THE VICTORY LOAN.

In considering the factors which contributed to the overthrow of the enemies of civilization a prominent work performed by women. In the home, hospital, canteen, munition factory, farm, office, store and on the battlefield they won imperishable fame by labours of love, and sacrifice in the days of the nation's anxiety.

There were no less generous in their response to the calls for money where-with to provide the sinews of war, and to-day when the need for money exists to finish the job and to apply lubrication to the wheels of Canada's industrial machinery the daughters of Canada will not fail to share the burden of responsibility.

They will rally to the support of the Victory Loan, prepared to subordinate their individual and perhaps long cherished plans and deny themselves luxuries and pleasures in order that Canada's prosperity may be assured. The call to Canada's daughters during the present reconstruction period will be answered in the whole-hearted fashion which characterized and illumined their response to war's demands.

USING UP INDEMNITY.

That the $5,125,000 in gold, delivered at New York on consignment from Germany to pay for American food-stuffs, contained part of the actual gold coin paid to Germany by France in 1871 may or may not be true. The probabilities point in that direction; for the consignment included French Napoleons and British sovereigns with the mint date 1870, and it is not at all likely that gold coin of that date could now have been obtained by Germany from any other source. It is well known that the 5,000,000,000 francs indemnity then paid by France included 23,000,000 francs of French gold shipped to Berlin from Paris. A good deal of English gold was also sent from England, to meet the large exchange drafts on London, which France turned over to Germany against the war indemnity. It is also a matter of common knowledge that some $30,000,000 of the gold thus received by Germany was lodged in the Spandau Castle "war chest," where it remained undisturbed, even on the government's account, until at the outbreak of this war it was "covered into" the Reichbank's gold reserve.

Quebec Telegraph: The address of the Prince of Wales in Montreal yesterday on the essential unity of the two races in Canada was not only an admirable epitome of the British spirit in nation building, it was a lesson and a warning to those who, in the past, have been fain to cloak prejudice and self interest in a mantle of disloyalty while fostering that racial disunity the consummation of which would be this Dominion's supreme calamity. The loyalty of the Prince of Wales should be good enough for any Canadian, and his loyalty recognizes that the unity of French and English in Canada is the corner-stone of national well-being.

Saskatoon Phoenix: The Canadian Reconstruction Association is fighting a losing cause. A fiscal reform must come in this country, and it cannot come too soon for the good of the country. A more equitable system of taxation must be devised and established, and it will not be equitable if it overlooks that three dollars for private purposes to one for the public purse is a proportionate division. If the association does not know that it is possible to take protection out of the tariff without reducing in any appreciable degree its revenue-bearing qualities, then it has a lot to learn.

The Sackville Post rises to remark: "There is nothing wrong with Sackville. We have a new doctor and a new dentist; we will soon have a new bank, two new garages and also a new skating rink." Sackville has been generally regarded as a sleepy old town, noted principally for big Tory majorities, which it rolled up at election times. It really looks now as if the place was showing signs of a genuine awakening.

LOOK!

If you were told of a new discovery for the treatment of coughs, colds and bronchitis, as certain in its action on all chest troubles as anti-toxin is on diphtheria, or vaccination on small-pox, wouldn't you feel like giving it a trial?

Peps is the discovery! Peps are little tablets, containing certain medicinal ingredients, which, when placed upon the tongue, immediately turn into vapour, and are at once breathed down the air passages to the lungs. On their journey, they soothe the inflamed and irritated membranes of the bronchial tubes, the delicate walls of the air passages, and finally enter and carry relief and healing to the lungs.

In a word, while no liquid or solid can get to the lungs and air passages, these Peps fumes get there direct, and at once commence their work of healing.

FREE TRIAL Cut out this article, write across it the name and date of this paper, and mail it (with 1c. stamp to pay return postage) to Peps Co., Toronto. A free trial packet will then be sent you. All druggists and stores sell Peps, 50c. box.

