THE LIBERALS OF EASTERN ONTARIO IN CONVENTION

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Reacquainted as Leader — A Vigorous Address by the Old Chieftain Took a Few Jibes at Members of the Party Who Supported Union Government—Declares That the Only Horizon is That of the Future.

Ottawa, Jan. 14—Eastern Ontario Liberals organized this afternoon with evident enthusiasm and unanimity for a vigorous renewal of political campaigning and unanimously reacquainted Sir Wilfrid Laurier as their leader. Tonight they heard the "Old Chief" proclaim anew the principals of Liberalism, condemn what he called the Union Government's departure from the safeguarding of responsible government urge adequate and prompt measures for the payments of the state's debt to those who fought and those who fell in the war, renounce the Liberal tariff policy, outline the social and industrial problems of statesmanship ahead, invite Union Liberals to forget past differences with Laurier Liberals and be all united Liberals, and finally declare his willingness to retire in favor of a younger general though still willing to serve in any capacity and still assuring that he had "a kick left."

Sir Wilfrid was in excellent form and in an hour's address to the gathering of some five hundred delegates from the twenty-three constituencies represented he touched on most of the political issues of the day. He evidently delighted his audience and he seemed to speak with a careful eye to the future of his party. There were a few jibes at the Liberals who had joined the Union Government which was composed of "former Liberals and permanent Conservatives" but at the same time the olive branch was held out for a re-inviting and a forgetting of past differences on "the passing issue of conscription."

"We look not with the past in view our only horizon is that of the future," declared Sir Wilfrid. As for the past he sought to justify his own stand on the conscription issue. "If anybody else had been in my place," he said "knowing as I knew, perhaps better than any other living Canadian, all the component parts and different elements of our population, I believe he would have done what I did. It was a question of judgment not a question of loyalty. I took the stand I thought would help most, all things being considered, to win the war."

He declared the Liberals have been consistent throughout on the tariff policy enunciated in 1893, a tariff for revenue only and not a tariff for protection. "We proceeded step by step towards the good goal of tariff for revenue only," he said. He asserted this was our policy in the past. This is our policy today and the evidence he adduced was contained in the specific tariff reductions, the British preference and the reciprocity agreement as cited in the tariff resolution passed by the association which resolution received his full indorsement.

In the matter of specific policies, Sir Wilfrid's most important other declaration was in connection with the relations of capital and labor. The resolution passed by the association in the afternoon declaring that to democratize the government of industry so as to give to the workers and consumers a larger share in the government of industry is the task that lies ahead, said Sir Wilfrid. He gave this as "the keynote." That keynote he said had been struck by Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, "the only real minister of labor Canada ever had."

Whereupon Sir Wilfrid passed on to refer to his own leadership and his personal desire to resign the task to younger hands. "I feel every day," he said smilingly, "that I am getting riper and riper for heaven. But I will do my share in any position and complete my task cheerfully in any position whether as general, captain, lieutenant or private in the ranks."

Sir Wilfrid's emphasis upon the new task ahead of Liberalism in regard to social reconstruction and the bringing together of capital and labor with his special tribute to Hon. MacKenzie King lends significance to his references to the turning over of the leadership to younger hands. It is perhaps significant, too, that all the speakers today carefully noted that there was no longer any need for differences between Union Liberals and Laurier Liberals and that the president-elect, Mr. Horsey, was a conscriptionist Liberal candidate in Prince Edward county in the last election.

Hon. George P. Graham declared today that the time was approaching when the political forces of Canada would clash, and that it behooved Liberals to lay down a radical platform for the masses of the people.

Hon. Charles Murphy desired to correct the mischievous impression which had been circulated to the effect that "The Liberal party was opposed to re-instatement into the party of those who had conscientiously stood for Union government at the recent elections." There was already proof on that very platform that the re-union of the Liberal party was even now going on apace.

BOLSHEVIKI PLOTTERS BUSY IN ARGENTINA

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 14—Seven confessed Bolsheviki were arrested in Montevideo last night. They admitted that a plot existed in Uruguay and Argentina for a mammoth uprising and the murdering of the most prominent persons in both countries.

Isaac Molunoff, their leader, who was arrested implicated forty-two others besides those under arrest.

One of the men he denounced as having been implicated in the bombing of the Colon Theatre in Buenos Ayres at the centenary celebration when some persons were killed.

The present plot was to have been carried out within a month.

The police of Buenos Ayres have the names of Argentinians implicated and are searching for them.

Among the others arrested in Montevideo are Moses Federmann, Marcus Mirnovich, Nauman Patulovski and Isaac Reily.

Molunoff is a Lenine agent, he very proudly declares.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 15—Tobaccos assumed first place later on Sumatra's rapid advance of 8½ points, general cigars gaining two and kindred issues one to one and a half. Advances among oils ranged from one to five points and great northern ore added 1½ to yesterday's raise. Other strong features embraced American smelting American Can, hide and leather preferred, Ajax Rubber, United Fruit and associated drygoods. Irregular reactions set in before noon, however, on further pressure against Bethlehem Steel and Baldwin Locomotive, international nickel and American Woolen, also becoming heavy. Liberty bonds were steadier.

Police Having Quiet Time
Everything is quiet at the local police station today. No offences were reported and although several drunks patrolled the back streets last evening they escaped the vigilance of the police. Police Magistrate Limerick left for Boston last evening where he was called by the death of his father.

Gifts selected by Lady Beatty, wife of the Admiral of the British Grand Fleet, went to American children instead of to Scotch boys and girls, as the doctors, the crew of the battleship New York, had expected. This was because the armistice having been signed the New York came home in time to have a New Year's celebration in New York instead of a Christmas one in a Scotch port, as had been planned. Poor children, many of whose fathers had sacrificed their lives for their country, were the guests of the New York's crew aboard the vessel, these gifts having contributed $2,500 of their savings to pay for the presents.

Some Clashes

The Crown is represented by Messrs H. G. Fenety and C. D. Richards and the defence by Messrs G. T. Feeney and J. B. Dickson. There were a few clashes between counsel. Witnesses were given a searching cross examination by counsel for the defence. On one occasion Mr. Feeney said that Kenneth Carson had been "well primed" with his story and Mr. Richards made objection to the remark.
