FOREST FIRES.

On account of the very dry weather, forest fires have broken out in several sections of the Canadian west, and have done great damage to timberlands. New Brunswick has so far this season escaped the ravages of forest fires, but it is well to be on the alert. Those who have occasion to go into the woods should take every precaution against fires. In this connection we would commend to them the following rules prepared by United States Forest Service for the prevention of fires:

1. Matches.—Be sure your match is out. Pinch it before you throw it away.
2. Tobacco.—Throw pipe ashes and cigar or cigarette stumps in the dust of the road. Don't throw them into brush, leaves or needles.
3. Making camp.—Build a small campfire. Build it in the open, not against a tree or log or near brush. Scrape away the trash from all round it.
4. Leaving Camp.—Never leave a camp fire, even for a short time, without quenching it with water and then covering it with earth.
5. Bonfires.—Never build bonfires in windy weather or where there is the slightest danger of their escaping from control. Don't make them larger than you need.
6. Fighting Fires.—If you find a fire, try to put it out. If you can't, get word of it to the nearest forest ranger at once.

Far too many forest fires are due to carelessness. If every man who went into the woods observed these simple rules, there would be a marked reduction in the annual waste of our forest wealth.

Twelve hundred and thirty-eight certificates have been received, and the same number of credentials issued to date, for the National Liberal Convention to be held at Ottawa on August 5th, 6th and 7th. About 250 names have been received of probable delegates, making altogether an attendance of accredited delegates exceeding 1,500. To each delegate pamphlets reviewing the work of the Liberal party are being issued. One of these gives, in detail, the tariff record from 1893 to 1919.

Polling in the Prince Edward Island provincial elections takes place tomorrow. The campaign seems to have been carried on so quietly that newspapers published outside of the province have devoted but little attention to it. Reports to hand indicate that the Liberals have more than a fighting chance to win. The House consists of thirty members, and at the present time the Conservatives hold sixteen seats, the Liberals thirteen and there is one vacant.

It is said that at the present time there are no less than six hundred thousand tons of shipping in Atlantic ports of the United States waiting for dry dock accommodation. A dry dock in St. John at the present time would be a pretty good business proposition. It seems a pity that the plans made for the establishment of one in that city some years ago ended in talk.

Hog prices in the Chicago market rose yesterday to the record price of $23 a hundredweight. September corn sold at the same time at $1.93. The outlook for cheaper hams and bacon this year is not very bright. Having helped to win the war, the pig probably feels that he has no license to get back into the old rut.

At the recent Liberal convention in St. John one of the delegates, a young lawyer, declared with some heat in reply to a query regarding his political leanings that he had never turned his back on Sir Wilfrid Laurier. If that is so, there are many people who would like to know how this same lawyer was given a retainer in the Southampton Railway case by the Borden government.

The compilers of the book entitled "Canadian Towns and the Great War" have made the discovery that Fredericton is a county. It looks as if they had another think coming to them. There are quite a number of people in this vicinity who are under the impression that Fredericton is one of the most up-to-date cities to be found on the map.

Over five hundred German and Austrian prisoners who have been interned at Amherst, N.S., since the beginning of the war, were yesterday sent to Quebec by special train and will be deported to Germany.

Sir Arthur Currie, who commanded the Canadian forces in the field, is expected to arrive home about August 10th. Plans are already under way to tender him a royal welcome.

MID-WEEK MARKET PRICES HIGH

Little Demand for Country Produce—Prices High—Strawberries Fifty Cents per Box.

There was a fair sized mid-week market this morning at Phoenix Square. Buyers were scarce and things were not very active. Potatoes were missing from the market. Other prices remained about the same although 65 cents was demanded at one time for eggs. String beans called for 75 and 80 cents a peck. Strawberries were scarce and 50 cents per box was asked for them.

The prevailing prices were as follows:

- Eggs, 55 and 60 cents a dozen.
- Butter, 40 to 45 cents per lb.
- Currants 30 cents per box.
- Gooseberries, 30 cents per box.
- English cherries 30 cents per box.
- Raspberries 30 cents per box.
- Strawberries, 50 cents per box.
- Carrots 10 cents per bunch.
- Beets, 10 cents per bunch.
- Onions 10 cents per bunch.
- Lamb 17 to 20 cents per lb.
- Veal, 9 to 15 cents per lb.
- Beef, 12 to 16 cents per lb.
- Live pigs, $3.50 to $4.00 each.

DEFENDANT ON STAND IN DIVORCE CASE

She wanted to go home but the men were not in condition to drive. The men slept and early in the morning they went to her home. Nothing improper occurred. Witness met both Edgar H. Fairweather and R. H. Bruce. Mr. Fairweather came to her home and played bridge.

