BRITISH TROOPS ARE SOON TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CAUCASUS

Under Secretary for War Says It Will Be Impossible for Them to Remain There Unless Assurance is Given That They Will Be Relieved by Americans—Turkey Must Be Policed by Foreign Troops Before Partition is Made.

Paris, Aug. 27.—British troops began leaving the Caucasus region on August 15, and will all be out of districts where they have been protecting Armenians before September 15, Davis Arnold, of Providence, R. I., managing director of the American Committee for Relief in the Near East, said today upon his return to Paris from London. While at the British capital he interviewed Viscount Peel, under-Secretary of war, who told him it was impossible for the British to retain troops in Armenia unless the United States should give assurances she would send troops to relieve them within two or three months.

Mr. Arnold, who left Constantinople three weeks ago, says it is imperative that Turkey, both European and Asiatic, should be policed by foreign troops before any actual partition of the country takes place. He says if this is not done there will be wholesale massacres.

THINKS THE UNITED STATES SHOULD ACCEPT

MANDATE OF TURKEY FOR HUMANE REASONS

"For humane reasons," Mr. Arnold said, "the United States should accept the mandate for all Turkey. I believe 100,000 Americans could police both European and Asiatic Turkey and keep the country in order for two years, or until local conditions are stabilized. From four hundred thousand to 500,000 Armenians now in Russian Armenia will undoubtedly starve or be killed if the British leave without other foreigners entering to act as a police force, as Armenia is being oppressed equally by the Georgians, Turks, Tartars and Kurds. These people hem in the Armenians on all sides, persecute them and will not permit food to reach them. The forty thousand children now being fed by Americans must inevitably starve if no foreign police force is provided. Even with British protection, the relief workers lost thirty per cent of their foodstuffs in transportation. There are probably another half million Armenian fugitives in southern Russian, who want to return home but cannot do so."

PAPER TRIBUNAL DECLINES

JUDGEMENT IN NEWSPRINT CASE

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Commenting on the judgment of the paper control last night, paper controller Pringle said that while the judgment gave a reduction of three dollars per ton for a period of five months, it would mean going into the whole thing again at some future date as the judges have not dealt with the period prior to the fixing of the price at $69 per ton.

"The judges did not take into consideration the period of eleven months when the price was fixed at $50 per ton, and the five months at $57 per ton," said Mr. Pringle. "They felt that if they went back to that price period it would disturb everything that had been done."

Mr. Pringle said the hearings would have to be resumed to settle the question of this prior period, but he could not give any estimate of the likely date of reopening.

PRINCE WANTED TO SHAKE HANDS WITH REAL HEROES OF THE WAR

Toronto, Aug. 28.—The Globe this morning publishes the following:

"I want to meet the people who did the hard, dirty work in the war," said the Prince of Wales yesterday. Officialdom perhaps would like to have kept the Prince in some secluded spot "far from the madding crowd," and the rude gaze of the proletariat. But that was not Edward's idea of duty and service, and as he is a very determined young man, he had his way.

"I want to shake hands with the people in rags and tatters and the brave men and women whose self-sacrifice saved the British Empire. Let them crowd in. Tell the police not to keep them back. I want to shake hands with them all."

That was the expressed desire of Britain's future ruler, and so he spent most of his last day in Toronto with the plain folk—"the folk who did the dirty toil in the war."

NO REDUCTION IN GREAT BRITAIN'S NAVAL EXPENDITURE IS POSSIBLE

Thousands of People at the Railway Station When the Royal Train Arrived—The City in Holiday Attire for the Occasion—Members of the Cabinet Were Presented to His Highness by Sir Robert Borden.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—The Dominion Capital gave a warm welcome to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, today. Weather conditions were cool and cloudy, but no rain fell and when the royal train pulled into the station at 11.15 the sun broke through the clouds and shone brightly. The citizens had turned out in thousands in holiday attire and for hours awaited patiently the coming of the Prince. Bands played and local airmen flew overhead, while in Connaught Square, before the Central Station, a veritable sea of humanity was massed between the flag-draped buildings.

The decorations, while not profuse, were plentiful. More particularly on Parliament Hill and along Wellington street, where the Department of Public Works had done its best to enhance the beauty of the setting of the scene. Parliament Square was completely surrounded by bunting draped from artistic uprights, while the east and west blocks and the new Parliament Buildings were overhung with flags. Dense crowds filled every inch of space available on the Parliament Buildings.

MANIFESTATIONS OF GENUINE ENTHUSIASM

FROM THE MOMENT THE YOUNG PRINCE ALIGHTED

From the moment the Prince alighted from the royal train there were manifestations of genuine enthusiasm, and a great outburst of cheering greeted him when he emerged from the station and stepped into the Governor General's state carriage, which, surrounded by outriders, carried the royal Prince to Parliament Hill.

Those present included Sir Arthur Currie, Sir George Perley, Sir George Foster, Hon. N. W. Rowell, Hon. A. L. Sifton, Sir Henry Drayton, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. J. D. Reid, Hon. Martin Burrell and others.

ARTHUR CURRIE AN OLD COMRADE IN ARMS

The Prince had a kindly smile for everybody, but it was noticeable that he greeted with special warmth Sir Arthur Currie and Sir George Perley, with both of whom he has been associated overseas. His Royal Highness chatted for a few minutes with Sir Robert Borden before the party left the platform of the station. As the Prince passed through the gates the band of the Governor General's Foot Guards struck up the national anthem, which was followed by "God Save the Prince of Wales" and the guard of honor stood at attention.

After inspecting the guard, His Royal Highness proceeded through the station to the main entrance, where he received his first warm greetings from the thousands awaiting his arrival.

Addresses were presented to His Royal Highness on behalf of the Government of Canada and City of Ottawa.
