IN A CHAOTIC CONDITION.

Commenting on the change of government in Prince Edward Island, the Charlottetown Patriot has this to say: "It will be the duty of the new government to seek to discover the chaotic condition in which public affairs have been left in the province of P. E. Island; the public works have been woefully neglected; the educational system has never been in such a serious condition as it is today—indeed, the principle of free education introduced into the Island by the Liberals is threatened. The roads and bridges of the Province are in a most deplorable condition. The finances of the Province will require to be thoroughly investigated, so that the new government will know just where it is at, and how to meet the necessities of the burden of increased debt upon the people. A great and serious responsibility will rest upon the incoming government to endeavor to disentangle the chaotic affairs of the province. We have no doubt that those who have been elected by the people will meet the issue with courage and ability. Mr. Bell, the new Premier, will immediately announce his executive, and it will then be the duty of the government to settle down to business and promote the best interests of the people and the country. We have no doubt that they will be equal to the occasion. It is very fortunate—not only for the Liberal party, but as generally expressed—that the end of the Conservative government has been reached. The people and the administration of public affairs are always safe in the hands of a government whose ideals are and motto is for the principles of democracy and responsible government."

BRITAIN LED THE WAY.

"G. F. B." in the New York Tribune has this to say: I have not seen in any of the New York papers General Botha's interview with Reuter's Agency. He speaks not as an Englishman, but as a one-time enemy of England. We have talked about and kidded ourselves for so long now as to what we did in the war that we are much like the fly that sat upon the axle of a chariot wheel and said, "What a dust I do make." This is what Botha told the British: "I carry away with me also the conviction that of all the peoples in the Alliance the peoples of the British Empire have played a greater part than any other." Also: "This war was in my judgment primarily a French war. It was not a British war essentially. Nevertheless the British people made the war their own and so saved not only France but civilisation itself. Again: 'The part played by Britain from the day war was declared until this hour is one that places her first among the nations of the earth. First in war and first in peace, we have her primarily to thank for the overthrow of Prussianism and the saving of the world, and she has come out of the terrible ordeal of sacrifice which she has suffered, with her prestige higher than ever it has been. As Britain led war, so she has led peace, and we look to her to secure its just fulfilment.' And finally: Britain is the corner stone upon which our civilization must rest." This we hear from England's one-time enemy.

The action of the new city engineer in abolishing old time square street corners in laying curbing for the newly paved streets is coming in for much favorable comment from autoists and others who use the streets. The square-cornered curbing looks so awkward and homely in comparison with the new that one almost wonders why the people ever put up with it at all. The round corners not only look more attractive, but will do much towards promoting public safety, which is a matter of considerable importance.

The St. John Valley Exhibition at Woodstock will be formally opened today by Premier Foster. Elaborate buildings and grounds have been fitted up at a cost of $50,000 and the prospects are very bright for a successful show. As the foremost agricultural county in the Maritime Provinces, it is well that Carleton should be to the front in the matter of exhibitions. The people behind the show have displayed great pluck and enterprise and deserve the success which is pretty sure to crown their efforts.

TERRIBLE AGONY

"Fruit-a-lives" Alone Gave Him Quick Relief

Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915. "For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, and I had chronic Constipation. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised 'Fruit-a-lives'. I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. To everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take 'Fruit-a-lives', and you will get well".

General Pershing, who commanded the American Expeditionary Force, arrived in New York yesterday and was given a great reception by the populace. General Pershing has been overseas for more than two years and it will be generally admitted that he has more than made good. He is held in high esteem by the people of the Allied nations.

Moncton milk dealers have advanced the price of milk from thirteen to fifteen cents per quart. The increased cost of feed, etc., is given as a reason for the boost. The matter was threshed out at a meeting of the city council last evening and a suggestion that "cash and carry" depots be established by the city seemed to meet with approval.

