

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

REBEL AT PARIS STYLES.

U. S. Buyers Show Independence—Object to Short Skirts and the Backless Gown.

Paris, Sept. 10.—The first real display of styles since the war began is being attended by about 300 American buyers, who, however, are showing themselves to be more independent of the dictates of French dress-makers than ever before.

Brown, according to the new models, is again in marked favor. Soft materials are used generally and flounces, panniers and the design of the new models tend toward the strictly feminine appearance. There is not the slightest suggestion of the masculine tailor made effects of the past.

Paris is clinging to skirts hanging seven to eight inches from the ground. American buyers, the dressmakers say, are ridiculing the shortness of the gowns, although frankly admitting that American skirts have been too long. It is said to be likely a compromise in lengths will be offered American women. One of the prominent American buyers said today that "no well formed woman looks well in a really long skirt, and it cannot be graceful," but he laughed at a dressmaker's suggestion that Americans want long skirts because American women do not have pretty ankles.

Prettiest Ankles in the World.

"American women have the prettiest ankles and feet in the world," the buyer replied, "and they also are the best shod, but they realize that the extremely short skirts are ridiculed, and they believe in moderation."

Brown, the prevailing color, is again shown in scores of various shades. There are also shown soft shades of gray, raven blue, tete de negre and moles.

The styles generally show a slight fullness on the hips. Collars are high in many cases and if cut open are adjusted so they may be buttoned close to the throat.

Wool embroideries, metallic ribbons of leather-like texture form the trimmings for afternoon frocks, the majority of which are made with coats to match.

American buyers say they are having almost a battle with Parisian dress makers over the backless evening gowns offered, which the Americans are insisting on having filled in with lace, to the amazement of the French designers, who protest that women should be allowed to display their well formed backs.

Hats for fall and winter are both large and small, but in all cases will frame the face. Velvet is the most popular fabric.

A RECIPE OR TWO.

Banana and Nut Salad.

Slice bananas lengthwise, roll in chopped nuts and arrange on lettuce leaves. Serve with mayonnaise or whipped cream.

Pineapple Fluff.

Turn 1 can of grated pineapple over half a pound of marshmallows and let stand over night, then add 1 pint of whipped cream.

Fried Tomatoes.

Wash and wipe tomatoes, cut in slices (without peeling), fry in butter, turning and seasoning with pepper and salt while frying. Remove to a hot platter, put a teaspoon of flour in pan and mix to a smooth paste with hot butter and pour in half a cup of milk. Stir thoroughly until smooth, season with salt and pepper and pour over the tomatoes. Serve at once.

Every woman thinks that other women's troubles could be cured by wall mottoes if they would faithfully read them.

LABELS FOR PRESERVING

Cut these out and use for labelling your bottles of preserves. This list will be printed every day for a while and thus afford a good supply of labels.
