FEARS FOR THE LIFE OF SERGT. BILLIE

London, May 29.—The war office has for some mysterious reason, decreed that Sergt. Billie, one of the heroes of the Canadian army, must not go back to Canada. He must either return to France or be put to death in this country.

Sergt. Billie, native of Saskatchewan, enlisted in Canada, Aug. 22, 1914, and came to England in October, 1914, with the first Canadian contingent. He served in France from February, 1915 until the end of hostilities. On armistice day he entered Germany with the 5th Canadian Infantry Battalion, to which he has belonged from the first.

Sergt. Billie afterwards returned with his battalion to Bramshott Camp, in Surrey, this being his first leave since going to France.

In the second battle of Ypres Sergt. Billie was wounded. He had trench feet at Hill 70. He is entitled to two gold stripes but wears only one, as he considers the second affair was not serious enough to merit a gold distinction.

A medical board has given Sergt. Billie a clean bill of health, although he is not quite as active as he used to be. He is the idol of his battalion and has shared all the hardships of war with them. It is said that he once asked Gen. Currie for two days' leave to visit Paris, but this was refused.

The 5th Battalion is due to leave England for Canada, and Sergt. Billie is anxious to return with it, so that he can be demobilized and go back to his family. The war office, however, says that he must be killed or sent to France.

Sergt. Billie's private opinion of the to jail if he were a conscientious objector. But as he is a goat the war office thinks he can be treated in any manner.

Sergt. Billie's private opinion of the war office is entertaining. It is also unprintable.

PRESIDENT OF THE C. P. R. IS TOURING WEST

Edmonton, June 5.—It is the easiest thing in the world to be a railroad president. All you have to do is to please the public quoted president E. W. Beatty of the C. P. R. in speaking to 250 business men of Edmonton at the board of trade luncheon in the MacDonald Hotel at noon.

President Hensley, of the Board of Trade described Mr. Beatty as the youngest man ever to have filled such a responsible position and president Beatty's youth is what strikes one at the first glance. He is big and boyish in appearance, and his face is strongly cast. In fact president Beatty has a Northcliffe face, the resemblance being striking. At the table with President Hensley were the premier of Alberta, Mr. Beatty and others of the party. Government ownership of railways formed the chief of Mr. Beatty's remarks. Only recently he completed an extensive tour of American railroads.

In an interview prior to the luncheon Mr. Beatty briefly summarized the Winnipeg strike and it's off shots in other western cities. Said he "no movement that has for its purpose the strangling of society and authority can hope to succeed in any law abiding country such as Canada."

"The general public will not stand for it he remarked, "and unless the strikers have public sympathy behind them they cannot get very far."

The Crop Outlook

President Beatty is exceedingly optimistic as to general crop conditions in the west "if the prospects are realized" said he "there is nothing I conceive that will do more for Canada east and west to restore confidence and relieve the present unrest."

"One thing that eastern people should feel ashamed of", continued the President "is that they do not come west often enough nor stay long enough to familiarize themselves with the wonderful heritage Canada has in the west and the problems confronting its people. If more interest were taken in the west it would end the feeling that sometimes arises between east and west."

Cured of Dyspepsia BY USING Burdock Blood Bitters.

The symptoms of dyspepsia are so numerous and diversified in different individuals that probably no description could exactly represent them as they occur in any given case, but a few of the most prominent are a rising and souring of food, pain, flatulence and distention of the abdomen, a sensation of discomfort after every meal, which is sometimes followed by sickness and vomiting.

To get rid of dyspepsia a careful arrangement of the diet is necessary and due time must be given for the digestion of the meal.

You will find that Burdock Blood Bitters will help with this digestion. It does this by toning up the stomach in such a way that dyspepsia soon disappears.

Mr. Robt. Balwin, Winnifred, Alta., writes:—"I cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters for curing dyspepsia, of which I have been a sufferer for years. I have tried a good many doctors and proprietary medicines, so one day I thought I would try something different. I got a bottle of B. B. B. from our local store as it was about the only remedy he kept, and I can certainly say that I was more than pleased with the results as I got better right away. I will always recommend it to other sufferers."

UNIVERSITY AUTHORITIES BAN DANCE

Palo Alto, Cal., June 7.—The "shimmy," the dance that's done without much help from the feet, has reared its scandalous head at Stanford University.

