REFRESHING RHUBARB DRINK

A refreshing beverage, one that is an excellent spring tonic, as well, is rhubarb juice. Cut up some sticks of rhubarb and pour over about three cupsful of water. Allow the fruit to stew for about half an hour, then strain through a muslin, add a few drops of lemon juice, and sugar to taste.

AROUND THE CITY

The reappearance of the firecracker with the approach of Victoria Day reminds one of the fact that it is contrary to city bylaw to set off crackers squibs, fireworks, etc., within the city except on permission. Usually proclamation is issued calling the attention of the public to that fact but such has not been done this year and the fact that firecrackers have appeared in some of the shops have proved too much for the small boy and some of the big ones too. Prohibition of the use of firecrackers was the result of complaint of the increased fire-risk. As a matter of fact there have been serious fires in Fredericton which have been caused by firecrackers as far as could be learned. One of the most serious was at the corner of St. John and Brunswick street about twenty-five years ago when a dwelling occupying a portion of the site of the residence now occupied by Mr. James H. Hawthorne was practically destroyed early in the morning following a well-celebrated Twenty-fourth of May.

The North of Ireland and the South of Ireland are said to have combined Tuesday night when notice was served upon the "war gardeners" at Queen's Square by the Playgrounds Committee that gardening must stop. The union was represented by Police Magistrate Limerick and Mr. A. J. Wheeler and as might be expected was irresistible.

Queen's Square, or as it has come to be known in recent years, Queen's Park, was given to the City of Fredericton about twenty-five years ago by the late E. H. Wilmot as a recreation ground. The donor already had presented Wilmot Park to serve the West End and the intention was that Queen's Square should serve the eastern section of the city. Since that time, however, the city did practically nothing toward putting the land to the use intended. The margin of it was turpiked with a roadplow and the Local Improvement Association planted a few trees along that road but that was the limit of improvement. The old birch trees which dotted the square were allowed to fall down themselves with few exceptions and no grading was done. It is safe to say that in no town or city but Fredericton would a free gift be allowed to go to waste in such a way. One use to which the field was put late in the Nineties was as a camp and drill ground for the county militia corps, the 71st York Battalion now termed the 71st York Regt. Prior to permanent brigade camps being established at Sussex that unit camped in September at Queen's Square for several years. Its O. C. was the late Lt. Col. J. L. Marsh of Fredericton. Baseball and Rugby football were played to some extent on small and more or less level portions of the Square but of course match games were out of the question. With the running of Aberdeen street along the north-easterly side of the square much of the area used by the militia as a parade ground was taken. Prior to that the entrance to the square was from Union street. The lines of the field kitchens when the 71st was in camp were where the residences on Aberdeen street now stand.

Adjoining Queen's Square is an area of land which for years was closely associated with almost all athletic events in Fredericton, Scully's Grove. The "grove" is now little more than a memory for since the subdivision of the field by the New Brunswick and British Colonization Company and the erection of residences on many of the lots all but three or four of the big pines have been cut down. Never again will the firemen baseball clubs or other organizations advertise festivals "under the pines" with the customary dancing on the big platform in the grove. The open portion of the field was the scene of many thrilling athletic contests. Prior to getting a field of their own the U. N. B. students played their football matches there—Rugby, since late in the eighties, "soccer" prior to that. City teams of course always played there. Scully's Grove saw many interesting cricket matches, in the old times as well as in more recent years when there was revival of the Royal game and the city and the garrison had good teams. The same area saw the introduction of baseball, the days of local amateurs, the days of the old New Brunswick professional league when Moncton Fredericton and the Nationals and the Shamrocks of St. John competed late in the Eighties, the glorious period of the Tartars when amateur and "semi-pro" baseball was at its height in Fredericton and New Brunswick, later the return to the professional game in the three seasons of the New Brunswick & Maine League which ended just prior to the outbreak of the war. The old field also was the scene of a short-lived attempt to introduce Canada's national game, lacrosse. Some good Association football was played at Scully's Grove by U.N.B. teams and others. Rugby there was at its height in the days of the New Brunswick League, '94, '95 and '96, and some years afterward when Victorias and Fredericton City were going strong. By defeating Dalhousie University there in 1900 Fredericton City laid claim to the championship of the Maritime Provinces for that year. Later High School and other Rugby teams played there and the Royal Canadian Regiment "soccer" team played there also. Fredericton boys who have not been in their home town for some years would not know the "Grove" with two streets and a railway running through the football and baseball field and houses

COL. C. JACK
IS HOME AGAIN

(Chatham Commercial.

The 25th Nova Scotia Battalion, which returned from overseas to Halifax on the Olympic Friday was brought home by Lieut. Col. C. J. Mersereau, D. S. O., a New Brunswick officer.

Lieut. Col. Mersereau, who is a son of Lieut. Col. G. W. Mersereau, who only recently returned from overseas himself, was one of the first New Brunswick officers to volunteer for active service on the outbreak of the war. He had been in the Corps of Guides and was a Brigade Major with the Canadian Corps when he was seriously wounded in 1915 that his recovery did not seem possible.

However, in 1917, Col. Mersereau was able to return overseas again, and for some time held a brigade post with the 2nd Division, until last summer he became the commanding officer of the 25th Battalion, afterwards having his appointment confirmed.

During the period of his convalescence in Canada, Col. Mersereau, who had at one time been attached to the R. C. R., held a position on the staff of No. 6 Military District, with headquarters at Halifax.

where the pine trees once were. It is a matter of great regret that city council of a few years ago had not the forethought to buy the property.

The late E. H. Wilmot did not end his benefactions with Wilmot Park and Queen's Square for the present University of New Brunswick athletic field was presented to the college by him. Prior to securing that field the college boys used Scully's Grove for games and the terrace in front of the Arts building for the annual field and track events. The terrace was all right for sprints, jumps and weight events but for long runs a track had to be improvised by circling the Arts building. Records made on the terrace have long since been obliterated by younger generations of athletes.
