Let's not jump to any rash conclusions because some of the German people seem to want the old Kaiser back home. They may desire to throw decayed vegetables at him.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

WITH PINEAPPLES

Pineapple Muffins.

To two well beaten eggs add gradually one teacup of sweet milk and one-third cup of melted butter. Thicken this with one sifted quart of flour in which has been mixed three teaspoons of baking powder, and a teaspoon of salt. When thoroughly beaten, add one cup of grated pineapple and bake until quite done (which will be about half an hour) in hot greased muffin rings. Fill the muffin rings a little more than half full.

Pineapple Pudding.

Put stale sponge cake in a pint mold or bowl, pouring over it as much thick pineapple juice as will moisten the cake; set in a cool place until serving time, then invert on to a dish and tap the bowl hard enough to allow the cake to slip out unbroken. Arrange grated pineapple around it.

Fruit Cocktail.

To one grapefruit cut in small pieces add one-half cup of diced orange, one-half cup of banana and one-third of a cup of pineapple diced. Add half a cup of sugar and two tablespoons of currant jelly. Serve in glass cups very cold.

Peach Salad.

Drain canned peaches and in each half place a spoonful of mayonnaise dressing. Serve on crisp white lettuce leaves.

Cucumber Salad.

Slice young cucumbers and spring onions very thin and sprinkle with a mixture of half a teaspoonful of salt, 1 teaspoonful sugar; allow to stand for two hours. Before serving dress with a mixture of one tablespoonful of tomato catsup, one teaspoonful prepared mustard, one tablespoonful of olive oil, and three tablespoonfuls of cream. Mix well and serve over onion and cucumber served with lettuce hearts.

A FRENCH DISH

Here is a delicious and inexpensive meat dish, the invention of our thrifty and versatile friends, the French.

Buy a couple of veal cutlets and have them diced. Brown them in butter and then add two cupfuls of the water in which you have boiled one head of cauliflower. Add six small onions and let the meat simmer very gently until done. Now fill the baking dish with the meat and onions, add the cauliflower, broken into its little branches, a small can of button mushrooms and a sprig of very crisp, white celery, shredded. Season with salt and paprika, cover with a good biscuit dough and bake half an hour. To accompany such a dinner nothing is required but a soup, a salad and fruit and coffee.

DECIDED TOO SOON.

"Was papa the first man who ever proposed to you, mamma?"
"Yes, but why do you ask?"
"I was just thinking that you might have done better if you had shopped around a little more."

NEVER! NEVER!

The shoe clerk madly tore his hair.
Said he: "Alike are women all;
No man can tell the size they wear
By the size for which they call."

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S PEACE MESSAGE

London, July 1.—The Daily Express has received the following peace message from Sir Robert Borden: "The treaty at Versailles marks the beginning of a new epoch in the history of the world. In that new era now dawning, the destiny of the world will in no small measure depend on the courage, steadfastness and foresight of the English-speaking peoples, but above all on their unity of purpose and action. In this let them not fail in remembering the trust they hold for future generations."

SENSATION IN THE QUEBEC POLICE COURT

Quebec, July 1.—Sensations were added to sensations today in the police court here at the trial of Jules Latouche, charged with dealing in exemption cards. Three witnesses, Jos. Chalicour, A. Chalicour and N. Bedard testified today that Latouche had told them that the money paid in for exemptions was to be divided among the three examining doctors, the registrar, the chief of the Dominion Police and the chief of spotters.

WE'LL SAY SO.

The boy just back from France is a mighty different chap from the lad who went over. A doughboy who before the war had been a hotel clerk, on his return applied in New York for a place.

"What references?" demanded the manager.

"Been over in France a year and before that—"

"Never mind before that," said the manager. "If you've been in France a year you know all about domestic work. I'll make you head chambermaid."

With another it was a little different. He, too, had learned a lot.

"Do you think you could ever learn to love me?" he asked the girl of his choice, and she answered:

"I don't know. Anyhow, you might continue your course of instruction. Gee, it's so different."

Those who have "been there" will no doubt remember that the only thing you don't see at the circus is what is shown on the billboards.
