VALUABLE NECKLACE LOST IN NEW YORK

(New York Herald)

A new necklace was sent to Mrs. Foster Crampton of Great Neck, L. I., yesterday by the insurance companies to replace one containing ninety-three graduated pearls, valued by the owner at $20,000, which was lost December 17 between the shopping district and East Sixtieth street. It was said last night that no trace had been found of the lost jewels.

Mrs. Crampton who has let her own town house, at No. 52 East Sixty-fourth street, and is stopping at No. 30 East Sixtieth street, yesterday confirmed the report that the advertisements which have appeared in the newspapers recently offering a reward for the return or for information leading to the recovery of a necklace containing ninety-three pearls referred to the jewels she lost, and announced that another had been sent to her by the insurance companies.

During the Red Cross Roll Call drive Mrs. Crampton was a worker in a booth in Tiffany's, at Fifth avenue and Thirty-seventh street. On December 17 she wore the necklace while engaged in the booth in the morning. In the afternoon she went shopping, visiting seven or eight shops. Upon her return to the Sixtieth street address the necklace was missing.

The loss was at once reported, and a diligent search has been in progress for it by the police and detectives ever since. An advertisement offering a reward of $3,500 for the return or information leading to its recovery was inserted in the newspapers by Marcus & Co., Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street.

The pearls in the lost necklace are described as of salmon pinkish color, graduated in size from the centre stone, which weighs 16 48-100 grains. The total weight of the jewels is 263 72-100 grains.

Mrs. Crampton's husband, Major Foster Crampton, a lawyer, with offices at No. 2 Rector Street, is serving with the American Expeditionary Force in Europe. It was said last night that he is expected home soon.

After the Bolshevik movement has subsided there ought to be a great market in Europe for safety razors.

Sat Up in Bed To Get Her Breath

Palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, inability to lie on the left side, feelings as if smothering, oppressed feeling in the chest, dizzy and faint spells, tired, weak, worn out feeling, involuntary twitching of the muscles, sleeplessness, restless, etc., all point to the fact that either the heart or nerves, or both, are not what they should be. Any of these conditions should be remedied immediately so as to avoid a complete breakdown of the whole system.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will bring energy to the weakened constitution, strengthen and regulate the heart, and tone up the tired, overstrained nerves.

Mrs. William Steeves, Chemical Road, N. B., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles and palpitation of the heart, which was so bad I had to sit straight up in bed to get my breath. I could not lie on my left side at all. I tried doctor after doctor, also several different remedies but got no help from them. My mother insisted on me trying Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. By the time I had used one box, I was feeling very much better. I took in all three boxes, and now I am in perfect health and can enjoy a good sound sleep, and can lie on my left side without any trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MILITARY CUT BANNED FROM MEN'S ATTIRE

Atlantic City, N. J.—The prevalent note in new fashions for well-attired men will be a sharp reversion from anything suggestive of military tendency, according to the advance delegates to the National Association of Merchant Tailors of America, which meets here Jan. 28.

"Men returning from the service are uncompromisingly opposed to anything that reminds them of the time they spent on the march or in the trenches," Robert Stewart, Jr. of Philadelphia, chairman of the convention declared. There is a wonderful demand for "evening clothes" now that is bringing a harvest into the pockets of the tailors and making up for the lean days of the war, arriving delegates say.

HUNS WANTED HOT MEALS AND GOT THEM

London, Jan. 19.—A story of propaganda that proved a boomerang has reached London from France. In the closing stages of the war, when the Germans were surrendering in large numbers, a British intelligence officer was greeted by a group of prisoners with cries of "Hot meal! hot meal!"

The officer showed surprise, but the Germans continued to shout "Hot meal!" and rub their stomachs.

"Nothing doing in hot meals," the officer replied.

Thereupon the Germans pulled out leaflets carefully hidden away in their clothes, and cried "Ticket for hot meal—ticket."

The leaflets, apparently distributed from the air, informed Fritz that if he came in and surrendered he would get a hot meal.

In brief military language the British officer told the Germans that he knew nothing of the origin of the leaflets and that there must be a mistake, but the Germans came back with: "Englishmen always keep their word. Hot meal; coupon for hot meal."

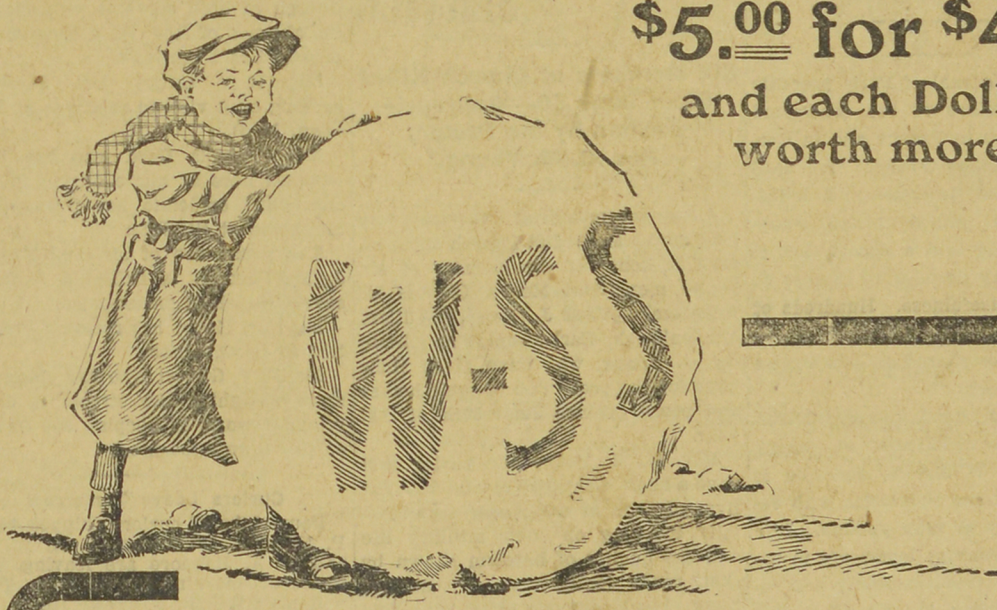

According to the story, nothing remained for that British division but to set to work at once and prepare hot food for the hungry prisoners that were streaming in, thereby considerably slowing up the advance at that point of the line.

MUST RETAIN THE MASTERY OF THE SEAS

London, Jan. 18.—That mastery of the seas must continue in British hands is asserted by Viscount Jellicoe in his new book, shortly to be published. The Viscount points out that from the sailors' point of view Great Britain should preserve her ancient and historic rights, thus benefiting the whole world.

$5.00 for $4.00

and each Dollar worth more

GROWING! GROWING! GROWING!

What is $4.00 today? It is a question of purchasing power. What will $4.00 buy at present prices? Just over one third of a barrel of flour. Before the war flour was selling at $5.00 a barrel.

No one can say just how much more the purchasing power of the dollar will be in 1924, but you can see that the four dollars you put into War-Savings Stamps now, will grow, not only in number, but in value.

Your investment in War-Savings Stamps is like the snowball rolling down a slope. You give it a start and it grows by itself!

Your four dollars becomes five, and every dollar will be worth more.

Whether you buy one W-S.S. each day, or each week, or each month, or only two or three in a year, your money is growing, growing, GROWING all the time.

Those who cannot invest $4.00 at a time, can buy Thrift Stamps at 25 cents each. Sixteen of these on a Thrift Card will be accepted as $4.00 in exchange for a W-S.S.

W-S.S. are sold wherever you see this sign.

Thrift Stamps are sold at above places, and by patriotic storekeepers.
