

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

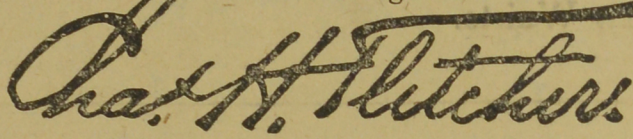

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. THE TOMATO SEASON

Several Ways of Preparing Ripe Tomatoes for Immediate Table Use.

Broiled Tomatoes.

For this dish choose tomatoes which are not dead ripe. Cut them unpeeled in rather thick slices. Dust with pepper, salt and powdered sugar, roll in hot melted butter, then in finely sifted bread crumbs and brown in a wire broiler over a clear fire. This dish has a delicious flavor if instead of rolling in butter the slices of tomato are dipped in rich oil mayonnaise.

With Force-meat Layers.

Peel fine ripe tomatoes and cut them into half-inch slices. Prepare a force-meat mixture made from two cups of stale bread crumbs, one tablespoon of melted butter, one tablespoon of sugar, a liberal dust of paprika, one teaspoon of salt and one teaspoon of chopped onion. Butter a baking dish, put in the bottom a layer of tomato slices, then a layer of force-meat. Continue till the dish is filled. Let the top layer be slices of tomato. Sprinkle them with salt, pepper and powdered sugar, then cover with buttered crumbs. Bake three-quarters of an hour. For the first twenty minutes keep them covered, then allow the top to brown.

With Shrimp Filling.

Scoop the pulp from eight large tomatoes and turn each one upside down on a sieve that all the liquor may drain from them. Prepare a stuffing, brown two slices of onion in two tablespoons of butter, lift out the onion when cooked and add the tomato pulp. Cook till quite thick, add one cup of stale bread crumbs, mix thoroughly, lift from the stove and stir into it a quarter of a cup of cream, one and a half cups of shrimps cut into inch pieces and a seasoning of salt and paprika. Fill the tomato shells with this stuffing, covered with buttered crumbs, and bake in a hot oven till brown. Serve on hot buttered toast.

Tomato Farcies.

Scoop out the tomato pulp, leaving the shells and fill with a stuffing made from half a cup of sausage meat, four tablespoons of stale bread crumbs, one teaspoon minced parsley, a shred of garlic, one teaspoon of tarragon vinegar and one teaspoon of finely minced onion. Set the tomatoes in a baking dish, cover with buttered bread crumbs and bake till chestnut brown. Just before sending to table squeeze over them the juice of one lemon.

Scalloped Tomatoes.

Scald and peel half a dozen tomatoes; set them in a buttered baking dish, sprinkle with pepper, salt and a dust of powdered sugar. Cover with buttered dry crumbs and bake till brown.

Tomatoes in the Chafing Dish.

This dish may be made delicious in the blazer of a chafing-dish or in a spider if desired. Cut large tomatoes in slices—do not peel them—dust them with salt, pepper, paprika and powdered sugar; then roll in sifted cracker crumbs. Put two tablespoons of butter in the blazer, and cook the tomatoes till browned. Serve on hot plates with fingers of buttered toast.

HER OFFICIAL POSITION.

"If I had a wife she would be my treasure," sighed the old bachelor. "Well, that's better than having a wife who is your treasurer," sighed the married man.

NO TIME.

"Practice what you preach," quoted the Wise Guy. "Some of us are so busy preaching that we have no time to practice," replied the Simple Mug.

AN EXTREMIST.

Tommy—Pop, what is an extremist? Tommy's Pop—An extremist, my son, is a person who either extends the glad hand or points the finger of scorn.

GRAY HAIRD PROVERB.

The Chinese have a book of 10,000 proverbs, and they're all as wise and true as the one which says: "It's safer to pull a tiger's tail than to call a lady's attention to her first gray hair."
