THE FATE OF TURKEY

The Brooklyn, N. Y., Eagle sums up the present Turkish situation as follows:

"The Allied Council's answer to Turkey's apology for entering the war, and plea for the preservation of her territory is one of the most scathing indictments ever brought against a people. The incapacity of the Turks for self government, no less than their monstrous record as rulers of alien peoples, is used in answer to the plea to retain control over subject races. The Turks themselves must bear the blame for allowing their country to be brought into the war by Germany and they cannot evade responsibility for crimes committed during the war.

"The Allied note sweeps aside all of the Turkish claims and shows the Allied attitude plainly enough. Turkey is judged guilty on ample evidence of all the things of which she is accused, but final sentence has not yet been passed, and there is nothing in the note that indicates just what will be the ultimate settlement of the numerous problems involved in the dissolution of Turkey, which has been decided upon. Even the question of the disposition of Constantinople remains undetermined.

"There has been considerable agitation in Great Britain in favor of allowing the Turk to remain in possession of Constantinople. The chief argument has been religious, it being contended that the effect upon the Moslems outside of Turkey of driving the Sultan out of his capital would be serious. The Allied Council seems to be little impressed by this argument, since it demolishes a similar contention put forth by the Turks. This leaves the matter where it was before. There has also been considerable sentiment in England in favor of the United States becoming a mandatory for all of Turkey. This is a big problem, involving radical departures from our traditions, but under present conditions, dependent upon the formation and development of the League of Nations, the proposition should warrant serious consideration."

DESTRUCTION OF CHURCHES.

New New York Herald in a recent issue says: It is impossible for any decent man to read the appeal of Mr. H. S. Andrews to his fellow Catholics in the United States for aid to rebuild the ruined and looted churches of Northern France without feeling bitter indignation against the sacrilegious Germans, who throughout the war showed that they had as little respect for religion as they had for human rights of any sort.

Here are the facts. More than four thousand churches, chapels, vestries and clerical houses were destroyed, the most of them simply through hatred and for no military purpose whatever—in other words, unnecessarily. Another thousand were reduced to ruins. The ancient and lovely vessels, vestments, laces and linens, objects essential to or associated with public worship in these churches, were either destroyed or stolen and carried off to Germany. In the diocese of Amiens 212 churches were completely destroyed; in that of Arras, 220; in Chalons sur Marne, 30; in Soissons, 305; in Rheims 100, and in Verdun 150.

The French government is considering the problem of the high cost of living, and, according to the Echo de Paris, is contemplating the issuance of a decree opening the frontiers immediately for the importation of necessary raw materials. The Figaro says the government is discussing the proposition of the exportation of certain foodstuffs such as butter, eggs and cheese. Other newspapers declare the government intends to propose a law inflicting very severe penalties on food speculators.

Woodstock is the first town in the Maritime Provinces to adopt the town manager plan. Mr. Fraser Armstrong, C. E., son of Mr. R. E. Armstrong, of St. John, has been appointed at a salary of $3,000 per year. He will have complete charge of all town services and will also act as purchasing agent. He will enter upon his duties at once. The experiment will be watched by other cities and towns with considerable interest.

Philadelphia Press: They are getting the German throne ready for a come-back, and the ex-Kaiser is getting ready to re-occupy it. No matter what sort of combinations are made among peace-inclined nations, it is evident they have got to stay on the job of watching the Huns as long as there are any Huns left to watch.

Brantford Expositor: The Liberal Party both in Great Britain and Canada, has led the way in almost every proposal looking to the conferring of greater benefit upon the masses of the people, and it cannot afford to lose that supremacy now.

Hon. Frank B. Carvell is mentioned as possible chairman of the new Dominion Court of Commerce, says an Ottawa despatch. The appointment is to be made within the next few days.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

If you do not expect to win, you will be an easy loser.

There is always hope for the fool who minds his own business.

Sometimes one darkly suspects that it is called strawberry shortcake because it is so short of strawberries.

Some fathers, even though they sat on the bench, would be afraid to punish their daughters.

