

"I Hope Every City and District Will Win My Flag"

When Edward, Prince of Wales—eager, bright eyed, smiling and sincere—arrived in Canada in August, and when he voiced his great admiration of the wonderful achievements of Canadians, on the fields of battle and at home, once again we were thrilled with joyous pride.

He asked concerning Canada's reconstruction programme, and when he was told of the Victory Loan 1919, he graciously consented to the use of his Coat of Arms on a flag, which is to be the prize of honour for districts achieving their quota in the loan.

In dedicating "The Prince's Flag" at Ottawa on Labor Day, His Royal Highness said in part:—

"It is a great joy to me to be associated with the loan, which is the bridge between war and peace, and which is finishing off the job."

"I hope every city and district will win my flag."

Striking, and beautiful in design, this flag will form not only a unique memento of Victory Year, but a lasting and outstanding souvenir of the visit of His Royal Highness—a visit which will remain as one of the most memorable events in Canada's history.

The reproduction above shows the design of the flag. The body is white, the edge red; in the upper left hand corner is the Union Jack, and in the lower right hand corner the Prince of Wales' Coat of Arms.

The flag is made in two sizes, 4 feet 6 inches by 9 feet for small cities, towns and villages, and 7 feet by 13 feet 6 inches for cities of over 10,000 population.

Canada has been divided into canvassing districts by the Victory Loan Organization. Each city forms one district. Other districts have been determined according to population.

Each of these canvassing districts has been allotted a certain amount in Victory Bonds to sell. To win the Prince's Flag, therefore, a district has to sell its allotment. That is the one and simple condition.

Anticipating that many districts will buy far beyond their allotment, the organization decided that for each twenty-five per cent. excess of the quota one Prince of Wales' Crest be awarded. Thus the workers in a district doubling its quota will be the proud winners of four small crests for their Honour Flag. These crests will be sewn to the flag. The Prince's Crest—the three ostrich plumes—is shown at the top of the coat of arms.

To every organization with fifty or more employees, where seventy-five per cent. of the enrollment invests a total of ten per cent. of the annual payroll in Victory Bonds, a supplementary Prince of Wales Flag in smaller form—48 inches by 34 inches—will be awarded.

The allotment for each district has been carefully considered, and is based on a conservative estimate of the purchasing power of the district.

Your district can sell its allotment and thus win the Prince's Flag, provided each person does his or her share.

You will gladly do your part and encourage your neighbour to do his.

Remember YOUR purchase may be the one that decides whether or not your district is to be the proud possessor of the Prince's Flag.

The Prince's Motto is "I Serve"
Will You also Serve?

COLLEGE RULE OF ELIGIBILITY INJURED DAL

Wanderers Expected to be Defeated Saturday—Change in Date of Sackville Game.

Commenting on the defeat of the Dalhousie University team by the Wanderers at Halifax on Saturday last the Acadian Recorder a Halifax evening paper says:—

The score was a fair sample of the play as the Wanderers had the best of the territory, and with every inch contested, they won by their determination. It was quite a surprise, as even Wanderers' admirers expected the College to win; perhaps this fact may have caused the latter to have too much confidence, as their friends fully calculated they would win out in the second half, but the Wanderers with their lead were inspired with ideas that they would not allow Dalhousie to beat them if they could help it, and it was this determination and the great fighting qualities they possessed that really brought them victory.

Concerning the Dalhousie team which was entirely of Intercollegiate material the Recorder says:—

Baxendale again put up a magnificent game, being one of the best of the team; White was also of great help to them, and his speed again got him a good score, and placing the ball in a fine position to kick the goal, which resulted therefrom. Holmes again played well; Jones was another splendid player, while B. Haslam did much excellent work, and Ross played well at quarter. The forwards played hard and many times excelled the opposing seven. Dalhousie did not tackle as well as the Wanderers, nor did they follow up in the same style; the aggressiveness of Red and Blacks preventing them making many gains.

Already the intercollegiate qualifications are clashing with those of the Halifax City League as far as Dalhousie is concerned. The Recorder says:—

Dalhousie's team can be strengthened with both teams and others to select from, and not to play their intercollegiate team, as in this game. Porter played well at half back, but he was not nearly as effective as Fluck, who was injured in the last game. M. Haslam was the star of their team; he made magnificent rushes, plunging right ahead, while he punted in good style.

Acadia and Mt. Allison have asked for a change in the date of the Intercollegiate fixture at Sackville. The original date was the 28th but the 29th is now wanted. U. N. B. has been asked to consent to the change. It would give U. N. B. a better gate if the Mount A. match here was set for a Saturday but there would be a difficulty in arranging Mt. Allison's transportation arrangements.

Freda who played with Acadia a few years ago is one of Queen's University's scrimmage men. The Queen's team was unmercifully drubbed by McGill in the Intercollegiate Canadian series.

The rule of the college league in which U. N. B. plays that "safety" touches shall count in the event of a draw or tie has been severely criticized in the past and has not proved its usefulness. The argument is that it is needed to prevent ties or draws. That held good in the old days when close play was the rule but lately there always have been decisive scores. A perusal of the Rugby results in the Old Country on Saturday last shows that in fourteen games there was but one tie and "safeties" do not count there.
