WOMEN AND THE BONDS.

Women have a special interest in the success of the Victory Loan. A year ago active enthusiasm was apparent among intelligent housewives, as well as among the keen and self-reliant women who are engaged in the offices and business establishments of the country. Nor was that surprising, since women are proverbially thrifty, and since they can appreciate to the full the advantages of a safe, convenient and profitable investment.

The Victory Loan of 1919 should be still more attractive than its predecessors. The greater number of women who invested a year ago are more than satisfied with the experiment. Their bonds were considered as a reserve fund laid up against an emergency, and there is reason for the belief that fewer women than men sold out their holdings for current needs.

No special argument will be needed this year to prove the advantages of Victory Bonds. They are well understood, alike by the housewife and the stenographer. But it may be necessary to set forth in the clearest detail the objects to which the proceeds of the Loan will be applied.

Women and men alike must understand that the necessities of the hour are almost entirely military. The funds are necessary to complete the work of demobilization, to provide the pay allowances and maintenance of soldiers whose transportation and discharge were delayed, to care for the sick and wounded who still number 20,000 men, and to provide a sound system of re-education for those veterans who need it.

The fact that the prosperity of Canada depends upon the extension of credits to Great Britain for the purchase of Canadian surplus products should also be emphasized, for women have a keen understanding of the evils of depression and unemployment.

It seems reasonable to ask if the Women's Institutes and Clubs of various kinds in city and country are doing their full part to bring the national necessity before their members. This is a time of crisis. So far, the difficulties of reconstruction have been surmounted and the spirit of unrest is less active than it was a year ago. Unquestionably the subscription to the Victory Loan will be large. If the women are enlisted, it will be overwhelming.

Says the Woodstock Press: "We have even known of cases in our own town, where the speech was covered by three reporters, each getting the same result, but the speaker denied using the language, and he honestly believed that he did not use it." The Press probably has in mind the case of our old friend Hon. B. F. Smith, M. P. P. On one occasion, it will be recalled, Mr. Smith was reported by three newspapers as having stated on the public platform that he had refunded $2,400 to the provincial government in connection with the notorious patriotic potato transaction. Afterwards, from his place in the Legislature, Mr. Smith declared that he had been incorrectly reported.

The Standard announces that the local opposition forces will meet in convention at St. John on November 6th to discuss matters of organization and policy. The convention has not been called by Leader Murray, but by the "Convention Committee of the Opposition Party." In view of certain disclosures made by various royal commissions in the past few years, the gathering should be an interesting one.

In a fault-finding article which it recently published in regard to provincial wharves, the St. John Standard stated that the people of York county were suffering inconvenience because of the alleged failure of the provincial government to have the wharves transferred to the Federal authorities. The St. John Tory organ is only making itself ridiculous by publishing such absurd statements. The provincial government has no interest in any wharf in York county.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD HEARD ADDRESSES

alize that we are asking for so much for our forward movement you will understand that our universities as well as churches are conducting a grand forward movement. We need that money to house our students and to enlarge salaries which are an insult to those who hold teaching positions. We hope to proceed along a line of intellectual honesty of spirit before which goes the same intellectual honesty of purpose.

Remarks of Moderator

Rev. James Ross, Moderator referred to a few remarks made by President McKenzie and emphasized the fact that while Dalhousie University had received help from the Synod the Synod in return had received splendid help from the university. Boys and girls require a broad education and would find it at Dalhousie University.

Presbyterian College

Mr. E. C. Kaulbach presented the financial report of the Presbyterian College at Halifax. He expressed deep sympathy in the fact that Dr. McMillan, chairman of the College Board was unable to attend the Synod meetings on account of illness. Students were coming back in large numbers. Forty students had been overseas and during the absence of two of the faculty Principal McKinnon and Dr. Camp, the work was carried on. The speaker referred to the self-denial practiced by the students in giving up their buildings to the Military authorities. This was not for the money value but rather giving in return all possible. The college had received $141,000 for the use of the buildings. This was awarded by appraisers. One serious problem confronting the college was the Boarding House problem which was hard to solve. The feeding problem is also very difficult owing to the high cost of living. An appeal to the Synod was made for help in the work of the college on account of the loss on boarding-houses estimated at about $5000. Generous treatment was necessary. Since the income is limited to $15,000 through the budget would the synod grant $500 through the Bursary?

