BABY HAD DIARRHOEA
WAS GIVEN UP

DR. FOWLER'S
EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY CURED HER

Mothers should look well after their children during the hot summer months as this is the time of year when the young ones are liable to all kinds of bowel complaints.

If your children have any looseness of the bowels do not experiment with new and untried remedies. Get one having stood the test of time. Dr.
Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 74 years. Don't accept a substitute and perhaps endanger your child's life.
Mrs. Willis Coupland, Sunbridge, Ont., writes:—"About four years ago my little girl, then a baby two months old, took diarrhoea. I took her to the doctor but to no avail. After he had given her up, I read of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and immediately got a bottle. Within two days she was improving fast. I cannot ever praise it enough. I hope some poor sufferers will see this letter and lead them to a friend indeed."

BOLSHEVIK
TO BE DEPORTED
TO RUSSIA

Vancouver, Sept. 10.—Dimitrie Star-ikoff, leader of the Russian Workers Union, agitator, revolutionary, I. W.
W., and alleged Bolsheviki, who spent five years in the underground prisons of Siberia as a punishment for his political activities when in Russia, was yesterday ordered deported to Russia.
This decision was arrived at by the Immigration Commission after a trial lasting since August 23, during which a strong effort was made by the defence to escape conviction.

WHAT WE STRUGGLE FOR.

"After all," said the philosopher, "what we really struggle for in this life is the good opinion of someone else."

"That's right," declared Mr. Cross-lots. "My wife and I are both terribly worried for fear our new cook won't like us."

LIBERAL GOVT.
TAKES OFFICE
IN P. E. ISLAND

Strong Cabinet Formed—Several Members Have Had Previous Legislative Experience.

Charlottetown, Sept. 9.—The new Liberal government was sworn in today by the newly appointed lieutenant governor, Hon. Murdock McKinnon.
The personnel as announced is as follows:

Premier—Hon. J. H. Bell, K. C., Summerside.

Provincial secretary-treasurer and commissioner of agriculture—Hon.
Walter M. Lea, Tryon.

Commissioner of public works—Hon.
Cyrus Crosby, Bonshaw.

Attorney-general—Hon. J. J. Johnston, K. C., Charlottetown.

Without portfolio—Hon. George E.
Hughes, Charlottetown; Ben. J. Gallant, Bloomfield; Robert N. Cox, Morrell; David McDonald, Glenfinnan, and Frederick J. Nash, Charlottetown.

C. G. Duffy, of Charlottetown will be the new speaker.

Of the members of the executive, the premier, Messrs. Lea, Johnston, Hughes, Gallant and McDonald were in the house last session. Two others, Crosby and Cox, were previously in the legislature. Mr. Nash who is managing editor of the Charlottetown Patriot, was returned at the last Liberal election. This is the first time that the offices of premier have been held separately.

The new premier has been a member of the federal house for Prince county and subsequently of the local legislature. The other members are prominent in agricultural, commercial and professional circles and the cabinet on the whole is a strong one, representative of the various sections and interests of the island.

SENSATIONAL
MUSICAL FARCE
COMING HERE

"His Bridal Night," Margaret Mayo's sensational musical farce, which comes to the Opera House, matinee and night on Saturday, Sept. 13th, was accorded the highest praise by the Philadelphia North American when presented in that city last season. The criticism follows:

"His Bridal Night" proved to be one of the best farces that Philadelphia has seen in years. The farcical diet for a long period has been of such humdrum character that an invitation to a farce was somewhat to be dreaded. But "His Bridal Night" proved to be the exception. The story is based on the fact that two young gentlemen of wealth are in love with two young ladies who are twins and so much alike that their own relatives have difficulty in telling them apart.
One of the girls, who is to be married, has been flirting with her sister's sweetheart, and the sister in revenge impersonates her immediately after the wedding, and leaves with the young husband. The sister and young man follow, and the complications that ensue are many and irresistibly funny."

In the company that will present "His Bridal Night" here are Robert Knight, who has been in many of the leading comedy successes, the Crisp Sisters, vaudeville features of several seasons, Bertha Julian, Frank Cullen, Charles Bennett and others.

KEYSON WON
THE ST. LEGER

Doncaster, Eng., Sept. 10.—The Earl of Derby's Keyson won the St. Leger stakes of 600 sovereigns run here today. Dominion was second and Buchan third. Today's running of the St. Leger was the first since 1914, the event having been cancelled during the war years. The race is for three-year-old entire colts and fillies, over a distance of one mile, six furlongs 132 yards.

A FATHER TO BE PROUD OF.

"My son," said the retired merchant, "when I was your age, instead of idling and smoking cigarettes, I was laboring twelve hours a day building rail fences."

"I'm proud of you, dad," retorted the modern youth. "Had it not been for your pluck and perseverance I might be forced to do that same sort of work today."

A SURE CURE.

Timmins—I see some philosopher says the only way to cure yourself of a love affair is to run away. Do you believe it?

Sammins—Certainly, if you run away with the girl.