Mrs. Percy Chestnut's statement that she saw Fairweather embrace witness was entirely false. He remained all night on one occasion. Nothing improper occurred between them and he never kissed her.

She and Mrs. Percy Chestnut went to St. John together. Both took a drink on the train. At the Royal Hotel in St. John both got so drunk they had to stop playing cards. While intoxicated at the Prince William Apartments she went to Mr. Bruce's room and he brought her back to her room. Nothing improper took place between them. Mrs. Chestnut returned to Fredericton on the following Monday. She never said to Mrs. Chestnut "Do not touch me, I am too vile to touch." She did not consider herself too vile for that woman to touch. Witness was positive Mrs. Chestnut got drunk at the Royal Hotel. In fact she never saw Mrs. Chestnut refuse liquor.

Received No Money
Witness said that during the case she had received not one cent from her husband. She had been supported by her own relatives. She saw her children only with great difficulty. Mr. Teed and Dr. Baxter had a heat-

A crowning curative triumph in medicine is now given to the world, and all who have been sufferers from stomach ailments, indigestion and headache can be cured by a purely vegetable remedy.

Calomel, salts and such like are no longer necessary. They are harsh and disagreeable. Science has devised something far superior, and you can go today with 25c to any druggist and buy a box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are considered the very quickest and safest cure for the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.

Half sick men and women who scarcely know what ails them, will be given a new lease of life, with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Depressed spirits disappear, headaches are forgotten, appetite increases, blood is purified and enriched, pains at the base of the spine are cured, the nerves are toned up, ambition to work is increased, and day by day the old-time health and vigor return.

A trial only is necessary to prove how beneficial Dr. Hamilton's Pills are to all who are weak, nervous, thin, depressed or in failing health.

ed argument at this point. Counsel for the defence said he never had encountered such difficulty in getting expenses. Mr. Teed retorted that there was a different way of proceeding from attempting to get cheap advertising in court.

Cross Examination

Mr. Teed began cross-examination which was rigid.

As with other witnesses for the defence Mr. Teed continually referred to the evidence given at the first trial of the case and pointed out differences. The witness stated that she knew the location of Mr. Bruce's room at the Prince William Apartments, St. John, because her son had told her. Pressed with regard to her former evidence that she had gone into Mr. Bruce's room and sat at the window for some time she admitted that the statement must be correct. With regard to Mr. Edgar H. Fairweather, witness stated that he several times had visited her home and had remained all night on one occasion sleeping in a chair. Papers for which he returned had been taken from his pocket by him to show witness. No improper conduct ever had taken place between herself and any of the co-respondents.

Tuesday Afternoon

The case was continued yesterday afternoon. The evidence of two witnesses, Mr. Edgar H. Fairweather of St. John and Miss Janie Bearisto of this city was taken and then the court adjourned to meet again this morning.

Edgar H. Fairweather

Edgar Fairweather of St. John was the first witness called upon. He stated that his acquaintance with Mrs. FitzRandolph was casual and said that he could not definitely tell the length of the acquaintance in St. John. Four visits to Mrs. FitzRandolph at her home in Fredericton were brought out. They were made in July 1916, October 1916, April 1917, and July 1917. On being questioned he stated that he had learned she was in Fredericton in October and had telephoned her whereupon she invited him to tea. After tea they went to the pictures returning to her residence at about ten o'clock. They spent the evening chatting about various things and time passed so quickly he had taken no notice of it until he saw it was about two o'clock. Then he had exclaimed at the lateness of the hour and Mrs. FitzRandolph had stated that it would look bad and cause comment if he were seen leaving at that hour so he had curled up in a chair while as he presumed she went to bed. On going out of the house later he stated he missed some papers which had fallen from his pocket and which he had as far as he could remember placed on the table in the den. He said he had had several drinks as had Mrs. FitzRandolph and that both were smoking. He stated that he had at no time tried to be familiar with Mrs. FitzRandolph and that at no time had there been any misconduct between the two. He admitted on one occasion taking a flask of whiskey to Mrs. FitzRandolph's residence when he met her and a lady he thought to be Miss Radcliffe on the street. It was at Mrs. FitzRandolph's suggestion.

Miss Janie Bearisto

Miss Janie Bearisto was then called. She was engaged to take care of the children, while Mrs. Randolph was in England. She had not at first known that Mrs. FitzRandolph drank whiskey but on learning of it she had tried to stop her. She stated concerning the visits of Miss Radcliffe, Mr. Worrell and Mr. Mortimer to the house that she had never heard Mrs. FitzRandolph swear in any way when under the influence of liquor. Her evidence being completed the Court adjourned until this morning.