There were various modes of punishment in Halifax a hundred years ago for crimes, says the Recorder, of that city. The Supreme Court at its sitting on Nov. 1, 1817, had before it a man named Thomas Duman for manslaughter. He was sentenced to be burned in the hand in open court, and one year's imprisonment in the county jail.

Attending Presbytery Meeting. Rev. J. S. Sutherland left for St. John this morning to attend the regular quarterly meeting of the St. John Presbytery in that city. He will return to this city this evening.

Will Sound Tomorrow. The public are requested not to unduly excite themselves tomorrow at noon when the fire alarm whistle rings from boxes 21 and 31, as the alarms will be sounded only for testing purposes.

Decrease in "Pers". Liquor Sub-Inspector Fraser Saunders announced this morning that during the last month a great decrease in prescriptions had been noticed by the inspectors and that a still further decrease was being made during the present month.

Visitor in the City. Recently a good sized cow moose was seen wandering around the lower part of the city just after dusk. The animal refused to take fright on the approach of several curious people but was frightened away by several dogs which collected. When last seen it was loping out Regent Street towards Maryland Hill.

Stopped by Returned Man. An exciting runaway occurred last evening when a horse attached to a light carriage which was standing on Regent Street became frightened by some youths who were playing around it. The horse dashed out Regent street towards Queen street but was stopped by a returned man near the corner of King and Regent Streets.

the need of greater accommodation for they have on several occasions endeavored to obtain satisfactory terms of affiliation for the nurses, under their care, with hospitals in other places, the work has not been completed and the trustees do not admit they are responsible for delay. Had conditions been more favorable in industrial lines Fredericton would probably have had an up-to-date hospital in all leading branches before this time.

Two to Graduate

Two of the popular graduates of Victoria Public Hospital will receive their parchment in two or three weeks and at the suggestion of Miss Sanson, the superintendent, these young ladies will be favored with a graduating reception when they receive their diplomas and hospital pins.

In her report the superintendent says: "The heavy work of August has been handled by our own staff, with vacations going on at the same time. The successful handling of so many operative cases without unnecessary confusion, was due, in a great measure to my assistants' ability in managing emergencies."

St. Dunstan's Contribution

The formal receipt of the collection from St. Dunstan's Church, through Rev. Father Carney, was ratified, and expressions of appreciation made by the trustees. The other churches seem to have forgotten the hospital of late years, perhaps on account of the war. However it is evident that the St. Dunstan's did not forget the hospital while attending to the war for the past five years.

The meeting adjourned after passing a number of accounts.

PRESENTATION TO DEVON GIRL.

Miss Grace Machum, Missionary to India, Presented With Missionary Outfit by Ladies of George Street Church.

The ladies of the George Street Baptist Church last evening gave a reception and presentation to Miss Grace Machum, of Devon, at the parsonage. A large number of people were present. Miss Machum is under appointment for India by the Maritime Baptist convention, and is sailing from Vancouver with a number of other Baptist missionaries about the middle of October. She is a graduate of the Gordon Training College, of Boston, Mass. The presentation was made by Mrs. Ruth McKinnon, president of the Ladies' Missionary Society, who referred to Miss Machum as being the fifth missionary to be sent from the church, it being a "missionary church." Miss Machum made a very fitting reply, referring to the help and inspiration she had received from the members of the society, and stated that she was glad to represent such a missionary church. Miss Machum was presented with a missionary outfit, including steamer rugs, couch covers, tablecloths, napkins, silverware, knives and forks and other necessities. After the presentation Miss Vera Jonah rendered a solo, which was greatly appreciated.

MOTION PICTURES OF MATAPEDIA

While on the C. N. R. special train from Halifax to Quebec recently, carrying newspaper men and moving picture operators, who were following the Prince of Wales on his tour, some of the motion picture men secured views of the Matapedia Valley. They mounted their cameras while the train sped through the Morrissey Rock tunnel and across the Restigouche Bridge. At a point beyond Matapedia station the train stopped and several group pictures were filmed. These pictures will be shown in connection with the news films of the Prince's tour.
