MY CATARRH ALL GONE
Suffered Like a Boob For Years—
Got Relief in Ten Minutes.

Catarrhzone Did Cure

That's the way hundreds of the boys around town are talking since Catarrhzone got into the drug stores. Nothing on earth like Catarrhzone to really cure Catarrh, Colds or Bronchitis.

"Catarrhzone"—it isn't a drug—it's a healing vapor full of pine essences and healing balsams. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and Catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Catarrhzone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhzone. All dealers sell Catarrhzone, large size which lasts two months price $1.00; small size 50c; Sample size 25c.

MAY GO TO THE COUNTRY ON
G. T. P. SCHEME

Montreal, Oct. 20.—There is a feeling here that the Dominion Government may go to the country on Grand Trunk purchase scheme. The vote in the House indicates support of Western group that otherwise would refuse support on the tariff issue. The Government, it is thought, feels that Government ownership policy would out-shadow in swift election campaign the tariff and Liberal opposition would be in the position of opposing the G.T.R. deal.

LAST WORDS OF SAVIOUR
PRESERVED FOR CENTURIES

A Valuable Document Which Tradition Says Was Found Buried at the Foot of the Cross of Calvary—Claimed to Have Been Written by the Blessed Saviour After His Crucifixion and Signed by the Angel Gabriel.

The MAIL has been asked by a now living in Marion Ind., clipped it subscriber to publish the accompanying article taken from an exchange: "The following is a letter said to be written by our Saviour and found at the foot of the cross. According to the history of the letter, it was written by Christ just after his crucifixion signed by the Angel Gabriel 99 years after the Saviour's birth, and presumably deposited by him under a stone at the foot of the cross. On the stone appeared the legend: "Blessed is the one who shall turn me over." "No one knew what the inscription meant, or seemed to have sufficient curiosity to investigate until the stone was turned over by a little child, and the letter which follows was discovered:

"Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall be cursed. I command you to go to church and keep holy the Lord's Day, without any manner of work. You shall not idle or mis-spent your time in bedecking yourself in superfluities of costly apparel and vain dressing for I have ordered it a day of rest. I will have that day kept holy that your sins may be forgiven you. You will not break my commandments but observe them and keep them. They have been written by my hand, and spoken from my mouth. You shall not only go to church yourself, but also your servant and maid-servant. Observe my words and learn my commandments. You shall finish your work every Saturday at six o'clock in the afternoon, at which hour the preparation for the Sabbath begins. I advise you to fast five days in the year, beginning on Good Friday, and continuing the five days following in remembrance of the five blood wounds I received for you, mankind.

"You shall love one another, and cause them that are not baptised to come to Christ and receive the Holy Sacrament, that is to say, baptism and then the supper of the Lord, and be made a member thereof, and in so doing I will give you long life and many blessings. Your land shall be replenished and bring forth abundance, and I will comfort you in the greatest temptation and surely those that doeth the contrary shall be cursed. I will also send hardness of the heart on them and especially on hardened and impenitent unbelievers. He that has given to the poor shall find it profitable: Remember to keep the Sabbath day: for the seventh day I have taken as a resting day to myself. And he that hath a copy of this letter written by my own hand and spoken by my own mouth, and keepeth it without publishing it to others shall not prosper. But he that publisheth it to others shall be blessed by me, and if their sins be as many as the stars by night, and if they truly believe not this writing and my commandments will have my plagues upon you and you will be consumed with your children, goods and cattle and all other worldly enjoyment that I have given you. Do but once think of what I have suffered for you; if you do, it will be well for you. In this world and the world which is to come, whosoever shall have a copy of this letter and keep it in their house, nothing shall hurt them, neither pestilence, thunder or lightning, and if any woman be in birth and put her trust in me she shall be delivered of her child. You shall hear no more news of me except in the Holy Scriptures, until the day of judgment. All goodness and prosperity shall be in the house where a copy of this letter shall be found." Finished.

The story goes that the little girl that found it passed it to one who became a convert to the Christian faith. He failed to have it published, but kept it as a sacred memento of Christ, and it passed down to different generations of his family for more than one thousand years. During this period the family suffered repeated misfortunes, migrated to different countries, until finally one of them came to America, bringing the letter with them. They settled in Virginia, then moved further south, still followed by misfortune, when finally the last member a daughter, approached her death bed and called a neighbor, Mrs. Thompson, giving her the letter, and related its history that had been kept for more than 1,000 years. Mr. Thompson began the attempt and published the letter. It first appeared in Rome, Georgia, U. S. A., Oct. 31, 1891. It then appeared in Dalton, Ga., and Mrs. Wortman.

PRESIDENT
IN FINE SHAPE

Washington, Oct. 22.—President Wilson was said by Secretary Tumulty to be "in fine shape" this morning after the most active day yesterday he has had since he became ill. Dr. Grayson, the President's physician, insisted that the fact that Mr. Wilson was permitted to dictate a letter yesterday to Secretary Lane regarding the Industrial Conference did not mean he would be allowed to resume active work.
