THE PRINCE IN THE U. S.

The Boston Herald says that on the occasion of the visit of King Edward VII as Prince of Wales to Boston in 1860, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote his fine international ode, "Our Fathers' Land." Of the most impressive incident of that tour the London Times correspondent wrote: "There is something greatly suggestive of historical retribution in the reverential awe of Prince of Wales, the great-grandson of George III., standing bareheaded at the foot of the coffin of Washington." The Prince planted a chestnut by the side of the tomb, and "It seemed," said the correspondent, "when the royal youth closed in the earth round the little germ, that he was burying the last faint trace of discord between us and our great brethren in the West. The present Prince of Wales says the Herald knows nothing of the mouldered discord. In his sensible, frank and genial presence its ghost will not walk. He never met it when he met and marched with American troops in France, nor will he hear any hint of such a phantom in his intercourse with Americans in their own country. Our boys who were over there in the fields of war with him brought back a description that made him seem one of themselves, and he will find that the spirit of comradeship, between man and man, and between nation and nation, is the spirit that animates us all. We trust that when the Renown hoists his flag and steams away he will carry with him many pleasant recollections, and feel that he has received the characteristically American invitation, "Come Again."

GETTING BUSY FOR BUSINESS

Canadian business men as a class have rallied strongly to the support of the Victory Loan, not merely as purchasers, but as "boosters." This is not true merely of the great cities, but of everyone of the smaller industrial centres where local patriotism has been splendidly aroused. But there is still plenty of missionary work for business men to do before the books close at the middle of this month.

The business man has every public and private reason to get out and hustle for the Loan. Its success means a great deal to him. For the average Canadian business man, Victory Bonds constitute an insurance plan. Business in this country depends on the continuance of Canada's export trade to Great Britain and European countries which for the time being can only be built up and permanently maintained by the credit system inaugurated two years ago. To keep up the credit system it is necessary that a large working capital should be provided by the people of Canada, through a heavy over-subscription to the present Victory Loan. Its failure or partial failure would inevitably have a very serious effect on business. It is probable that most business men have a keen realization of this; but if there is any man who is handing back and trying to dodge his responsibilities he had better rub his eyes and look ahead. His own income is imperilled if the Loan does not go over on a splendid scale.

Moncton Transcript: The Standard has not denied the Globe's story that the vote on the question of retaining Mr. Murray in the leadership was far from being unanimous. It is unfortunate for Mr. Murray and the remnant of the party he leads that Mr. Baxter should have chosen the convention as the place to kick the door off the St. John cupboard and disclose the skeleton. St. John has been the stronghold of the party and the fact that Mr. Baxter should have taken advantage of the absence of Leader Murray to try to read Messers Tilley, Potts and Campbell out of the party makes the performance all the more interesting.

The New York Herald of Sunday Nov. 16th, will contain a special illustrated article on "The Gateway of Canada," by H. S. Philpot. It will embody a description of the great gates through which pass in and out the enormous commerce of the prosperous Dominion. The Herald is easily the greatest American newspaper, and it devotes a lot of attention to Canadian affairs.

N. B. FARMERS MAY HAVE AN ORGAN

Toronto, Nov. 13.—It is said that a movement is on foot by the farmers to start a paper in New Brunswick and to co-ordinate the new paper with the Farmers' Sun of Ontario and the Grain Growers' Guide of the west. The idea is said to be to link up the three newspaper organs of the farmers of the Dominion for advertising purposes, while each paper will maintain an editorial independence.

It is said the Farmers' Sun and the New Brunswick paper will be modelled on the plan of the Grain Growers' Guide and published in magazine form.

TO CARE FOR WOUNDED

Money From Victory Loan Will Be Used to Re-establish Soldiers.

Our soldiers in France faced perils other than those of shell and gas and machine-gun fire. There was the peril of tuberculosis. Up to August last 3,909 soldiers suffering from this disease had been returned to Canada. These were placed in sanatoriums under the direction of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, and they are one of the departments of that branch that must be maintained, and come under the head of capital war outlay. All of these men and some 20,000 others, disabled or ill, will be looked after with money raised through the Victory Loan 1919. It is the sacred duty of Canadians that the money is forthcoming.