That German gun which is to be awarded to the district making the best showing in Victory Loan campaign would look well mounted on Parliament Square. Cement for a foundation for it can be bought from some of the other districts which seem to be counting their chickens before they are hatched.

The Federal government expects the new Parliament Buildings to be made "temporary habitable" for the next session of parliament, according to an answer given by the Minister of Public Works, the Hon. A. L. Sifton, to Mr. Middleboro on Monday. Up to October 31, 1919, the total expenditure was $6,101,947.67.

Although the Montreal Star is making a big drive against the Grand Trunk bill, and is urging the Senate to defeat the measure, the chances are that it will pass the Upper House. The government stands ready to appoint three new Senators in case their votes are needed.

Gubernatorial elections are being held in five States over the border to-day, viz., Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi and New Jersey. In Massachusetts the Boston police strike is being made the principal issue.

Have you bought Victory Bonds? They can be obtained from members of the committee appointed for your district, and you should place your order now.

WOMEN WILL BE TAXED ON THEIR INCOMES

those paid many men, the time had come, in the opinion of the Board of Assessors, for women to pay the same proportion of their income into the city treasury in taxation as did men. (Mr. Sterling quoted from the Assessment Act to the effect that no distinction was made between men and women in the matter of taxation except that a poll tax was not required of women. Salaries paid women had steadily risen. One woman resident in Fredericton was paid two thousand dollars per year. Another in a provincial office was paid $1,600. The School Board was paying women teachers salaries ranging from $1,400 to $900 per year. None of these women had paid a cent of taxation on income into the city treasury and at the same time men raising large families had been taxed on meagre salaries. Income tax bills had been sent to some women but had been ignored. What he wanted was the approval of the City Council in the departure of the Assessors from the unwritten law that women were not to be taxed on income.

Comment on Proposal

Mayor Hanson said he feared the Assessors were laying up trouble for the Council.

Ald. Burpee said that the matter of taxing women's incomes should not have been left as long as it had.

Mr. Sterling said that there might be trouble in connection with this matter the first year but after that he did not anticipate any. Women could not object and at the same time take the stand they were in regard to public matters.

Not "Passing the Buck"

His Worship asked if the Assessors were not trying to "pass the buck."

Mr. Sterling said the Board was not. If no opposition developed in the council the Assessors would go ahead as they intended.

Ald. Young said that taxation of women would necessarily mean the extension of the civic franchise to them.

Mayor Hanson said that changes in existing legislation would be necessary for that and could not be secured in time for the next civic election.

No Dissenting Voice

Mr. Sterling pointed out that such legislation could be secured before the next assessment. He said further that as there was no dissenting voice in the Council the Assessors would take the action which he had indicated.

Sentenced to Dorchester.

Howard Tibbitts, of Ripples, charged with a revolting crime, was convicted this morning before Judge Wilson at Oromocto, under the Speedy Trials Act and was sentenced to five years in Dorchester penitentiary.

Lurking in Summer Camp.

Two girls and two men who were caught lurking in one of the summer camps outside the city, appeared before Police Magistrate Limerick this morning. One of the girls being under sixteen years of age, her parents were notified and she was remanded until this afternoon. The other three persons were remanded to jail until Thursday.

Fire at Durham Bridge.

The residence of Mrs. Laura Pond, widow of Oliver Pond, Durham Bridge, was destroyed by fire Friday afternoon. The dwelling was valued at about three thousand dollars and was insured in companies represented in this city by Mr. James L. Neville. This is the second heavy loss by fire with which Mrs. Pond has met within a few months. In August last her barns were destroyed.

Sentences to Juveniles Monday

Six young boys appeared before Police Magistrate Limerick Monday afternoon charged with burglary and theft. One of them who had recently returned from a two years' stay at the reformatory was sentenced to five years there for stealing from the Arctic Bowling Alleys. Two youths from Devon who broke into and burglarized a store there were also sentenced to five years in the reformatory. Two smaller youths aged ten years who had committed burglary and theft at the instigation of an older boy were sent to the Children's Aid Home. One other youth who appeared was remanded until a later date.
