

SEARCH PARTIES OUT LAST NIGHT FOR YOUNG BOY

HARGROVE LOCKE SAYS
HE WAS NOT LOST

With Another Boy was Picking
Berries on the Hills South of the City—Found on Way Home.

Hargrove Locke, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Selby Locke of this city left his home yesterday about one o'clock and could not be located in the afternoon. About 3.30 o'clock he was located by a search party on the Valley Railroad having just come out from the Hanwell road.

His parents not being able to find him asked the assistance of search parties and it was arranged with the Fire Department that should they receive notice that the boy was found the fire alarm would be rung once to notify other searching parties of that fact. Consequently when Driver Bearisto received notice to that effect the alarm was rung once at eight thirty o'clock. On being questioned the boy stated that he was not lost but had been out on the hills to the rear of the city with a companion all afternoon and was just going home when he met one of the parties searching for him.

Drowned at Bartibogue

James Wade of Bartibogue lost his life in the Miramichi River on Sunday afternoon. Wade was swimming with a companion one on each side of the boat. His companion was warned by some children along the bank that Wade had not come up after diving. He dove several times but failing to locate Wade went for help. The body was recovered in an hour's time but all efforts at resuscitation failed. Wade was twenty-five years of age and had returned after two years' service overseas with the C. E. F. last April. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. James Hayes of Bartibogue and by three sisters.

Road Improvements

St. John Globe. Mr. Shapples expert engineer of the Barrett Construction Co., Ltd., is making an examination of certain gravel roads for the provincial public works department to determine if the areas could be oiled. Mr. Shapples reported that upwards of 5 miles of roadway between St. Andrews and St. Stephen is in good shape for oiling and that considerable stretch of the Westfield road through the village portions could also be oiled. He is examining the Rothesay-Gondola Point road this afternoon. After a trip from St. John to St. Stephen, thence to Fredericton and return to this city, Mr. Shapples informed E. S. Carter that there was more roadmaking being done on the roads he had travelled and much of the work was better, than he had seen in areas of similar size in New England. He expressed himself as wonderfully impressed with the improvements in the roads here and with their general excellent character.

FITZRANDOLPH DIVORCE CASE WAS RESUMED THIS MORNING AND CASE FOR THE PLAINTIFF IS CLOSED

M. G. Teed, K. C., in Place of A. J. Gregory, K. C., Who is Ill—
Evidence of Miss Margaret McCloskey and Miss Flora Grant Taken—R. Hugh Bruce on Stand for Defence—Evidence of C. Frank Worrell, Taken by Commission, Read—Denial on Part of Both.

Owing to the illness of Mr. A. J. Gregory, K. C., senior counsel for the plaintiff in the divorce action of Charles FitzRandolph vs. Elizabeth FitzRandolph, his place was taken this morning by Mr. M. G. Teed, K. C. of St. John when the case was resumed. Mr. J. J. F. Winslow was associated with him and Mr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. of St. John with Mr. Peter Hughes appeared on the other side.

Case for Plaintiff Closed

The case for the plaintiff was concluded by Miss Margaret McCloskey formerly housekeeper for the parties to the case, giving evidence, and by the evidence of Miss Flora Grant, manager of the C. P. R. hotel at McAdam. Her evidence was read by Mr. Teed, having been taken under commission at McAdam. The case for the defence was opened and Mr. R. Hugh Bruce of St. John gave evidence. This was followed by the reading by Mr. Baxter of the evidence of Mr. C. Frank Worrell which was taken under commission at Chatham, Ont. Mr. Worrell formerly was manager of the Fredericton Branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1917 and at the time of giving evidence was manager for the same bank at Dresden, Ont.

Severe Cross-Examination

For the benefit of the jury Mr. Teed gave Mr. Bruce a severe cross examination relative to incidents at the Prince William Apartments and Royal Hotel, St. John. Mr. Teed pointed out discrepancies between the evidence given by the witness at a former trial and that he gave this morning. The witness said that his memory was hazy on some particulars but on the others claimed that his recollection was perfect.

Miss Margaret McCloskey

Miss Margaret McCloskey formerly housekeeper in the FitzRandolph household gave evidence relative to the letter which she found in the house after the departure of Mrs. FitzRandolph, and which she gave to the plaintiff in the suit. The letter was addressed to "Mrs. Charles FitzRandolph, Rose Hall, Fredericton, N. B." The envelope was thrown away by witness but the letter preserved. This letter was placed in evidence at a previous sitting of the court and contained terms of endearment and phrases of a similar nature. Miss McCloskey also swore that she remembered a man whom Mrs. FitzRandolph called "Edgar" remaining at the house all one night.

Miss Flora Grant

The evidence of Miss Flora Grant was to the effect that on the night of July 24, 1917, Mrs. Charles FitzRandolph accompanied by another woman registered at the C. P. R. hotel at McAdam. The next morning a gentleman arrived and said he expected to meet two friends. He looked at the register and said the two women were the friends. He was given a room opposite those of the two women. Later the witness saw the women undressed in their rooms. The man was in company with Mrs. FitzRandolph while at the hotel.

C. Frank Worrell

The evidence of Mr. Worrell dealt chiefly with the Fredericton Golf Clubhouse incident. He said that it was at his suggestion that the motor drive was taken. He had been introduced to Mrs. FitzRandolph by Mr. Mortimer of St. John. Liquor was partaken of by all members of the party at the clubhouse. There was no improper conduct between himself and the defendant or between the latter and any other person. For his own part there never had been misconduct with defendant.

R. Hugh Bruce

R. Hugh Bruce stated that in the summer of 1916 he was staying at the Prince William Apartments, St. John. There was no separation between himself and his wife who was in Ontario. He met Mrs. Charles FitzRandolph there, being introduced to her. He did not induce Mrs. FitzRandolph to go from Fredericton to St. John, by any message. He remembered Mrs. Percy Chestnut and Mrs. FitzRandolph arriving in St. John one night late that summer. Late that night at the request of Miss Tingley who was managing the Prince William Apartments, he met Mrs. FitzRandolph at the Royal Hotel. The meeting took place in the ladies sitting room, Mrs. Chestnut not appearing. The hotel staff objected to their smoking in that room, they then sat in the hall. Nothing improper took place and he remained but a few minutes. Witness was not in any bed.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

It's all right to meet trouble half-way, but don't go out looking for it.

A man can get used to everything—except the fool actions of his relatives.

A man may be all his wife thinks he is, but he is seldom what he thinks he is.

A man isn't necessarily unhappy just because a woman marries him to reform him. She may fail.

Every young man has a great future ahead of him but it usually persists in staying there.
