SAVE WHILE THE SAVINGS GOOD

THE WAR REDEEMS MANY BLACK SHEEP OF SOCIETY

(New York Sun)

Philadelphia, Jan. 24—The trenches made a good job of "snatching brands from the burning," as far as the 299 petty criminals of this city who enlisted for service at the front through the Misdemeanant's Division of the Municipal Court are concerned.

All of the number, who at various times became the charges of the city reform agency for committing petty crime, for idling away their time and becoming burdens to their families, have made good in the first line trenches. Many have come back ideal citizens.

The story is told in the report of the Misdemeanants' Division of the Municipal Court to President Judge Brown, which reviews the operations of the men's branch for 1918.

Among other things the report says $20,000 was saved by the city through the release of inmates from the House of Correction for rehabilitation in homes and employment establishments. During the year the division handled 1,332 cases, of which number 454 were reported incorrigible.

Many Receive Wounds

According to the report all of the 229 misdemeanants distinguished themselves in service. Of the number many have been wounded while going over the top and at least a dozen of the one time "bad boys" are on the battlefield in the service of their country.

A significant fact pointed out by the investigators is that most of the youths, generally regarded as a burden to their families and relatives, were regular in submitting their army allotments to their parents. Almost all of the number returned from service have obtained employment, the report says.

While in service the boys kept in touch with the court through letters sent monthly. Christmas cards were sent to each soldier and sailor who enlisted through the department, which has constantly kept informed of the whereabouts of the boys. Almost in every instance, the report says the boys have sent their thanks to Judge Brown for his personal interest.

Physicians Cure Boy Loafers
"Since the medical department of the court has been enlarged most beneficial results are being accomplished, the report says. "Boys who have been complained of as worthless loafers have been turned over to the medical department, when advisable, and in many instances it was found the indifference was due to mental or physical defect. Wherever this is the case prompt medical treatment is given in institutions to which the charges are sent. In this way boys are built up mentally, physically and morally to become useful members of society. There were eighty such cases disposed of with beneficial results during the year."

Of the 1,332 cases handled by the department last year it was necessary to take only seventeen into court. The remainder were handled by the probation officers and in addition the department obtained the release of 137 boys from the House of Correction seventy of whom were placed on probation and the balance returned to their homes. Employment for forty-one runaway boys was obtained by the department. Employment was obtained for 816 wards of the court in the year.

KAISER AWOKES IN FLORAL BOWER ON BIRTHDAY

Amerongen, Sunday—William Hohenzollern, the fugitive German Emperor, will awake on his sixtieth birthday tomorrow morning to find his apartments in Amerongen Castle a bower of flowers sent by many German admirers in Germany and Holland. Since Friday bouquets have been arriving in great quantities from school girls and former supporters in Germany.

Every mail brings piles of letters, and there are numerous telegrams, most of which are of a congratulatory nature. However there are dozens of caricatures and letters of abuse.

Letters undergo a double censorship. First the Dutch authorities look over them to prevent intrigues. In the second instance a servant of the one-time Emperor inspects the letters and permits only those communications which he considers will please him.

The veil which up to this time has hidden William Hohenzollern's daily life from the public has been lifted slightly, and shows that he employs his day in the humdrum fashion usual among country gentlemen who do not frequent society.

He rises about eight o'clock. His bath is followed by a thorough mas-

STOMACH SO BAD THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE CAN EAT ANYTHING NOW

But for indigestion and dyspepsia, many a life might be a pleasant one. The misery which stomach troubles cause the sufferer knows only too well and any one who has suffered knows what joy it would give to be able to eat three good meals a day and not be punished for it after.

Nearly everything that enters a weak stomach acts as an irritant, and even the little that is eaten causes such torture and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good.

Before you can eat heartily, and not pick and choose your food, you must put your stomach right so that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments.

For forty years now Burdock Blood Bitters has been making weak stomachs strong, and permanently curing severe cases of indigestion and dyspepsia that other remedies were powerless to reach.

Mr. H. L. Fairweather, Cumberland Bay, N. B. writes: "I was troubled with my stomach for two years and sometimes was so bad I thought I would die. I tried everything I ever heard tell of, and had medicine from three doctors, but continued to grow worse. One day I read of some wonderful cures made with Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking two bottles, I could eat any kind of food without any bad effects, and by the time I had taken four I was in perfect health."

sage, to which he has been accustomed since his university days. After his bath he has an extremely simple breakfast, sometimes in his own rooms and sometimes with the Bentinck family.

After breakfast he receives reports from the chief of his servants, who lays before him clippings from various newspapers, severely censored, and what remains of the censored mail. A walk in the garden comes next and, in fine weather wood sawing for the castle fires. Another bath is taken before lunch, which also is a frugal meal.

WELL SATISFIED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Emile Malette, Montpelier, Que., writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for some time and am well satisfied with them. They are surely the best medicine I know of for little ones." What Mrs. Malette says thousands of other mothers say. Once they have used the Tablets for their children they would use nothing else. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative; are absolutely free from opiates, narcotics or other harmful drugs and may be given to the youngest baby with perfect safety and good results. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
