

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Miss Elsie Ferguson, Movie Star, to Remain on This Side of the Big Pond.

Miss Elsie Ferguson has changed her mind. They had it all fixed, you know, for the movie queen to go to Europe to star in a lot of new pictures, and it had been planned to start in a couple of weeks. The lady upset all plans and the bets are off. Blandly, when asked down at the Lask Offices if she was all ready for the trip, she asked "What trip?" Then she explained that as a great artiste she could not be expected to jeopardize her fame by going over there and risking poor light, inferior direction and faulty equipment. Europe, she believes, is no place for a lady just now.

Miss Mabel Fishwick, daughter of one of Cincinnati's wealthy men, is a Yankee girl all through. When Pa was speechless at her request for permission to make a trip in an airship, she simply decided she would, anyway. Alfred Lawson, the aviator, was about to start for Washington with his passenger airplane and she promptly hid among the baggage in the cabin. When they were a few miles up and out, she announced herself without paging. Lawson couldn't drop her out very well, so he waited till they could land at Connelville, Pa. There he introduced her as a stowaway. Miss Fishwick was perfectly willing to take the train home.

Mrs. Anna McF. Roberts, of New York, has been awarded her claim in large part against the estate of the late Herman Selcken, the coffee king, who died in Germany two years ago. The woman will receive $53,166. She proved to the satisfaction of the court that in 1911 she entered into an agreement with the coffee man by which he was to pay her $200 a month during his lifetime and leave her $50,000 in his will.

Mrs. Mary Prunella of the East Side, New York, made a deep impression on Patrolman Bowman, when at the request of the lady's husband the officer was assisting in getting her to Bellevue for observation. She declared she was sane and declined to go. The officer gallantly took her arm, by way of escort. Quick as a flash the impression came. The lady has wonderful teeth, and interred them for a space in the cop's arm. She's in the observation ward now, while he, with arm cauterized, wonders if its "catching."

Mrs. Cressie P. Ashdown, whose husband, Edward Ashdown, the New York public accountant, tried to have her put in an asylum, she says, has brought suit for separation. She met Ashdown at Reno, where both had secured Nevada divorces from their life partners, just a month after getting their legal freedom. Ashdown accuses his wife of being a drug addict, but physicians declare this is absurd. The first wife of Ashdown recently got a divorce from him on the grounds that his Reno divorce was invalid and that his second marriage constituted misconduct in New York.

Mrs. Renee Boucicault, grand daughter of Dion Boucicault and daughter of Aubrey, the playwright and actor, is being sued by her husband and their two year old daughter, through the father, to restrain her from revoking the guardianship of her $300,000 estate, now held by Oscar Englander who manages it and pays her income. She on the other hand is suing her husband, whose name is really Alexander Marks, but who took her name at her demand when they married. She is now only 22, has been through many heartaches, but still has her $300,000.

Witch Soot Destroyer

This article has been such a great boon for our customers and the public since we introduced it last season that we have put in another large stock of it and it will always be obtainable.

THE WITCH cleans the pipes and chimney chemically, saves labor taking down pipes, cleaning of furniture, etc., and incidentally saves your temper.

A trial will convince you.
