MAYOR GRAY ELECTED IN STRUGGLE AGAINST LABOR

Citizen's Party Also Victorious in Aldermanic Elections—Big Majority for Its Candidates in Four Wards—Queen and Jones on the Labor Ticket, Elected—Contest was Really Second Round of the One Big Union Strike Last Summer—Russell Trial Attracts Great Attention.

Winnipeg, Nov. 28—The great fight of the labor element to control the civic government has resulted in their defeat and they have lost the opportunity to rule the city council. In an extraordinary vote, so far as numbers go, Mayor Gray, who led the citizens forces will likely have a majority of more than 2,500. In the council, the citizen's forces have won, but by a narrower majority. Sullivan, ward one; Fowler, ward two; Davidson, ward four, and Fisher, ward three, however have big majorities in their wards. For labor, Queen, ward five, and Jones, ward seven, are winners and ward six is still in doubt. With the present labor men in the council this will give the citizens a majority.

The election of the mayor will assure that the labor element will not be able to carry out the reactionary policy on which they built their platform for the most exciting civic election in local history, or, as it has been termed the second round of the fight which started last June.

Under the Winnipeg charter, aldermen are elected for a two year term, two for each ward. Only one seat is contested in each election year.

The by-law providing for the municipalization of the milk distribution has been defeated.

Russell's Trial

Winnipeg, Nov. 28—When the trial of R. B. Russell, strike leader charged with seditious conspiracy was resumed this forenoon A. J. Andrews, K. C. crown counsel, continued his opening address to the jury referring to the meeting held in the Walker Theatre December 22, 1918, at which the accused, Russell, Armstrong, Ivens, Sam Blumenberg and F. J. Dixon, spoke and at which Alderman John Queen acted as chairman. He intended he declared to show that this was a seditious meeting for the avowed purpose of having all orders-in-council repealed, all political prisoners released, dis continuation of discussion of sending further reinforcements to Russia and withdrawal of all troops in Russia.

Mr. Andrews read excerpts from speeches made at the meeting at the Walker and then related at considerable length the proceedings at the meeting held on January 19, 1919, at the Majestic Theatre at which Russell spoke. It was decided to hold a meeting at Market Square to commemorate the death of Rosa Luxemburg, prominent German Socialist leader, but the meeting was prevented by returned soldiers. Mr. Andrews stated. The soldiers then wrecked the Socialist headquarters, the store of Blumenberg and general riots took place for two days.

The O. B. U.

F. G. Perry took the stand when court was resumed after lunch. The witness not being sure of a point raised in a question, Mr. Andrews asked for permission to read from documents which would refresh his memory. Mr. Cassidy objected to this and after considerable discussion the witness stood down while Mr. Andrews read excerpts from the official report of the convention at Calgary.

He read from the report of the resolution committee of the convention. The first resolution which sets forth the aims of labor as being the abolition of present conditions of production for profit and supplanting a system of production for use and of being in favor of a system of propaganda.

The first resolution was that the new organization be known as the One Big Union. The second that a committee of five be elected for the purpose of carrying out the recommendations of the convention. After some of the other resolutions had been read, Mr. Cassidy said that nothing had so far been read that showed labor had exceeded its legal rights.

Further excerpts from the report were then read by Mr. Andrews, which showed that the convention had sent fraternal greetings to the Soviet government in Russia and the Spartacus government in Germany, declaring sympathy with their aims. A resolution was read also calling for a general strike on June 1 to secure a six hour working day and release of political prisoners. The strike on June 1, according to the report which Mr. Andrews read, was to be called as a protest if the allies continued to do anything to interfere with the Bolsheviks in Russia. A further resolution was read favoring the Soviet government.
