BRIEF BUT USEFUL RECIPES.

Restore Gilt Frames.—Rub with a sponge moistened with turpentine.
Drive Away Awe.—A little quick lime placed in the infested places.
Remove Tar from Cloth.—Rub it well with turpentine till every trace is removed.
Make Leather Waterproof.—Saturate it with castor oil; to stop shoes squaking, drive a peg into the middle of the sole.
Clean the Hair.—Wash well with a mixture of soft water, 1 pint; sal soda
1 ounce; cream tartar ¼ ounce.
Egg Stains on Spoons.—Rub with common salt.
Clean Gloves.—Pour a little benzine into a basin and wash the gloves
in it, rubbing and squeezing them until clean. If much soiled, they must be washed again through clean benzine and rinsed in a fresh supply.
Hang in the air to dry.
Clean Hair Brushes.—Dissolve a little soda in warm water and pour in a small amount of ammonia. Hold the brushes with the bristles downward and avoid wetting the back as far as possible; shake until the grease is removed; then rinse in cold water and put in the air to dry.
Remove Mildew from Cloth.—Put a teaspoonful of chloride of lime into a quart of water, strain it twice, then dip the mildewed places in this weak solution and lay in the sun. If not effective the first time repeat.
How to Remove a Rusty Screw.— Apply a red hot iron to the head for applied immediately while the screw is hot.
Cure Mosquito Bites.—Put ten drops of refined carbolic acid into an ounce of rose water; shake well and apply.
(If you hold your breath while a mosquito has its bill in you it cannot withdraw it until you breathe again).

FEDERAL GOVT. WILL AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF HIGHWAYS

Ottawa, July 4.—The highway bill which many members of the House thought would go over to the autumn session, was put through committee stage and given third reading last night. It provides for what was described by Sir Thomas White during the course of the debate today as practically a subsidy to the province to enable them to carry on programmes of road-making on a scale that would be impossible for them without the assistance given by the bill. The sub to be paid under the terms of the legislation during the next five years is $20,000,000. Each province will receive $10,000 and the remainder on the basis of population, subject to agreements between the Federal and provincial governments as to the highways to be built. The bill did not go through without a fight, two of the chief opponents of the measure being Dr. Michael Clark and Mr. Davidson, of Annapolis, assistant chief government whip. Many members of the opposition also declared themselves against the measure. The criticism was largely on the ground of expenditure, it being maintained that while good roads are desirable, the government should not borrow money with which to build them at the present time.

PETTICOAT LANE'S LONG SLEEP ENDED

London, June 29.—Petticoat Lane has awakened from its long sleep, imposed by the war and the vigors of an unusually wet winter, and with the coming of spring fairly hums with life, trade and dirt.

Petticoat Lane is more of a district than a street, for there are a number of streets and each one carries the same curb markets and the same motley crowd of traders and sight-seers. It is within five minutes walk of some of the most important financial institutions in the world, and on the edge of that interesting section known as the East End, where royalty and others have recently discovered there are slums which are a disgrace to England in fact to all civilization.

Petticoat Lane is lined with stalls some of them covered, some of them open to the elements and all of them mounted on wheels. Here may be found for sale almost everything the purchasing public may desire, anything, in fact which might be included in a list which stretched from second hand underwear to cheap jewelry.

The old clothes man occupies the commanding position almost directly opposite the great Liverpool street passenger station, and some of his prices would do justice to some of the smart West End shops, but prices and sales are not the same thing in Petticoat Lane. If the seller cannot get his price he is always willing to come down, and if trade happens to be slow he will mount a box and offer his stock to the highest bidder. Then comes out all the wit and humor of the throng, with the auctioneer usually leading in sarcastic sallies.

"Art china," fearfully and wonderfully made; men and women's neckwear in all the colors of the rainbow; fried fish fresh from the skillet; pictures, framed and unframed and prized because of their high color; ice cream and shaving powder, with a liberal assortment of hair brushes and suspenders; money belts, men's ribbons and the insignia of every regiment in the British Army. These and a thousand and one other things line the streets on each side, their leather lugged sellers pausing only in their appeals for trade to make the necessary change.

One section of the Lane is given over to the man who is there to heal the sick and afflicted. He usually specializes in some particular disease. His appeals are supported by an open bottle of his particular medicine and for a penny one may sample the remedy and know for himself whether he wants a bottle. And it is surprising how many bottles are sold from the sample, on which the thrifty "doctor" makes much more profit than he does on the larger amount.

MAN THE MEASURE.

Percy—Yes, I judge others by myself, don't you know.

Miss Keen—Really, but isn't that rather a low standard of judgment?

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

HE WAS DENSE.

Jack Slowboy—I wish I could read your thoughts.

Winnie Willing—So do I; but goodness knows I've tried to help you all I could.

Mammoth icebergs are reported in the north Atlantic. Pity Fredericton ice-men couldn't get hold of them.
