PRESBYTERIAL CONCLUDED SESSIONS YESTERDAY

Mrs. M. H. Manuel Elected President for the Ensuing Year—Presentation of a Wrist Watch to Miss Barbara Walker, in Appreciation of Her Eleven Years of Service — Officers Elected and Committees Appointed.

The concluding session of the Presbyterial opened at 2:30 o'clock Thursday with the usual devotional exercises. The discussion on the Grace Stevens Memorial Fund was continued and on motion the following resolution was introduced and passed.
Resolved that a Bursary Committee be appointed having power to choose and to grant Bursary to any well recommended young lady wishing to enter the training home at Toronto, should the application be made before the opening of the Training School.

Miss Jean Sommerville gave a very interesting paper on "How Our Young People can Help in the Forward Movement."

Committee Reports

The credential committee reported that sixty five members were in attendance at the sessions of the Presbyterial. The Resolution and Courtesies committee expressed deep gratitude to the trustees and sessions of St. Paul's Church and all who had in any way contributed to the success of the meeting. They also extended their thanks to the Acting Secretary, Mrs. James Ross of Halifax for accepting the position vacated by Miss Barbara Walker, the Secretary who has removed to Yarmouth, N. S.

Regretted Her Removal

A letter was read from Miss Barbara Walker who stated that she deeply regretted the fact that she was unable to attend the meetings of the Presbyterial and she desired to know what discussion was carried on over the Forward Movement. She advised the delegates to put forward their best efforts to bring about a successful meeting of the Presbyterial. After reading the letter Mrs. John Thompson referred to the wonderful work of Miss Walker and thought it very fitting that Miss Walker should be remembered by the body after eleven year's faithful service.

Presentation Made

Mrs. George McFarlane on behalf of the delegates made a presentation of a gold wrist watch to Miss Walker through Miss Sinclair. She referred to the beautiful Christian Life of Miss Walker and to her staunch principles as well as her devoted zeal to her duties. Miss Sinclair on behalf of Miss Walker thanked the delegates in fitting terms. A short dedicatory prayer was then given by Miss Robb of Korea.

A SAFE BET.

We hear about the cave man stuff
And how he used to act up rough;
I'll bet the cave dame called his bluff
And made him humble fast enough.
