BRIEF BUT USEFUL RECIPES.

Restore Gilt Frames.—Rub with a sponge moistened with turpentine.
Drive Away Ants.—A little quick
lime placed in the infested places.
Remove Tar from Cloth.—Rub it
well with turpentine till every trace is removed.
Make Leather Waterproof.—Satur-
ate it with castor oil; to stop shoes squaking, drive a peg into the middle of the sole.
Clean the Hair.—Wash well with a mixture of soft water, 1 pint; sal soda
1 ounce; cream tartar ¼ ounce.
Egg Stains on Spoons.—Rub with common salt.
Clean Gloves.—Pour a little benzine into a basin and wash the gloves
in it, rubbing and squeezing them until clean. If much soiled, they must be washed again through clean benzine and rinsed in a fresh supply.
Hang in the air to dry.
Clean Hair Brushes.—Dissolve a little soda in warm water and pour in a small amount of ammonia. Hold the brushes with the bristles downward and avoid wetting the back as far as possible; shake until the grease is removed; then rinse in cold water and put in the air to dry.
Remove Mildew from Cloth.—Put a teaspoonful of chloride of lime into a quart of water, strain it twice, then dip the mildewed places in this weak solution and lay in the sun. If not effective the first time repeat.
How to Remove a Rusty Screw.— Apply a red hot iron to the head for applied immediately while the screw is hot.
Cure Mosquito Bites.—Put ten drops
of refined carbolic acid into an ounce of rose water; shake well and apply.
(If you hold your breath while a mosquito has its bill in you it cannot withdraw it until you breathe again).

JOHN D. AT 80, WITH AN EYE ON 100, IN MAINE FOR THE FIRST TIME

Aged Financier Pays an Initial Visit to Summer Home at Seal
children at Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 8.—John D. Rockefeller is 80, and admits he expects to live to be 100. He started for the summer home of his son at Seal Harbor, Me., today for the first time in his life, never having gone to Maine before. Mr. Rockefeller said when he reached the age of 100 he would "just then begin to live."

Yesterday he celebrated his birthday; in the morning he played his usual game of golf. Then he bathed and dressed for a reception. He was the picture of health and happiness. At the dinner there was a real birthday cake with 80 candles and each of the oil king's grandchildren had an opportunity to blow some of them out. At 9 o'clock the party ended, for the start for Seal Harbor was early this morning.

John D. Rockefeller was born in Tioga county, N. Y. His father was a farmer. When the future billionaire was ten years old the family removed to the valley of the Susquehanna, near Oswego. At the age of 15 John D. accompanied his parents to Cleveland, Ohio, which city he has ever since regarded as his home. Soon after going to Cleveland he left school and took a short course in a commercial college.

In 1855 he found his first employment as an office boy with a firm of produce commission merchants. Inside of a year he engaged in the produce commission business on his own account with $1,000 capital borrowed from his father at 10 per cent. interest.

In 1861 he first became interested in the petroleum industry and in 1866 the old refining firm of William Rockefeller & Co. was established, consisting of William Rockefeller, John D. Rockefeller and Samuel Andrews. In 1869 the firm was merged into the Standard Oil Company of Ohio, with $1,000,000 capital.

In 1911 Mr. Rockefeller retired from the active direction of the colossal industrial enterprises which his genius and energy had established. His income yearly is estimated at $60,000,000. He is frugal almost to penuriousness in his personal expenditures and his houses are unostentatious. His habits are truly simple. He lives like any well-to-do middle class man.

As a youth he became identified with the Baptist church and has always been a most active and generous supporter of the denomination. The total gifts of Mr. Rockefeller to colleges, schools, churches, missions and other charitable causes now amount to $200,000,000 or more. He claims that the greatest happiness that has come to him has been identifying himself with Christianity.

STANLEY SOCIAL SERVICE COUNCIL
SHOWS ACTIVITY

Community Hall to be Used for Amusements—Resolution
on Death of Howard
T. Douglass.

Stanley, July 10—The executive of the Social Service Council of Stanley met in Community Hall Tuesday evening July 8th. The meeting convened for the purpose of electing a president to fill the vacancy caused by the lamented death of H. T. Douglass. The following resolution was presented and passed by the council:

Resolved That we the members of the Executive of the Social Service Council of Stanley and vicinity try to give expression to the sense of the great loss the association has sustained in the passing away of Howard T. Douglass the President of this Association; a loss as well to the religious, social and commercial life of this place. We desire to place on record the high esteem and regard for his life and character which is held by all. We also hereby assure Mrs. Douglass of a heart-felt sympathy for her in her great sorrow and pray that the Divine support and consolation may be abundantly hers. On behalf of executive, Gertrude Reid, Secretary.

Amusements Organized

Should the suggestion presented at the meeting be successfully carried into effect, the results will certainly prove the benefit of the council to the community. Mr. George Dunham manifested his interest in the young folks and in well chosen remarks advanced the plea for suitable amusements. This created an animated discussion in which nearly every member indulged giving expression of hearty sympathy and cooperation. Miss Bel-yea of Cross Creek who has recently returned from the United States rendered some valuable assistance having been connected with this work. It was decided that on Wednesday evening 16th the first of a series of "Sing Songs" and free-for-all amusements would be held in the "Community Hall" Any and all who have a smile or wish to smile will be accorded a most hearty welcome. Rev. Mr. Robinson the president explained that it was not the purpose or desire of the Council to prohibit amusements but to provide and encourage the same.

PORK, SAY THE CANNIBALS

MEN TASTE LIKE filmYe . . . . .

Portland, July 4—Carried by cannibals for thousands of miles is only one of the experiences of Mrs. Charlotte Cameron, explorer. Mrs. Cameron explored the Columbia River highway before leaving here for the North to go to the Yukon.

Mrs. Cameron is one of the five women who are fellows of the Royal Geographical Society of London. She has gone into the wild places seeking experiences and has gathered so many observations and ideas that she has had to write many books to embalm them.

Among the books from her pen are "A Passion in Morocco," "A Durbar Bride," "A Woman's Winter in Africa," and the like. For 20,000 miles she traveled in South America and for 27,000 miles she wandered in Africa, frequently being for weeks at a time in districts where never a white woman or white man had been seen.

On one of these expeditions the hammock bearers were members of a tribe of man-eaters. Mrs. Cameron questioned them on the subject and they assured her that human meat was very toothsome and not unlike pork in taste. The Englishwoman is the only woman who ever explored German Southwest Africa.

Mrs. Cameron who travels without escort other than her hired guides has been in California recently and is compiling information for a book on that state. She will incidentally mention Oregon and Washington and make mention of the Rose Festival of Portland, but the bulk of the volume will be an account of her explorations and discoveries in the land of climate. During the war Mrs. Cameron was a Red Cross canteen worker at the Victoria Station, London.

Lima Beane says to avoid the crowds take the straight and narrow path.

In the case of Lenine and Trotzky, the question "Where do we go from here?" is revised to "Where can we go?"

The trouble with the "eight hours' work, eight hours' sleep, eight hours' play" is that the average man cannot earn enough in eight hours to pay the expense of playing eight hours, when you play the expensive games. He has to do so much paying that he doesn't feel like playing.
