BAD BREATH? DON'T BE OFFENSIVE
REMOVES THE CAUSE

Follow This Advice and Your Breath Will Soon be Sweet and Pure.

The bad part of Bad Breath is the fact that nearly every case shows considerable trouble from indigestion, belching gas, bloating, piles or some form of stomach misery. Oftener than not a pimply face, a sluggish constipation condition is the true cause of many a man's failure in life.

By aiding digestion and building up the weak muscles of the stomach and bowels, DR. HAMILTON'S PILLS completely overcome constipation and all forms of stomach illness.

"I was terribly run down with stomach trouble that arose through neglected constipation," writes Mrs. P. D.
Quigley, from Washburn, P. O. I simply couldn't half digest my food. I had dreadful headaches, piles and yellow muddy skin. The effect of DR. HAMIL-TON'S PILLS was phenomenal. I have gained in weight, have a clear skin, no more headaches, I eat well, sleep well and enjoy my meals.

There is no need to be in failing health when cure is so sure, so easy, by taking Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, 25c per box, at all dealers. REFUSE A SUBSTITUTE

DISCUSSING THE MATTER

OPPOSITION LEADER IS POSSESSED OF READY WIT

A Breezy Speech in Parliament by Mr. D. D. Mackenzie, M. P.
—Is Perfectly at Home in the Use of Holy Writ— Made an Effective Reply to Dr. Michael Clark, M. P.—An Expression of Opinion on the Question of Titles.

Mr. D. D. Mackenzie, Liberal leader, is not only an excellent speaker, but he is possessed of a ready wit as well and is perfectly at home in Holy Writ, his gifts in these regards being well displayed in the speech in the House of Commons on titles on April 14th, in reply to Dr. Clark and others. On that occasion, among other things he said:

Last session when this question of titles was gone into very fully I was only able to be present and hear the concluding part of the discussion. For that reason I have been very much pleased to hear the present lengthy and interesting debate. I listened, as usual, with a great deal of pleasure and profit to the address of my hon. friend from Red Deer (Mr. Clark). He is happy in mostly any realm, but he was particularly happy tonight when he launched into the realm of theology —although he went rather far afield for evidence in support of the amendment. The days of Peter are quite remote and Jude lived about the same time, at all events their letters are in close juxtaposition. However, I am sure that there is nothing stronger in the mind of the hon. member for Red Deer than a sense of proportion and application—he always brings us severely to task if we are not absolutely logical in everything that we say—and I must tell him that the reasonings in the sphere of theology do not always fit in properly in the sphere of legislation and statesmanship.

When he quotes Peter and Jude as having said certain things, he must not forget that those men were evangelists, preaching the gospel of the Nazarene, which was entirely theological and moral and had nothing to do with the legislative or political sphere.

Therefore, I think my hon. friend will see that those quotations are not as apt as everything he quotes usually is.

He must not forget that in those days the real dignitaries were the Scribes and Pharisees. But perhaps his recent acquaintance with such people constrained him to make those quotations. Another quotation from a higher source than even Peter or Jude might have come to his mind. He will remember that the Master himself said of those very dignitaries whom the hon. member for Red Deer defends today: "Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites."

I should think my honorable friend would rather be excused from defending such dignitaries. But as my good friend invited me into the field of Holy Writ I will take him a little further back to an authority that he will not despise. I am sure that no one in this House is more familiar with the writings and history of that great legislator, Moses, than my good friend from Red Deer. When we come to talk of Moses we are in the realm of law making and politics and anything that he said on questions of this kind is more to the point.

Now we find that Moses refused a title. We have it on the very highest of authority that Moses when he became of age refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He preferred to suffer privation with the people of God rather than enjoy the pleasure of sin for a season. That is authority to the point from one of the best men that ever lived, the man selected to take the people of God out of the darkness of Egypt. He refused a title and that being the case, I have the very best reason for saying that no matter how excellent men may be, who have not accepted titles, there are men equally as good who have refused them.

My good friend from Brantford (Mr.
Cockshutt) was bordering on the realm of theology, but he did not go very far. There is something in the Scripture about people beating their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; I would expect the member for Brantford to be somewhat familiar with that quotation. The hon. gentleman said that the member for Brome (Mr. McMaster) would find the way weary and long to the Emmaus of the political heaven. Let me express the hope that the member for Brome will not be alone on that weary road; that others will be trudging along with him towards the sunset, saying: "It is toward evening and the day is far spent." So much for the delectable course into which the member for Red Deer (Mr. Michael Clark) assisted by the member for Brantford (Mr. Cockshutt) has led us.

I listened with a great deal of attention to the remarks of the hon. member for Kingston (Mr. Nickle) whose addresses are always logical and clean cut, and whose argument in support of any proposal that he makes is always satisfactory.

We heard his arguments last spring, we have heard him address the House several times on this question. About a year ago the House was quite ready to pass judgment on the question of titles, and but for the intervention of the Prime Minister on that occasion it would have done so. There was no dissenting voice at that time on the ground that there was not sufficient information. Now, a year afterwards, the acting Prime Minister says that we are not sufficiently enlightened on this question.

For the last fifty years—all our lives —no matter how old or how young we are—we have heard about this thing. What information is to be gathered by this very excellent committee that is to be formed. What are they going to tell us? Where are they going to get their information? The member for Kingston, in dealing with this matter, did not go back quite as far as the member for Red Deer did, but he went quite a distance back. He was present at the battle of Hastings, he came into the country with William the Conqueror, divided up the land with him and did considerable surveying, so that he was able to come to us with a great deal of information, covering a period from the earliest times down to the present day.

The Acadian Scot had the better of the argument.

tary and naval geniuses. They are not explaining defeats; they're explaining how they really won the war.

What time does the St. John train arrive in the morning? Questions like that can be put in the arithmetics now instead of the old fashioned problems about brick walls and acres of land.

APPENDICITIS PREVENTED

Doctors says if people kept their bowels in proper order there would be no such disease on record as appendicitis. It is due solely to neglect, and is therefore preventable.

If you have constipation, bad breath or headache you need medicine right away.

The moment you suspect you bowels are clogged you should take Dr.
Hamilton's Pills, the smoothest regulator of them all. They move the bowels and cleanse the liver so smoothly you scarcely notice the effect. But you can get the action just the same. Taken at night you wake up next morning clear-headed, hungry, rested, energetic feeling like a different man.

Why don't you spend a quarter today and try Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They work so easy, just as nature would order, never gripe or cause headache.
Finest thing for folks that are out of sorts, depressed, lacking in color and spirits.

Folks that use Dr. Hamilton's Pills are never sick, never an ache or a pain—feel good all the time simply because their system is clean, regulated and healthy. This you can easily prove yourself.

RANDOM REMINDERS.

To remove iron rust from linen, apply lemon juice and salt and put the linen in the sun. Use two applications if rust is very bad.

Blankets should be washed and hung out on a windy day. Use a little borax and ammonia in the water in which they are washed and they will be soft piece of white cloth before washing.

They shouldn't be starched.

You can readily remove stains from the zinc top kitchen table if you rub them with a cloth dipped in vinegar.

If stockings and socks are soaked in warm water for two hours before they are worn they will last twice as long.

Stains on mahogany may be removed by rubbing them with a cork dipped into a little oxalic acid and water.
When the stains have disappeared, wash the wood thoroughly with pure water, then dry and polish as usual.

To clean the nickel on stoves and ranges take a woollen cloth, wipe the soot from the bottom of the teakettle and with this rub the nickel. If there is grease or other dirt, first remove this with a damp cloth rubbed well with soap.
