MOVEMENTS
OF THE STARS
IN FILMLAND

Ethel Clayton wears twenty gowns in the picture on which she is now working, "The Thirteenth Commandment."

Violet Hemming's work in the role of "Everywoman," soon to be released by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, was so pleasing to that organization that it has signed a long term contract with her. She will first be featured and later starred in Arctcraft pictures.

According to telegraphic despatches Vitagraph has agreed to pay Larry Semon, screen comedian, $3,600,000 for his pictures of the ensuing three years, whereby this actor runs Charlie Chaplin a close salary race. Semon's contract calls for twelve two reel comedies each year and provides him with unlimited funds to produce them.

George Randolph Chester, production editor of Vitagraph, will adapt his Wallingford stories to the screen for that organization. J. Rufus will be the subject of one of the series of twelve superfeatures by an equal number of America's foremost writers of fiction which Vitagraph will present during the coming year.

Victor Schertzinger will be pleased if you'll send him to Culver City one nice elephant. He promises to return it in as good condition as received. If the elephant has anything approaching human emotions it will have its vanity flattered, for it will be immortalized in a motion picture "The Blooming Angel." It is a picture starring Madge Kennedy and if any elephant turns down a chance to appear in a picture with that winsome little lady—well, we know that elephant will come to no good end.

A trick cow, one that does all the stunts of a well trained dog or horse, with a few added accomplishments, such as crossing her forelegs and giving an almost perfect interpretation of the shimmy, is the latest addition to the many wonders of Southern California. Douglas Fairbanks is the proud owner of the cow, and the manner in which the animal performs is attributed to the untiring efforts of Doug, who has devoted nearly five months of his time to developing the pasture freak. This is all the result of a wager between the star and his brother John, who claimed about a year ago that he had never seen or even heard of a cow capable of doing tricks.

Myrtle Rose is a girl who has shimmied her way into pictures. It happened the other day at the Goldwyn studio. A large number of extras were working in a scene in Tom Moore's newest picture, "Toby's Bow." It was a fancy dress ball of Bohemia, and Director Beaumont had searched in vain for someone to do the "shimmy" in a close-up. Then his eye happened to stray over to a corner where a girl not on at the moment was dancing. He let out a yell. He had found just what he wanted. He didn't know her name, so he had to call, "you with the yellow hair and fringed scarf, come here." She came, and in the picture will be seen in an interesting demonstration of the proper manner of doing the latest dance.

CATARRH

The Pure Balsamic Essences of Catarrh Afford Surest and Quickest Cure.

Catarrh is certain to cure because its healing vapor is carried with the breath direct to the seat of the chest, nose or throat trouble. Being composed of the purest balsams and pine essences, it immediately allays irritations, facilitates the ejection of mucus, soothes and stimulates the lungs and bronchial tubes. The marvel of the age in curing nose, throat and bronchial troubles, that's what thousands say about Catarrh. There is nothing so sure to cure, and to those in fear of changeable weather—those who easily catch cold—those who work among lung-chilling surroundings or where dust, impure air, fog or damp can affect them—let them get Catarrh and use it several times daily—it will cure every time.

Large size Catarrh, sufficient for two months' use, guaranteed, price $1.00; smaller size, 50c; sample size, 25c. Sold everywhere.
