ASSASSINS EMPLOYED BY THE GERMANS

Circular issued on behalf of the German Government dated November 28, 1914.

From Naval General Staff to the Naval Attaches:

'You are ordered to mobilize immediately all destruction agents and observers in those commercial and military ports where munitions are being loaded on ships going to England, France, Canada, the United States of North America and Russia.

'It is necessary to hire through third parties, who stand in no relationship to the official representatives of German, agents for arranging explosions on ships bound for any country, and for arranging delays, embroilments and confusions during the loading, dispatching and unloading of ships.

'For this purpose, we are specially recommending for your attention a leaders' gang, among whom there are many anarchists and escaped criminals, and that you get in touch with German and neutral shipping offices and agents of enemy countries who are receiving and shipping the munitions.

'Funds required for the hiring and bribing of persons necessary for the purpose will be placed at your disposal at your request.

(Signed) Secret Service Division of the Naval Staff, Koenig.

WOMAN'S BEST LAXATIVE

Proved Every Day That Dr. Hamilton's Pills Are Just Right for Woman's Ills.

Little wonder woman suffers so much from constipation. She always hesitates, continually puts off taking medicine.

Of course a woman's system is delicate, is easily injured by drastic purgatives. Bitter experience with harsh medicines makes her cautious, and to her great injury, chronic sluggishness of the system is permitted.

Few pills are suited to the actual needs of woman—they are too strong. But there is a good woman's laxative, and it combines mildness with thoroughness of activity—it is known to the people of many nations as Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which never gripe, never cause nausea and are safe to use no matter what the conditions of strength or circumstances of health may be. A naturalness and regularity of the system, so important to every woman, is quickly acquired by the regular use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. As a health-bringer, as a tonic laxative, as an all-round ladies' medicine, there is positively nothing so efficacious as Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut; 25c per box, at all dealers.

DRAWS A LINE AT STARVING GERMANS

(Chicago News)

"I am just waiting for somebody to come along and ask me to subscribe $5 for the starving Germans," observed the reckless boarder, as he balanced a pure white biscuit between his forefinger and thumb.

"I have contributed to one thing and another ever since the war started and there hasn't been a single thing that a fellow could decently turn down so I'll be tickled to death if some one comes along now with something a fellow can turn down and at the same time be doing the right and proper thing. The very first time a guy comes along and asks me for a couple of bones for the starving Germans I'm going to say, 'Nix! Nothing doin'! I'm going to buy myself a suit of clothes! I've worn this suit long enough!'"

"I'm going to buy myself a suit of clothes, too," declared the handsome boarder, "before I subscribe to anything else. But I'm not going to buy it on the installment plan. I wouldn't be surprised if that method of buying things stops entirely when the happy day arrives when we will have paid the last installment on the last bond."

"But," said the argumentative boarder, "you can buy things that way that you couldn't get at all otherwise."

"I know it," admitted the handsome boarder. "The installment plan is a good one in that it enables you to negotiate things you couldn't negotiate at all otherwise but the government has worked it so much that a fellow won't care for any more of it. The installment method of buying pianos and suits and carpets and things is done for!"

"But we must all have nice clothes again now that the war is over!" wailed the thoughtful boarder. "As long as the war was on it was stylish to wear old clothes, but there will be no excuse now."

"I think you're wrong and I hope you are," declared the argumentative boarder. "The installment era, which was given great impetus by our government during the war, is due for a fine long run yet, and I believe in it. By this plan you got a $100 bond by paying $10 down and the government rigged you out in all the buttons and things just the same as if you had paid it all. When I buy a suit of clothes I would much rather get a $50 suit for $5 and owe $45 than have to pull through with a $5 suit."

"No, these $5 suits don't look much," agreed the funny boarder.

"No, nor would anything we have look much if we had to pay cash down to get it," agreed the practical boarder. "A man would have to live in a $75 house with a $2 gas range and two-bit chairs and no phonograph at all if he had to pay cash down for everything he buys. And Uncle Sam would only have been able to carry on some kind of a piker's billion-or-so-dollars war if he had had to pay cash down."
