Add to this the large number of hotel and cafe owners who made huge sums on the diamond trade. The fact is these men acted as private bankers to the cutters, who lived almost exclusively in hotels and boarding houses and paid their accounts at long intervals. Finally, there were the hosts of tradesmen and retailers who supplied the 'diamond people' with provisions, clothes and werp, where the yearly business ran into millions of francs, had a membership of 12,000, all of them merchants, brokers or manufacturers.

in 1914 when the Germans entered Belgium? If he hailed from Warsaw he was a Russian subject and an enemy alien; if he came from Cracow he was an Austrian and liable to military service at home. And yet those were exactly the same people. When the Germans retired and the Belgians made their entry these Jews took to their heels and scattered in all directions of the compass.

THE POLICE COMMISSION.

The agitation being carried on in some quarters for the abolition of the Police Commission and transferring control of the force to the City Council is not likely to be taken very seriously. If the city fathers are wise in their day and generation and know when they are well off, they will not countenance any such proposition. Fredericton has a good Police Commission the members of which serve without remuneration, and the major ity of citizens are well satisled with the service they have performed. The control of the police force is now out of civic politics, and the aldermen should see that it remains out. It is a case where they will find it mani festly in the public interests to let well enough alone.