The dentist's bill is another thing that makes a man wish he had kept his mouth shut.

In most cases it is not what is done, but who does it, that attracts attention.

Spectators are casting admiring glances at the 1919 model cantaloupes that are now on the market.

For that matter, it looked like the beginning of the end when those Turkish delegates took a bath.

Now possibly that town of Staples that was blown away in the Minnesota cyclone, will have the good judgment to use spikes or bolts.

Sometimes it looks as if the farmer would like to be considered downtrodden, according to tradition. But it is not easy to create that impression now. Adversity is a hard tune to play on an auto horn.

WORSE THAN FREDERICTON

(Moncton Transcript.)
A Monctonian who was in St. John yesterday states that cultivated strawberries were retailing there as low as 16 and 17 cents a box, while in Moncton they were selling at 30 and 35c. He further states that they were selling at the wharf in crate lots as low as ten cents a box. The citizen would like to know the cause of the high price of berries in Moncton. Another citizen says that when in St. John a few days ago he bought bananas for 35 cents a dozen, and saw others marked at 30 cents, while on the same date in Moncton the prices asked for bananas were 60 cents a dozen and upwards. He says also that the price for a haircut and shave in St. John is 50 cents, while in Moncton a shave and haircut cost 65 cents.

WEDDING AT BLOOMFIELD

Mr. Chas. Owen Graham and Miss Nina Mae London United in Marriage—Many Present.

A very pretty wedding took place at the church in Bloomfield Carleton County at 7.30 p. m. June 25th when Nina Mae London was united in marriage to Charles Owen Graham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. B. Champion and the church was very tastefully decorated with ferns and evergreens and pansies, the work being done by friends of the bride who is organist of the church. The ceremony was witnessed by a large gathering of relatives and friends many having to remain outside the church. The ushers were Messrs Barry and Maurice London of Woodstock. The wedding march was played by Miss Iva Thomas and the wedding party entered the church and took their places beneath an arch of evergreens and a large bell of daisies. The bride was beautifully gowned in white duchess satin and georgette crepe trimmed with beads and wore a bridal veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and was given away by her uncle Mr. Horatio London. The bridesmaid Miss Geneva Stokoe cousin of the bride looked very dainty in pink crepe de chene and black picture hat and carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by Lewis London brother of the bride. After the ceremony the invited guests numbering about 120 repaired to the residence of the bride's mother Mrs. Mary London where a reception was held the ushers being Miss Lenore London and Miss Doris Wilkins. A buffet luncheon of sandwiches, cake and ice cream was served on the lawn which was decorated with Chinese lanterns. Some of the relatives from a distance included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. William Clark and Cook Hall of Woodstock; Mrs. Frank and Millard Gordon, Mrs. James Graham, mother of the groom, Ralph Graham, a brother, of Keswick Ridge; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slipp of Queensbury. The bride received numerous useful presents and many cheques including a generous one from the groom. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a signet ring, to the groomsmen a gold tie clip, to the organist beauty pins set with pearls. The following day the party motored to Keswick Ridge where a reception was held on the 27th at the home of Mr and Mrs James Graham parents of the groom.

able cots from the corridors, as well as other inconveniences.

To Colonel Loggie and the Local Improvement Association is due the splendid condition of the lawn on the lower side of the hospital building.

Coal Contract

Tenders were received from Messrs S. L. Morrison, A. H. VanWart, and R. T. Baird, for the necessary supply of coal for the hospital. The contract was awarded to Mr. Baird, his offer being the lowest.

At the suggestion of Mr. Simonds, Secretary of the Board of Trade, a cheque was received from Mr. E. R. Blackmer, a balance from some recent transactions.

Before the session closed the President was authorized to procure electric fans for the two public wards.

Had Fine Horses.

Lovers of horseflesh who attended the John Robinson circus here yesterday were greatly taken with the magnificent animals shown in the ring. The finest horse of all was a black gelding ridden by a lady wearing a neat fitting riding habit. It is a French Morgan and is valued at $15,000. The lady is the owner and trainer of the horse and it is said carries insurance on it to the amount of $10,000.