Mayor Hanson

His Worship Mayor Hanson was next called upon to address a few words to the gathering welcoming them on behalf of the Corporation of Fredericton as well as the citizens. He referred to the century of progress passed through by Dalhousie University. He himself was an old Dalhousian and knew some of the faces before him. His Worship extended to the delegates a cordial reception from all the citizens of Fredericton and hoped that the delegates would find great pleasure during their stay in the city.

Rev. Dr. Kent

Rev. Dr. H. A. Kent of Pine Hill University, Halifax, made a few remarks referring to the debt of the Synod to the Business College during the occupation of the building by the military. He referred to the condition of affairs at Dalhousie College mentioning the co-operation of the student body and the Faculty. The reputation of Dalhousie the speaker stated was not receding but going ahead strong. More than ninety per cent of the theological students who served overseas had returned to their duties as students at Pine Hill College and their slogan was the Great Forward Movement and the upholding of all that is good clean and noble. The only thing to save the world from sin is the

FRESHMEN GAVE HIGH SCHOOL A SEVERE DEFEAT

Crossed Line Five Times—The Final Score 15 to 0—The Winners Had First Team Men.

The Rugby season was opened here Tuesday when the Freshmen team of the University of New Brunswick defeated Fredericton High School 15 to 0. The Freshmen scored five tries but failed to convert any. All were made by members of the back division which was strong.

The Freshmen had it all over their opponents in weight and also were superior in experience. Fredericton High is lighter than the average Yellow and Black team and does not look particularly good for the interscholastic series. On the other hand the Freshmen were heavy and included a number of players who look pretty sure of places on the U. N. B. Inter-collegiate XV.

Freshman Backs Not Marked

The Freshman backs were not properly marked by the High School players and this led to the majority of tries being scored as the college backs always passed the ball well out to the end of the line. The winners had had no opportunity to practise teamwork but their experience enabled them to get in some very fair passing and running. High School never got the defensive and with some notable exception was weak in tackling. Superior weight let the Freshmen get the ball in almost every scrimmage.

Trimble scored in the first half. In the second Prescott, Cain, Lounsbury and Trimble each scored. Prescott played in the second half, being substituted.

The teams were as follows:

Fredricton High	Freshmen
Flood	Fullback B. Hagerman
Clark	Halves Cain
Gagnon	Trimble
Cain	McAndrews
Williams	Johnson
Currie	Quarters Anderson
Keene	Lounsbury
Daggett	Williams
Yerxa	Forwards Gibson
Hawkins	A. Smith
McGinn	Seeley
Blair	C. Smith
Sheldon	E. Hagerman
McNally	Jewett
Trafton	McKenzie

gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ. He knew the synod will give the college its cordial support.

Bishop Richardson

His Lordship Bishop Richardson was introduced to the delegates by the Moderator and asked to give a message to the Synod. His Lordship referred to the gigantic work emphasizing the short time that remained to do it in. He conveyed a message from the Anglican Synod to the Presbyterian Synod hoping for a greater success in the deliberations being carried on. While in France and England he referred to meeting Dr. John Pringle, Moderator of the General Assembly and stated that his reflections of the meetings they had had stood constantly before him. Though separated by a barrier of Church policies His Lordship stated that he was sure God had blessed the activities of the Synod through the years passed. Those of the Anglican faith believed in its work and looked forward to the time when differences would be swept away and there would be neither Anglicans nor Presbyterians but the Church of God in Jesus Christ.

The thanks of the Synod were conveyed to the Bishop of Fredericton by the Moderator for his splendid address.

Rev. Dr. Pringle

Rev. Dr. John Pringle, Moderator of the General Assembly, was next called upon for an address. His address in part is as follows:

"I began my mission in South Western Nova Scotia moving to Northern New Brunswick and later to Northern Ontario. I have been both in the Hamilton and Toronto Presbyteries. I have only spent two Sundays of my time in the cities and have finished my rounds in the most optimistic of spirits. I have felt that the Church is more vigorous today than ever before in her history. I came to the opinion that if I were graduating from the University again I would again prefer the Ministry without hesitation. The man of the country community shapes its moral and spiritual life and is the true minister of God. There is no need of pessimistic spirits at this time as the rank and file of our people are waiting for men who will lead them in God's commands. I will later tell them of the work in God's great country the Northwest."

The synod adjourned until 2.30 o'clock.
