Milltown and St.
John cotton mill teams, and this match should prove very interesting. The Marysville Brass Band will be in attendance during the afternoon and evening. The proceeds of the affair will be expended in the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of the young men from this locality who have made the supreme sacrifice during the recent great war.

Doucette of New York and Mr. H. A.

RELIGION NO
BARRIER IN THEIR CASE

(New York Sun)

The Very Modern Young Person, with whom the Woman loves to fore-gather, lives in one of those convenient downtown locations bounded on one side by the homes of the plutocratic and on the other by tenements that might be labelled a trifle "shummy." The elft wing is an extremely inflammable one, and fire engines so frequently come to rest at the dividing line that she has ceased to be in-terester, even when they sit down and pant on her very doorstep. But very early the other morning they arrived in such alarming numbers that she was driven to kimonoed peeping from the window. A deep red glow, that put to shame the rising sun, enticed her to dress and descend to the sidewalk. There, under the elevated track, she met several figures, strange even in that unconventional neighborhood. Out of the gloom they emerged—stout, beshawled women, each carrying under her arm two chickens.
The eyes of the Young Person bulged.
But she had seen aright. Live chickens clucked and squawked as they tangled under fat arms.

Not until she met her panitor's wife also begirt with chickens did she solve the mystery. "Hurry up, or you'll not be catching any" she called. "What is it? Sure the fire has drove all the hens from the big kosher market.
Runnin' round the street they be, cacklin' under yer feet. 'Tis flyin' in the face of Providence not to be takin' them and meat that high. 'Tis not that I'm kosher myself"—the explanation seemed hardly necessary—"but the difference in religion would be no harm, I'm thinkin'." And she plodded homeward with her prize.

By the time the Young Person had penetrated a block eastward the fire was over. Thirty housewives of all faiths had found good hunting and only a few pathetic feathery corpses bore witness in the waterlogged gutters to what was the great free chicken morning of the neighborhood.

AUTO STRUCK
BY TRAIN AND
FIVE KILLED

Quebec, June 22.—Five persons were killed almost instantly this afternoon at Manseau, Nicolet county, when the automobile they were riding it was hit by a fast Intercolonial freight train at the level crossing a short distance east of the station at Manseau.

The victims include Rev. Father Richard, a Roman Catholic priest, his housekeeper and the wife of the town doctor at Manseau. A particularly sad feature of the accident was brought out when Dr. Marchellesse was hurriedly called to the scene of the accident, and learned that one of the victims was his wife, whose mangled remains he found on a cot in a neighboring farmhouse.

If you see one young man laughing at the ancient jokes of another, the other has a pretty sister.

NEWLY RICH IN ENGLAND PAY MAMMOTH PRICES FOR ANTIQUES

London, June 21.—The enormous fortunes made in England during the war are responsible for record breaking prices which sellers of antiques of every kind are realizing in London auction rooms, in the opinion of men who have long been close to the trade. The whole country is being searched for treasures of all kinds which find ready sale at prices which hitherto have only been paid by foreigners.

A mysterious portrait which recently appeared in one auction room and was said by someone to have been by Franz Hals quickly brought $60,000, although its authenticity has even now not been established. A Reynolds portrait which to the present had not attracted much attention, was easily sold for $70,000, and pictures by much lesser lights brought phenomenal prices.

Artistic and antique furniture is in even more demand.
Six Chippendale Gothic chairs recently sold at a country sale for $5,125, despite the fact that modern artists are copying this particular design with marked success and only the trained expert can detect the difference. At another country sale two Chippendale tables brought $1,600 and a Chippendale cabinet $6,250.

Sheraton furniture is not so popular, excellent tables going as low as $100. Illuminated manuscripts are in demand, and as in the case of furniture record prices are being obtained.

Efforts to trace the buyers of some of the choicest offerings have revealed the presence in the market of persons who never before paid any attention to antiques. Many of them are persons who accumulated large fortunes during the war, and now that they have acquired fine houses have set out, with the aid of experts, to give them the ancient touch required by good taste.
