APRON POSSIBILITIES.

The Bride May Wear Something Coquettish, but the Average Housekeeper Wants Something Practical.

An apron is really a pretty and a charming thing when its artistic possibilities are considered. Usually it is the little bride who affects aprons that have charm; her morning aprons are tricky affairs of pink striped material with a smart flare in the skirt part and a coquettish little bib above the waist line—and very crisp ends that tie in a big bow behind.

An older housekeeper would feel a bit foolish in such an apron, even if when she goes to a matinee she wears a dainty blouse quite as youthful as any the little bride would select.

The house apron of the average good housekeeper is made of checked gingham with narrow belt band that pins at the back. This unbecomingly but extremely practical affair is donned when household labors demand protection of the gown, but you seldom catch the housekeeper at the front door in it, as sometimes you catch the little bride in her bewitchingly becoming pink print apron.

But every house apron can have the qualities of grace and becomingness. Why wear checked brown gingham if pale blue chambray matches one's eyes, or blue checked gingham if a shade of pink print will set off one's complexion?

And why a straight, shapeless apron when a really smart one with circular shaped skirt with a bib with extensions that button at the back of the neck can be obtained at modest price or manufactured in an hour or two in the home sewing room?

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE.

Hot vinegar will remove paint splashes from windows.

Brown sugar is better than white sugar with cereals.

Be sure to have ironing tables of a comfortable height.

In making cake, eggs should have yolks and whites beaten separately.

Creamed potatoes with cheese make a pleasant change.

Three or four cloves added to a cup of tea will remove headache almost immediately.

The under part of the cake will not burn in the gas oven if you stand the cake tin on an asbestos mat.

A quickly made glue is obtained by rubbing a little piece of cold boiled potato on a sheet of paper with the fingers.

Milk should be kept in covered bottle. A good plan is to wrap the milk bottle in a cloth, wet in cold water, and let stand in a draft. Keep the cloth wet.

Match marks on a polished surface may be removed by being first rubbed with a cut lemon and then with a rag dipped in clean water.

If you sustain a burn and no remedy is at hand, try common toilet soap at once. Simply rub it over the burn and you will secure immediate relief and there will be no blistering.

Next time you cook corned beef try a piece from the navel, flank or brisket. These cuts are cheaper than the rump, and you will find them more juicy.

Ether will cleanse white satin collars beautifully. Sponging the soiled spots will leave a ring. Better results will be secured if the ether is poured into a bowl and half the collar is immersed and squeezed at a time.

A woman will forgive a man almost anything—except the fact that he outwitted her at her own game.

SOME VIGOROUS SPEECHES ON THE
POTATO ENQUIRY

Tilley had said that the transaction should have been given out by tender but why had he not said that when his friends were in power? He may have thought it was wrong but he had not said so at the time when a protest might have done some good. He was not surprised at the attitude taken by the opposition as it was quite in keeping with that which they had taken in similar occasions when holding seats on the other side of the House.

Mr. Grimmer

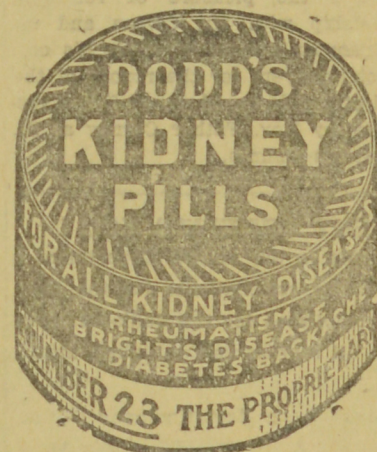

MR. GRIMMER said he was glad to place himself on record with respect to the matter now before the House. He regretted that the name of the late Premier Clarke had been brought into discussion by hon. members opposite. All who knew that gentleman were well aware of the efforts he had put forth to give the Province efficient Government. By his death the Province had lost a most useful citizen. He (Grimmer) would take full responsibility for his action and would let the people of his County be the judges. Reference had been made to the portraits of the distinguished statesmen which adorned the wall of the Chamber. Had those portraits been watching everything that had transpired in the Chamber for a number of years back they must have been turned face to the wall by the actions of the government of by-gone days. With regard to the matter before the House he had not been influenced by newspaper reports but was unable to see that any great wrong had been done. There had been mismanagement and errors but he had yet to learn that one dollar had been wrongfully taken by anybody.

Upon the vote being taken on the amendment, the House divided as follows:

Yeas—Young, Tilley, Campbell, Potts, Peck, Smith (Albert), Crockett, Pinder, Sutton, Grimmer, Smith (Charlotte), Carson, Dickson, Hunter—14.
Nays—Hon. Mr. Foster, Hon. Mr. Smith, Hon. Mr. Byrne, Hon. Mr. Veniot, Hon. Mr. Murray, Hon. Mr. Tweeddale, Hon. Mr. Robinson, Hon. Mr. Dugal, and Messrs. Magee, Burchill, McGrath, Allain, Dysart, LeBlanc, Michaud, Leger (West.), King, Mersereau, Melanson, Boudage, Robichaud, Leger (Gloucester).—22.
The original resolution was carried by the same vote reversed.

There are just three things with which no woman has ever yet been satisfied—her photograph, the shape of her nose and the way in which her husband proposed to her.

One of the strangest things in this world is how a conscientious farmer can charge a town man $6 for a 10 lb. turkey on Saturday and sing hymns on Sunday.

HOUSEKEEPERS' HANDY REFERENCE

BRIEF BUT USEFUL RECIPES.

Restore Gilt Frames.—Rub with a sponge moistened with turpentine.
Drive Away Ants.—A little quicklime placed in the infested places.
Kill Insect Life.—Burn sulphur in a tightly closed room. It will kill almost all insect life and their eggs and larvae.

Make Leather Waterproof.—Saturate it with castor oil; to stop shoes squaking, drive a peg into the middle of the sole.

Remove Tar from Cloth.—Rub it well with turpentine till every trace is removed.

Egg Stains on Spoons.—Rub with common salt.

Fruit Stains on Hands.—Wash the hands in clear water, dry slightly and while still moist strike a sulphur match and hold your hands around the flame.

Clean the Hair.—Wash well with a mixture of soft water, 1 pint; sal soda 1 ounce; cream tartar ¼ ounce.

Clean Gloves.—Pour a little benzine into a basin and wash the gloves in it, rubbing and squeezing them until clean. If much soiled, they must be washed again through clean benzine and rinsed in a fresh supply. Hang in the air to dry.

Clean Hair Brushes.—Dissolve a little soda in warm water and pour in a small amount of ammonia. Hold the brushes with the bristles downward and avoid wetting the back as far as possible; shake until the grease is removed; then rinse in cold water and put in the air to dry.

Remove Stains from Linen.—Wet the part stained and lay on it some salt of wormwood; then rub without diluting it with more water.

How to Remove a Rusty Screw.—Apply a red hot iron to the head for a short time, the screw-driver being applied immediately while the screw is hot.

Remove Mildew from Cloth.—Put a teaspoonful of chloride of lime into a quart of water, strain it twice, then dip the mildewed places in this weak solution and lay in the sun. If not effective the first time repeat.

Cure Mosquito Bites.—Put ten drops of refined carbolic acid into an ounce of rose water; shake well and apply. (If you hold your breath while a mosquito has its bill in you it cannot withdraw it until you breathe again).

Recipes for making carrot marmalade are still going the rounds of the press. But there is no law that compels you to even try it once.
