

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. OF INTEREST
TO WOMEN

ENTER THE KNIT BLOUSE.

Something New and Nice for Sports-
woman's Long Neglected Wardrobe.

It was but a step from the slip-on sweater worn with a blouse and the same sweater worn without a blouse, and an even shorter step to the knit blouse of wool or silk or fibre silk, which was nothing more than a slip-on frankly playing the role of blouse. But now this idea has been elaborated into a very smart and practical degree. The knit blouse is "in" and offers the sportswoman something new to add to her long-neglected wardrobe.

A Rose Silk Tricot.

These are cut for the most part on the lines of the popular tunic blouses and basques. Indeed, but for the woven material instead of yardage goods being used, they would pass for the loveliest of afternoon blouses. A rose silk tricot, for instance, has a V neck, short sleeves with pointed outline, which matches the outline of the straight blouse ending just below the normal waistline. The sleeves and blouse, however, are both lengthened by a seven-inch hand knitted silk fringe.

A Favorite Trimming.

Fringe is a favorite trimming for the "knit" blouse, which, roughly speaking, includes the silk tricots as well as the hand and machine knit woolens. One very chic fringe-trimmed affair in white silk tricot has the front draped up in the fashion of the '80's and held at the sides by a sash coming from the back.

Metal Tricot.

Metal Tricot is very new, and one sees it in a short basque blouse trimmed around the shallow neck and very short kimono sleeves with looped fringe. Three rows of the fringe edge the bottom of the blouse.

A very stunning middy blouse of white wool shows what can be done with this idea for sports. This has a very blousey top with fitted basque of heavier knit below the waist. There is a sailor collar of brushed wool and tight knit cuffs to hold in the fullness of the sleeves.

HOW TO TREAT STAINS.

Before putting white waists which have been faded from wear through the regular tub process, dip them in potato water made by boiling clean unprepared sliced potatoes in water. Also, for reviving a silk dress a sponging with potato water is wonder working.

Remove iodine from fabric by soaking in milk and occasionally rubbing the stain.

Liquid ammonia will remove stains made on clothing by sewing machine oil.

When a garment has a fruit stain on it, before letting it go through the regular process of washing with all the rest of the clothes, wet it with camphor. With this treatment it will come out with no sign of the stain that was!

A little red ink put in the rinsing water for pink cotton materials prevents faded look.

When fireproof dishes have been scorched, soak in strong borax water.

THE CHANGE.

He flashed a bankroll
Large and fat
And said: "The barkeeps
Once got that."

THE NIGHT RATE.

Wee Bessie asked what prayers are
and was told that "Prayers are messages to God."

"Oh, I see," said the child. "And
we wait till bedtime to send 'em so's
to get night rates."

HOW UNKIND.

"I just love to sit and watch the people dance."
"Yes. I can't dance these new steps either."

DIVIDE UP THE WORK.

In a large family it is best to divide up the work so each child will have only one thing to try to get out of doing.

CHARMS NOT HIDDEN.

Our observation is that when a girl
is proud of her figure she simply refuses to erect a board fence around it.

Note to parents: Don't mind it if daughter makes an awful to-day about getting the house ready for her "simple home wedding." It's the last time she will ever care how the old home looks, and afterward Dad can be as untidy about newspapers and pipes as he likes and mother can shell peas or darn stockings in the parlor if she pleases.

"It's got so," says an old friend, "that a fellow can't save any money without doing something." While this is perfectly true, we hold to the opinion that it always was the case.