Mr. Charles E. Yorick of Toronto is at the Barker House.

Victory Loan 1919 Is Bridge Between War and Peace.

Agricultural and Industrial Prosperity of Canada Depends on Success of the Loan.

Why is it necessary to have another Victory Loan? Have you heard this query? Or have you asked it? The Victory Loan of this year stands out as the bridge between war and peace. The war is over. Our boys won that. The reconstruction period is dawning and we at home must win that.

Much of the money that Canada is asking for will be needed to clean up the war debt. The expenses of demobilization were heavy, and there is still much of it unpaid. Now that our men are back, let it not be said that we repudiated the debt for bringing them back.

The sick and wounded soldiers still in hospitals are expecting that Canada will care for them and their dependents until they have been returned to health and strength. The hospital services must be maintained at full strength as long as there are returned men needing attention.

Many men through disability are unable to return to their pre-war occupations. The Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment is doing a fine work in training returned soldiers in trades and professions that they can earn a living at, and is following up the training and seeing that they obtain remunerative employment. The maintaining of this branch of reconstructive service calls for much funds, and the Victory Loan will be used to pay for it as well as the other purposes.

Under the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, enough money is lent to returned soldiers to enable them to buy and stock a farm. This money will be repaid at a low rate of interest. The soldier is thus given a chance to re-instate himself in civil life, and production is given a boost. Of the total amount of the forthcoming loan, $24,000,000 has been apportioned to finance these soldier-farmers.

Pensions to the disabled and dependents of our glorious dead, as well as the authorized gratuities will be other items on the expense sheet. These are some of the obligations owing to the returned soldier who is now in health.

The maintaining of Canada's prosperity is an important reason why the Victory Loan should be a smashing success. The money is needed to finance the credits to overseas countries so that they may continue their trade relations with us. If Canada cannot give these credits other countries will, and then Canada will lose all that great overseas trade that has been the mainstay of our agricultural and industrial life for so long.

As an investment Victory Bonds are eminent. Paying 5½ per cent., selling above par on the open market, and guaranteed by the Dominion—what further reason can you have for hesitating? The Victory Loan 1919 ought to be oversubscribed, and all right-thinking citizens will do their utmost to see that such a result is obtained.

Time Not Opportune

St. John Telegraph: In regard to the adverse criticism of the provincial government's liquor policy, Premier Foster, when seen last night, said that the present was not thought to be an opportune time for the government to enter the liquor business.

Death at Oromocto.

Harrison Ward, son of the late Wm. Ward, passed away yesterday at his home in Oromocto after a lingering illness from tuberculosis. The deceased was 31 years of age and is survived by four brothers. A. Humphrey, of Seattle, Sias, of Oromocto, Morley of Oromocto and Garnet of St. John and by one sister, Mrs. Darrah of Spokane, Washington. The funeral took place this afternoon, interment being made at Oromocto.

The Purdy Must P.P.Y.

Judge Audette has reversed the decision of Sir Douglas Hazen, Judge of the Admiralty Court, in the case of the steamers Premier and D. J. Purdy. Chief Justice Hazen found that both ships were to blame for the collision, and ordered both parties to make good the damage to the Premier. Judge Audette finds that the collision was due to the "lubberly navigation" of the crew of the Purdy, and orders her owners to pay all the damages, amounting to $4,000.

Second of Triplets Dead

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bryce will regret to hear of the death of their infant daughter, which occurred yesterday, in the Maternity Home, Coburg street, St. John. The infant is one of triplets, two boys and one girl, one of the little brothers dying a short time ago. The mother and surviving boy are getting along nicely. Mrs. Bryce was formerly Miss Florence Murray daughter of the late Thomas Murray of this city.

Four dollar may be the last stiff that sweeps the Victory Loan over the top. Would you take the chance of making it a failure?

Lend your money that your pay envelope may be always filled, as will follow the success of the Victory Loan.

Victory Bonds are the fodder that keeps the machinery of Canada's industrial world running at full speed.
