Witch Soot Destroyer

This article has been such a great boon for our customers and the public since we introduced it last season that we have put in another large stock of it and it will always be obtainable.

THE WITCH cleans the pipes and chimney chemically, saves labor taking down pipes, cleaning of furniture, etc., and incidentally saves your temper.

A trial will convince you.

NO HOPE FOR
ENTOMBED MEN

Amsterdam, Ohio, Oct. 31.—After being entombed for 48 hours, little hope is held out that the 21 miners in Y. & O. mine No. 2 here are still alive.
Without food, shut off in the north passage by flames and with the greater part of the mine flooded with water, poured in to beat back the flames, the mine officials today said that few if any of the men could have survived.

JELICOE AT HONOLULU.

In an address at Honolulu Admiral Lord Jellicoe paid tribute to the value of American naval co-operation in the war. "We of the United States and Great Britain were brothers and sisters in time of need," he said, "and nobody can think of the naval part of the great war without thinking of the great American Admiral Mahan, who did much to open our eyes to the value of sea power. Admiral Mahan had a hand in winning the war, and although this is the first time I have set foot on United States territory I will not be the last to acknowledge Great Britain's debt to America during the war."

AROUND THE CITY

"Did you hear about the election?" was the query asked Monday night.
"What election?" was asked in return.
"In Carleton-Victoria," said the other.
"O was that an election?" was the come-back, "I thought Melville was running for exercise."

An enterprising youth living in Devon recently made a dollar in an original manner. He pilfered a bicycle and was observed in the act. Next day he returned the bicycle to the owner and was paid a dollar for his skill in recovering the stolen wheel.

The recent by-election in Carleton-Victoria recalls some amusing incidents in elections in this county in past years. When the late Hon. Thomas Temple was elected in one of his numerous contests the news of victory was broken to his wife by an ardent supporter in a rather unusual way. This gentleman who was a prominent citizen of Fredericton was observed standing in the doorway of Mr. Temple's residence shaking Mrs.
Temple's hand most energetically and repeating again and again,—"D—him, D— him, D— him, We've beaten him. We've beaten him. We've beaten him."

In one of the elections in which Hon. O. S. Crockett and Mr. Alex. Gibson were candidates, an artificial donkey was given prominence. It was the possession of some of the younger members of the Liberal organization who claimed it typified the Conservative party. The young Conservatives retorted that as Liberals always were seen in close proximity to the donkey it properly was their emblem. In those days political feeling ran high at the University of New Brunswick and in processions which were part of big demonstrations by both parties students marched in large numbers. One Conservative procession disbanding in front of the Barker House was the target for a few vegetables and a charge of Tory U. N. B. students at once followed. In the ensuing struggle the famous donkey suffered serious damage and there were numerous individual encounters. The donkey later recovered to such an extent that it appeared at carnivals in the Arctic Rink.

Any person who has had occasion to search for a resident of Fredericton by street number knows that this city today is not as well furnished with street signs and numerals on dwellings as it was ten years ago. The city authorities do not seem to give this matter any consideration. About half the street intersections in Fredericton are unmarked, although at one time handsome enamelled signs were placed at all such intersections. Alterations to buildings, repainting and the destructiveness of the small boy are

LLOYD GEORGE
DEFENDS GOVT.
EXPENDITURE

London, Oct. 31.—Premier Lloyd George, in defending the government expenditure in military matters in the House of Commons, contended that it was true economy and enabled England to have sufficient divisions in reserve to put Marshal Foch in a position to prepare for a march on Berlin, if necessary, and thereby force Germany to sign peace.
"It was a very drastic treaty," said the Premier. "Would the Germans have signed it unless they knew we were in a position to compel them?"

THE CARDINAL
AT MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Cardinal Mercier was this morning given a reception by the Montreal bar and unveiled a tablet in the court house in memory of those who served in the war. This afternoon His Eminence will attend a luncheon given by the city and the Canadian Club at the Windsor Hotel, and later will be officially received at the City Hall, where Mayor Martin will read an address of welcome.

HUNS WANT THE
BLOCKADE LIFTED

Basle, Oct. 31.—The German government note to the Entente declining to participate in the blockade of soviet Russia, asks that the blockade be completely raised and that all German ships held in Baltic harbors be restored to their owners.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to read poetry to his girl or his wife? Probably now reading her the stock quotations.

As much as a man admires the trait of resignation, he doesn't like the thought of it in connection with his widow.
