SOME GOOD ADVICE.

Commenting on the recent convention of the Great War Veterans' Association at Vancouver, B. C., the Toronto Saturday Night has this to say:

"The Great War Veterans' organization, as a whole, would be well advised if it purge itself of certain elements that have obtained admission to its ranks. For instance, in Vancouver recently a series of resolutions were placed before the Association, one of which was to the effect that 'the Government be asked to introduce as soon as possible legislation which would make all war bonds in excess of $5,000 held by any one individual a part of the taxable income, and that if the the government consider the foregoing inadequate to meet the needs of the case, the G. W. V. A. should pledge itself to more drastic measures, even to the confiscation of wealth.'

"That is dangerous talk, and should not be indulged in by Canadians, and more particularly by men who fought for the cause. Do these young men consider that the word of honor of a government, or its contracts, are of no value? If such talk was taken seriously, what chance would Sir Thomas White have had of borrowing seventy-five million dollars in the United States, as was done recently. Let our government repudiate its contract in respect to war bonds or any other security, and the Finance Minister could not have borrowed seventy-five cents in the United States or in any other country, not to speak of many millions. Would the Great War Veterans as a body trust twice the man who had broken his word once? Not likely. Such resolutions lean to plain Bolshevism, no more and no less, and the Association of the Great War Veterans is not the place for that."

AGRICULTURAL EXPORTS.

The total value of Canadian exports of agricultural produce was $567,714, in 1918, as compared with $373,414,000 in 1917, an increase of $194,300,000, or 52 per cent in the year. Of the net difference there was an increase of $230,710,000, or 63½ per cent caused by higher prices and a decrease of $36,410,000, or 9½ per cent caused by smaller quantities. If the prices of 1918 had remained the same as in 1917 the value of the agricultural exports of 1918 would have been only $337,004,000.

Choosing some of the principal items in the list of agricultural exports, wheat showed an increase in value of $172,532,000, due to higher prices, but a decrease of $50,585,000 due to smaller quantities. Oats likewise showed an increase of $9,598,000 due to higher prices and a decrease of $5,872,000 due to smaller quantities. The value of exports of flaxseed was increased by $6,489,000 from higher prices and by $2,539,000 from larger quantities.

The exports of animals and their produce was $172,743,000 in 1918, as compared with $127,795,000, an increase of $44,948,000 or over 35 per cent. Of the total increase, $37,950,000 or over 28 per cent, represented increased prices and $6,998,000, or 5½ per cent, increased quantities.

Of individual items, cheese was exported in 1918 to the value of $36,602,000, as compared with $36,721,000 in 1917, a net decrease of $119,000, caused by an increase due to higher prices of $2,156,000 and a decrease due to smaller quantities of $2,275,000. The exports of bacon increased in value from $43,011,000 in 1917 to $57,995,000, the difference of $14,984,000 being due to an increase in price of $16,489,000, less $1,505,000 due to a smaller quantity.

Mr. Lloyd Harris, head of the Canadian Trade Mission in London, has warned Canadian industrial and financial interests that further development of export trade with France, Greece, Roumania, Belgium, Italy and Serbia, depends upon their own initiative and ability. He has stated that government credits cannot be extended indefinitely and that interests concerned with foreign trade should create their own financial and industrial machinery. Numerous Canadian industrial groups have already been formed, but no solution of the financial problem has yet been offered. In the United States much the same situation prevails. In Canada there is immediate need for the establishment of adequate foreign trade machinery, and an American proposal for a central financial and industrial organization merits attention.

A new political party has been formed in Cuba with "non-interference of other nations in Cuba's affairs" as its principal platform. The sponsors for the party are prominent men of the Liberal and Conservative ranks who have always been outspoken in their opposition to the Platt amendment, and have endeavored unsuccessfully to persuade their respective parties that they should not permit Americans to interfere in any way with Cuba's internal matters.

After a year in the "dry" column through a local option vote, the City of Hull, Quebec, has voted to come under the beer and wine regulations of the Province of Quebec. The voting, which began on Monday and ended Thursday, resulted in 816 for and 103 against beer and wines.

EVERY WAGE EARNER SHOULD ANSWER QUESTION HIMSELF OR HERSELF

WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD FOR YOU IF HEALTH GIVES WAY?

In dollars and cents, what is the worth of the brawn of your arm; what is the value of the staying power that permits continuous labor—what are they worth to you?

Suppose you did something so foolish as to reduce your strength, vitality or judgment one half, and it were impossible to get them back—how much would you pay to regain the lost portion?

When you let yourself run down, you reduce your chances for success in life—if sleeplessness comes you score lower still—should appetite or digestion fail, you are stared in the face by physical bankruptcy.

Don't let it go so far, take Ferrozone, it has cured thousands and it will cure you; it builds up bodily strength, makes muscles like steel, replaces Spring tiredness by energy and new life. Ferrozone rebuilds sick folks because it contains the strengthening elements that every run-down system requires.

Especially before the hot weather comes, everyone needs a purifying tonic—Ferrozone fills the bill exactly—nothing known that juvenates and uplifts so fast.

At once the appetite improves. You rest well and arise next morning feeling fit and fine.

Headaches disappear, weakness gives way to the vigor that only Ferrozone can supply. Try it, results are guaranteed, 50c. per box or six for $2.50 at all dealers or by mail to any address if price is remitted to the Catarthozone Co., Kingston, Ontario.
