PATRIOTISM AND GOOD SENSE

Real patriotism is usually good sense and the forthcoming Victory Loan 1919 is clearly a case where two of the finest qualities of the English speaking race run absolutely hand in hand. It is eminently patriotic in all of us to desire that Canada should continue with its financial strength and freedom of action unimpaired; and the best of common sense as well, for on Canada's success the material well-being of everyone depends.

Sir Thomas White said in speaking of this loan, just prior to his retirement from the post of Minister of Finance: "It is a proper part of our policy to strive to maintain our industry and business, not merely for the purpose of keeping it going for the profit and advantage that is in it, but for the purpose of affording employment." On Canada's being properly financed by Canadians at the present time, depends the whole of Canada's economic fabric, whether in the factory or on the farm. Canada must borrow money of her own people, not only to complete the work of reconstruction and re-establish the soldier, but to keep trade stable and to obtain outlets through national credits for the surplus products of her greatest industry, agriculture. The farmer is perhaps more vitally interested in the success of the 1919 Loan than any other class, but to all it means not merely a sensible and sure investment, but a ready means of assisting his own and the nation's well-being.

Quebec Telegraph: The parliamentary discussion on the purchase by the government of the Grand Trunk Railway will, we hope, bring out the facts the people need in order to judge the situation intelligently. The Grand Trunk Railway will, admittedly, be a great asset to the government system. The two objections to the deal are the sum of money it is costing the country when the Treasury is in a fearfully depleted condition, and the fear that politics will creep in and bedevil the system which, in the past, has been an efficient business undertaking. One thing Parliament should insist upon and that is a thorough divorce of all political control from the administration of our government railways. Otherwise they are doomed.

At a so-called Unionist convention in Woodstock last evening, Lieut. Col. W. W. Melville was nominated as a candidate for the approaching Federal by-election. Hon. B. F. Smith was urged to enter the lists, but, shrewd politician that he is, he declared that the time was inopportune for him to try his hand in Federal politics. Mr. F. C. Squires, a good Tory, aspired to the nomination, but the convention turned him down. The Liberals have decided not to put a candidate in the field, and will probably throw their support to Mr. Cauldwell, the candidate of the United Farmers.

The by-election in Carleton-Victoria to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. F. B. Carvell takes place on the 27th inst. The candidates in the field are Thomas G. Cauldwell, representing the United Farmers, Col. W. W. Melville, and Mrs. Minnie Bell Adney. The Unionist nomination was first tendered to Dr. Rankine, who after accepting it and looking over the ground, dropped out of the fight. Hon. B. F. Smith was then urged to run, but contracted a bad case of cold feet. At this distance it looks as if Mr. Cauldwell, the farmers' candidate, would be an easy winner.

Victoria Colonist: The Unionist party, if it is to persist, can hardly continue along existing lines. By that we mean that it will have to perfect something in the nature of party organization throughout the country, for that is to all intents non-operative at the present time. No steps that we know of have been taken in this direction, so it may be a decision will yet be reached to revert to the old political lines.

Prof. G. Schneider, of Riga, in a lecture at Stockholm states that the Bolsheviki shot 26,632 men, women and children in Riga. The executioners, intoxicated and unable to aim straight, wounded their victims time and again, laughing at their agonies, which sometimes lasted a whole day and night, he said. Young girls, elegantly dressed, volunteered as executioners, and promenaded up and down with rifles, firing at the prisoners.

St. John Globe: An interesting feature of the Ontario election contest is the activity of returned soldiers. The Conservatives have nominated two generals, three colonels, four majors and a captain. The Liberals have in the field four colonels, a major, a captain and two lieutenants; and the United Farmers a colonel, a captain, two lieutenants, one of them a V. C., and two enlisted men.

Mrs. Minnie Bell Adney, the independent candidate for Parliament, attended the Unionist convention at Woodstock last evening and made a speech. She bluntly told Col. Melville that he was too late in entering the field and that she was there to stay, and would win out. Mrs. Adney is a fighter and certainly has staying qualities.

Every loyal Canadian should be a member of the Navy League.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

Six times out of five a family jar is a monologue.

The fighter's motto is that it is better to give than to receive.

Remember Trafalgar Day and what it means to the Empire.

Just at present sugar is not a topic with which even to sweeten conversation in the home.

The average man who tells all he knows is working on a very small contract.

Lots of men who are clever in other things never seem to be able to think and talk at the same time.

We have an idea they are called the "opposite sex" because they just naturally that way.

The thing the small boy can't understand is why castor oil should not keep pace in price with ice cream.

"Although he rode a motorcycle, he was a kind and gentle husband." Well, as we have always contended, there are exceptions to all rules.

The world is full of almshouses populated by the offspring of persons who went light-headedly ahead and married on account of romance.

It is a maiden's way to flatter a man by ingeniously marveling at his "great strength," when she knows very well she can wrap him around her finger any time she feels like it.

BOLSHEVIKI RETAKE KIEV

London, Oct. 16.—A Bolshevik wireless message from Moscow reports that Kiev was retaken yesterday by the Bolshevik forces. The communication says: "On the fifteenth we captured Kiev by surprise. The attack was so impetuous that the enemy was unable to cross to the left bank of the Dnieper river, and was forced to flee northward in disorder."

Was on the Island
Charlottetown Guardian: The Field Secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, Rev. F. S. Porter of St. John, spent Sunday at Montague Caledonia and Wood Islands, presenting the claims of the Society to large and deeply interested audiences. On Monday evening he was at Valleyfield and he will visit Cornwall, Princetown Road and Alexandra before returning to New Brunswick.

Generous to Employees
New Glasgow Chronicle: Lucky indeed are the employees of the People's Railway. They are all being supplied with passes good for a year, reading from station to station. In the instances of employees who have been ten years in the service these passes are good all over the system, and in the case of employees of five years' service to ten, the passes are good from Montreal east. This is a rather remarkable concession.

APPROVED G.T.P. PURCHASE

(Montreal, Oct. 17.—In a session which lasted almost to midnight and which was characterized by strong debating speeches of almost all the leaders of organized labor in Montreal the Trades and Labor Council decided last night to support the federal government in its move to acquire and operate the Grand Trunk Railway to fight and prevent if possible the putting into force of the increased tramway fares, and also again expressed itself in favor of the 44 hour week for workers.

PRESIDENT IS CHEERED

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Wilson continued to show improvement today, White House officials said and he appeared to be much cheered by the defeat of the Shantung amendment to the peace treaty. The result of the Senate vote was communicated to the President immediately after it was announced late yesterday.

Expert Inspected Sites
Mr. Harvey S. Ferguson of New York, an expert on pulp mills, while here a few days ago with Messrs. N. M. and S. M. Jones and others connected with the Nashwaak Pulp & Paper Company, inspected sites suggested for the pulp mill which will be erected by that company in the event of removing from Union Point, Fairville. One site is in Marysville and the other in Devon near the mouth of the Nashwaak. The published story to the effect that an option had been taken by the company on the Miles property in Devon is said to be incorrect.