Four sorority girls, who must have learned the shivery swings of the shimmy from a fellow that had visited some place where it was danced, introduced it recently at an athletic carnival in a fraternity house on the campus. After an exhibition of the undulations of the shimmy, the girls volunteered to teach all comers. All comers offered at once to take lessons, and the news reached the ears of the faculty.

Two have been placed on social probation and all the girls have been warned that the shimmy is not a fit dance for public uses.

The women's conference met to weigh the question of the shimmy. It was reported that after an exhibition—both the exhibitors were women—it was decided not to tolerate any dance that could be danced on one square foot of floor space.

Campus organizations have taken up the issue. There are those that defend the shimmy, pointing out that it performs the greatest good for the greatest number by permitting as many persons as can crowd into a ballroom to dance at one time, without bumping each other as they do when moving about.

But it appears that the shimmy has come, has had its day and has been sent by the weight of public opinion at Stanford to its own particular limbo.

BOTH A LITTLE BACKWARD.

A Mr. Peet, a bashful man was unable to prevent himself from being introduced to a fascinating young woman, who, not catching his name, insisted on addressing him as Mr. Peters, much to his distress. Finally summoning up courage, earnestly said,

AFTER EFFECTS OF INFLUENZA

Often as Serious as the Disease Itself—How to Get New Health.

There are few homes in Canada that were not touched by the sorrow that trailed in the wake of the Spanish influenza epidemic. Estimates of the loss of life caused by this epidemic show that it was almost as great as the losses caused by the war, and these take no account of the baneful after-effects which are sometimes as fatal as the disease itself.

Victims of the disease are generally left with impoverished blood and a weakened system. In this condition they are exposed to many dangers unless precautions are taken to enrich the blood and strengthen the nerves. The debility that invariably follows in influenza is not a disease of any organ. It is a general condition of unfitness. It must be met by a remedy whose good results will be quickly felt throughout the entire system. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found invaluable. The mission of this medicine is to enrich the blood, and this new, red blood carries renewed health and strength to every part of the body. The case of Mrs. George Louder, Hamilton, Ont., proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. Mrs. Louder says: "I had a very severe attack of Spanish influenza which left me pale and very weak. My appetite completely failed me and the least noise would startle me and make me cry. I was under a doctor's care and finally he advised me to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I had not been taking them long before I could tell they were helping me. I used altogether nine or ten boxes and am now feeling as well as ever I did in my life. I believe if it had not been for these pills I would have been a chronic invalid."

Such proof as this must be interesting to everyone who suffered from an attack of influenza, and who still feel in any way weakened as the result of the trouble. It points the way to new health and strength and if you are one of the sufferers you should avail yourself of this medicine at once. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"Don't call me Peters, call me Peet."
"Oh, but I don't know you well enough, Mr. Peters," said the young woman, blushing.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

How Everyone Can Help

THE Government has developed a liberal and broad plan to help soldiers settle on farms. It is securing land. It is granting substantial loans. It is obtaining advantageous prices on equipment, implements, building materials and live stock. It is providing agricultural training and farming supervision.

That is as much as the Government itself can do.

But the plan needs more. It needs a community spirit of co-operation.

Already Provincial Governments, Universities, Farmers' Associations, and Veterans' Associations are giving valuable assistance. Many manufacturers and sellers of farm supplies have agreed to allow the soldier settlers special prices. Many successful farmers have willingly worked on Qualification Committees which have to pass on the applicants. Men who have had experience in lending money on farm property are serving on Advisory Loan Committees, judging land values.

But even such practical assistance is not enough. In each community farmers can be of real service to the soldier settler. They can give him advice about local conditions. They can lend him an extra horse or plough, give him a day's help at seeding or harvest time, and extend to him that friendly, neighborly, respectful spirit which he deserves.

In this way Canada is performing a double duty. It is discharging, as far as possible, the debt we owe to our soldiers; and it is adding to the country's chief industry a body of competent, willing producers.

Full information about lands and loans for soldiers will be sent on request to the Provincial Superintendent, Soldier Settlement Board, P. O. Building, St. John, N. B., Main 578.

"The distribution of soldier settlers in settled rural communities will be of material assistance to the less experienced settlers in that they can get advice and assistance from their neighbors."
